

Anastasia's POV

After baking some cupcakes i decorated them and placed some in a container. I dropped the cupcakes to the neighbors house. It was a big estate just like my home. There little girl Alora loves the cupcakes i bake.

As i was on my way back to home, I saw those Ocean blue orbs staring at me. Luciano. He was leaning against his car. I frowned and looked at him.

"Umm...Mr W-Warner! What do you want Mr Warner?"

"I am here to talk to your dad." He replied. As usual his eyes were empty.

"Follow me." I gestured and he started trailing behind me. I went straight into my Dad's office. So many papers scattered on his desk.

"God.Do you children ever knock!?" My dad said.

"Umm... Mr Warner is here" i replied shortly and Luciano was looking at me. He went inside and i left.

"That's how Electronegativity increases down the group. Are you paying attention?!" Bruno asked.

"Yes i am." Well i wasn't paying any mind to him. I was thinking about The devil in my Dad's office. To be honest, he is scary as hell. I should stay away from him and not think about him. He does something to me. Bruno looked at me like he doubts me. He gave me so many equations to solve, which i did very well. After an hour Bruno left and i went down.

In the dining room, i saw Enzo kissing his wife. She was pregnant and he was over the moon. My mother was crying too. After so long, everybody in my house was in good mood. I was happy to be an aunt soon. Now i will not be bored much. I can help babysitting for Enzo and bella.

Dad was happy about it too, he always wanted a grandchild. He called Antonio in his office and left. Me, Nonno and Mama had dinner and I went to tv room. I picked a romantic comedy and played it. Diego came in smacked my head, snatched the tv remote from me and played the sports channel. I frowned.

"What?! Go to sleep little princess." he said. I felt bad and I don't know why I had tears. Diego probably saw those but i ran to my room. I heard diego calling my name and i stoped midway. He came and gave me a candy and a little smile. This was his way of apologizing. I accepted it and went to my room. Though i was still feeling bad.

I closed my door and composed myself. I can't always be treated like this. To change my mood i hit upon a plan. I read this in many novels. I turned the Red led lights on, locked my room door and stripped from my clothes. I was going to do this for the very first time. I sat on my bed in my undergarments and moved my hands sensually over my body. I took my black panties off and ran my middle finger over my clit. It was tingling. I moved it in slow circles and after a while i increased my pace.

I was constantly flicking my clit and holding my boobs in other hand. Small voices were coming from my mouth. Soon the pressure started to built. I was shaking and felt good. After a while i exoloded. Wow, i cummed for the first time. It felt good. I got from my bed and showered with the coldest water and slept.

Luciano's POV

"We'll seal a deal!"I said to Alessio.

"And what is it?"

"I will marry your daughter and I'll help you to kill The spanish bastards." i stated. Alessio looked like he has seen a ghost.

"What?! My Daughter!! The fuck I'll let her marry you!"He replied fuming with anger.

"They are after your daughter and will sell her to sex trafficking. I want to save myself, you and our mafia from them. I'll protect her but I am a man who doesn't love anyone." i replied.

He looked deep in thought and nodded.

"Deal, we'll discuss the wedding later." he replied. Satisfied I left his office. I had to do this to save the mafia my dad and Alessio started but i had many other businesses and Work. They were after me and i don't want help from anyone i am capable of killing people in seconds but for the sake of mafia Alessio will help.

I went to my club and met my cousin Damon. I nodded and he smirked. I sat at a sofa and a girl dressed like a Cat approached me. Damon sent her. She kneeled down and looked at me and bite her lips. She brought her hands to my zip and pulled it down along with my boxers. My cock hung low.

She stroked it and started sucking me off. i gripped her hair in my hand and went more down. After releasing my children in her mouth, i got up and left.

Daisy wasn't home today. She was at a veterinary hospital for a day or more. I made myself a cup of coffee and sat down with a book. I read sometimes.

After finishing the book, i got up and went to the balcony. It had no plants or something just a chair and a telescope. I gazed the stars for a while and went to bed. I had to marry Anastasia. She is something else. Her big Bambi eyes, her innocence and everything. She's so naive. I had to protect her. She always looks like she's about to cry and sad. Well i don't want a soft and smooth relationship but the deal was to be sealed. I won't be gentle for her, i am just giving her protection. She's too good for me.

Anastasia's POV

"Anastasia!!!" i jolt wake up. it was my Papa. Shoot. What did i do now? I went down the stairs and he was standing at the bottom of the stairs.

"Come the fuck down!" He seethed with anger. He was so angry. My heart was beating so fast. My all brothers stood there too looking mad.

I went down and my dad slapped me hard and i fell on back. I thought that i lost my senses. I got up and my dad slapped me again. This time mama came to hold me.

"Why the hell on earth did you make an Instagram account?!" Shit. I shouldn't have do this.

"We checked your phone every now and then and you deceived us by hiding it in secret folder!"said Nathan. He looked like he's about to murder me. Everybody looked angery.

"You are grounded for a whole month and give your phone to me. You'll never get it unless you learn your lesson!" My Dad said. I slowly looked him in his eye. He looked disappointed. I nodded slowly.
