

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3489 )

Chen frowned and asked: "Listen to what you mean, it seems that all these are attributed to you?"

"Of course." Charlie raised his eyebrows and smiled: "It's not an exaggeration to say that most of it is my credit."

Chen snorted, and asked in a bad tone: "So, you seem to be awesome?"

Charlie nodded, breaking his fingers and said: "Look, the tactical planning of the positive slope fortification with the reverse slope defensive tunnel, the guidance of giving up all the bases in the valley and turning into the mountain tunnel, plus the construction of high walls, The strategic core of accumulating food and slowly becoming king, these are my ideas. With the guidance of the essence of these tactics, even a bunch of mud legs can play a fighting potential far beyond ordinary people's imagination.

These are my reasons. Mead's tailor-made, judging from the first two major victories, I was really awesome."

After speaking, Charlie paused slightly and then smiled: "At least, it's a little better than you."

Chen thought of the more than 2,500 men who had died tragically in Hunter (Hamid)'s position, and suddenly slapped the table with anger, and said angrily: "Boy, don't be too arrogant!"

Charlie shook his head with a disdainful face and said: "It's so boring that your eyes are so small. It's because you questioned me for not being strong enough, so I answered you where I am really strong.

In the end, you are still ashamed and angry, why? You don't understand the phrase "Naibing's family affairs"? Or do you understand but can't afford to lose?"

Chen blurted out subconsciously and shouted: "I can't afford to lose!"

Charlie smiled and asked: "Oh? You can't afford to lose? Then after you take your own humiliation, you still have to slap me on the table and stare at you?"

Isn't this what you can't afford to lose? Is this the four kings of the Wanlong Palace? Your heart?"

Chen didn't expect Charlie to call , and he was full of anger at what he said, but he didn't know how to break out.

He also knows very well that if you lose on the battlefield, you lose. No matter what disgusting tactics the opponent uses, it is not the reason for his failure.

I can't ask him why your people want to hide in bunker, why your people set up traps and blow up so many brothers.

If he asked such a thing, he would really lose his face and the face of the Wanlong Temple.

So, he could only gritted his teeth, pointed at Charlie and said: "Okay! You can do it! I remember you!"

Charlie nodded: "You better remember it clearly."

At this time, the government commander who had been silent on the side opened his mouth and said roundly: "Okay, we are here for peace talks today, not for quarrels, let's hurry up and get to the point!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Okay, let's get to the point, let me first talk about the core demands of our commander in this peace talk."

The government commander hurriedly said, "Okay, you say!"

Charlie said seriously: "First of all, we are willing to negotiate a ceasefire with you. As long as you give up encircling us, then we will also keep a distance from you and not infringe on each other."

When Chen heard this, he immediately said angrily: "What a joke! You just want us to give up the encirclement? Why? If we give up the encirclement, are you willing to surrender?"

Charlie smiled and said: "You are all grown-ups. Don't speak so naively. You can never surrender. You can never surrender in this life."

Seeing Charlie mocking his innocence, Chen said angrily: "What? I told you to surrender is naive, isn't it naive if you let us give up the encirclement?"

Charlie gave him a white look and said: "I have just said that this is first, you are also Chinese, you should know what these two words mean first, it is just a prerequisite, do you understand the prerequisite?"

Chen couldn't hold back his anger, and sternly shouted: "Are you f*cking here to negotiate or to provoke!"
