

Luciano's POV

Fuck....I made her cry. When her father slapped her in front of me, it killed me. I don't know why I couldn't see tears in her eyes. I shouldn't have do that. It's her brother's wedding on Thursday and I've to attend it. I don't attend stupid fucking events but i had to for a certain brunette.

I am planning on some business deal with Alessio for that i had my plan. He better agree with me on it otherwise I'll fuck his life badly.

Today i had to kill a rat who stole drug from my warehouse. I entered the building, he was already tied to the chair. I didn't pay any mind to his pleads and shot him in the head. In the next room, my other kill was tied too, i went in and got the information from him i wanted. After that i plunged a knife into his chest.

I went to my cousins club and sat on one of red chairs. Today's theme was Jungle. Many women were dressed like animals and looking at me with those 'fuck me' eyes but i picked a shy one who was looking at me from far away. I was a sucker for shy ones. With her i left for the hotel.

That was one of the best fucks I've ever had. I headed home and gave Daisy her dogfood and played with her. After a while i took a shower and got ready for bed.

Anastasia's POV

"Mama see this dress!" It was red gown dress which reached the floor. It looked so beautiful.

"Baby it'll look so beautiful on you, Get this one" after we were done shopping we headed home. When we entered the house my heart stopped. The world was a blur. My head was spinning badly. There stood the man who tried raping me in my childhood.

"Ana Dear!! You've grown up." It was my dad's cousin Rodriguez who was his partner. Before he could reach me, i fainted and dropped to the floor.

"Anastasia wake up!!" My mama shook me awake. i got up and saw my Papa and brothers in my room. Doctor said it was a sun stroke but the reason was something else.

At dinner time Antonio brought me to the table. i sat across Diego who smiled a little at me, wait he smiled at me for the very first time. Rodriguez entered.

"Anastasia dear! Are you okay now!" The bastard asked.

"Yeah i am good." i answered politely. After dinner i went to Garden and sat at my swing. The moon looked so beautiful, it was shinning like the day i met Luciano. Why was i even thinking about him? Get him out of your mind Anastasia.

In the middle of my sleep, i felt someone touching me. I jolt up and saw that Rodriguez tied my hands to bed and he taped my mouth. I started crying and screaming but they were muffled due to the tape on my mouth.

"Oh Dear! I would love to do so much things to this beautiful body of yours!" he said. i was crying constantly. He pulled my shirt up and put his mouth on my breast. He was biting and sucking the sensitive nub.

I heard my Mom's voice coming, she was coming here. Rodriguez got up and untied me.

"Spill a fucking word, and i kill you!" he seethed and ran away. After some minutes my mama came in and asked me why i was crying.

"It was a bad dream." i said and she pulled me into her arms. The next morning i woke up and took a cold shower. It was Enzo's wedding today. After breakfast, I came to my room and got ready for the wedding. I looked very pretty in red dress. I curled my hair and did minimal makeup, with the dress i wore a butterfly jewellery set and red stilettos.

Oh my God! The wedding hall was literally so beautiful. Enzo worked really hard for his wedding. I met with some of my cousins and we caught up on latest fashion trends. I excused myself and went where my brothers were. Suddenly i bumped into someone and almost tripped on my feet but they caught ne from my waist. It was the person with those Ocean blue orbs.

"Sorry" i said

"Watch where you are going next time?" he replied coldly and left. I stood there shocked. I went to restroom to fix my makeup,after i was done i headed back. On my way back to the hall , someone grabbed my arm and yanked me into the restroom. It was Rodriguez. He started to kiss me down my throat and kneaded my breasts. I screamed but he covered my mouth with his hand.

Suddenly the door opened, There stood Luciano. He shot Rodriguez in between his eyes. I was scared and numb. I stared at the dead body for a little longer.

"Run Anastasia!" Luciano said and with that i left the place and went to my Mama. We took our seats but i was still so numb to process. I saw Luciano sitting far away. Our eyes locked for a while but he broke the eye contact.

Nora, Enzo's bride walked down the aisle. She looked beautiful. Enzo helped her to get on stage. The bride and groom exchanged their vows and shared a kiss. Enzo was pretty eager to marry Nora ever since he laid eyes on her. We were halfway through the Dinner, Diego came running.

"Uncle Rodriguez is dead in the restroom." With that i froze. My eyes landed to Luciano who was looking at me. He had no expression on his face. Rodriguez's body was taken away by my Father's men. We left the place and Enzo went to the hotel right away. On our way home, Dad was in a very happy mood. He got Rodriguez's business too, he never liked him. At home, he asked me to bring his whiskey and i got it to him.

"You will not continue homeschool from next week and no buts!"without any protest, i gave up and went to my room and cried for all what happened today. My dad wants me to get married to a man who'll benefit his business. I wanted to be a Doctor. My dream is now just a dream. I cried alot and started at the ceiling.
