

Chapter 1341

The Empress scanned her surroundings right at this moment and looked at the army before saying, “Everyone, listen up! Do not tell anyone of this incident between Darryl and Princess Long. I’ll behead anyone who says even a single word!”

“Yes, Your Majesty!” The soldiers knelt and replied in unison upon feeling the Empress’s authoritative threats.

The Empress nodded before looking at Darryl. “Darryl, although I’m indifferent to you, I can only approve of you two being together since what’s done cannot be undone.”

The Empress then immediately issued a decree, “I appoint Darryl Darby as the South Cloud World Princess Long’s Prince Consort from today onwards! The officials and South Cloud’s people shall celebrate!”

“Yes, Your Majesty!”

The soldiers immediately replied upon hearing the decree with many of them looking at Darryl with deep envy and jealousy.

Darryl was so lucky! He immediately became the Prince Consort!

Quincy was like a goddess in the South Cloud World and admired by many! More importantly, Quincy's position in the South Cloud World was just right below the Empress and above thousands!

'F*ck? I've become the...Prince Consort? And Quincy is now mine? This is too surprising!'

Darryl's mind instantly buzzed and became blank as he speechlessly looked at Quincy in a daze. He currently had mixed emotions and did not know whether he should be happy or surprised.

"Your Majesty..."

Quincy trembled in bafflement as well before her face blushed and helplessly said to the Empress, "I cannot marry him..."

"It's fine, Sister!"

The Empress thought that Quincy was embarrassed, so she pursed her lips and smiled before interrupting, "Darryl is the Elysium Gate Sect Master and also considered the Hero of the World Universe. It's not a bad deal for you to marry him. Furthermore, what's done cannot be undone as both of you have already done the deed."

The Empress then turned her head and looked at Darryl. "Darryl, I'll find a special day for your wedding when we leave the ancient tomb! However, you have to remember that you cannot bully my sister. Otherwise, I'll never forgive you."

"Uh..." Darryl's mind was still buzzing at that moment and a little flustered, but still nodded in a daze, "D-don't worry, Y-Your Majesty!"

The Empress nodded and gently said to Quincy, "Sister, you and Darryl are now officially together. I'll get you some new clothes to wear and you can later leave here."

She was Princess Long, how could she rendezvous with Darryl at the ancient tomb in her messy clothes? Luckily it was the Empress that stumbled upon them. What would that look like for them if anyone else saw them?

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Quincy replied depressingly with her head lowered.

Quincy was embarrassed and furious, yet helpless at the same time at that moment as the Empress had decided she was to be with Darryl. The public might even label her as an immoral woman who was not willing to marry Darryl after sleeping with him if word went around that she stubbornly refused to marry Darryl!

Therefore, Quincy did not dare say anything at that moment!

The Empress beside lifted her hands and instructed the soldiers, "Let's go. We shall not disturb the Princess and her consort."

Truth be told, the Empress initially wanted to snatch it from him when she got the news just moments ago about the Blood Battle Eight Directions method in Darryl's hands.

However, Darryl being the Prince Consort meant that he was one of their own, so it would be pointless to snatch it from him. The Empress soon brought the army out of the hall.

In an instance, only Quincy and Darryl were left in the huge hall.

The atmosphere suddenly turned awkward.

Chapter 1342

Darryl slowly came to his senses after being silent for more than 10 seconds or so before smiling and looked at Quincy. "Honey, let's go and not stay here anymore. It's not good if people see us like this."

Life is indeed strange. One moment ago, Darryl was still against Quincy Long, in a blink of an eye, he became her Prince Consort.

Quincy's face flushed even redder upon Darryl's immodesty and coldly said, "Shut up and go away!"

Darryl just had to aggravate her. She would not have a psychotic break, burnt her clothes, or even have her sister misunderstood her if not because of him.

Darryl scratched his head and smiled mischievously before saying, "Honey, I'm your Prince Consort. How could you ask me to leave? Come, let me carry you."

Only Darryl would be thick-skinned enough to say such words before approaching her.

Quincy panicked and stomped her feet upon seeing Darryl approaching her. "You! Stand there! Who allowed you to approach me! I'll kill you if you come closer!"

Quincy's face was ice-cold when she said these as she immediately felt like killing Darryl. However, she was too weak from her very recent psychotic break and could not do so even if she truly wanted to!

“Why do you have such a bad temper?”

Darryl pouted with a helpless expression and said, “You’ll be killing your husband if you take action against me. Aren’t you afraid Her Majesty will blame you?”

“You...” Quincy was livid as she sneered and said, “Darryl, I’m warning you. Don’t think that I’ve become your woman just because Her Majesty issued a decree. I have no whatsoever relationship with you!”

Quincy then bit her lip hard and quickly went out of the main hall as Darryl was getting more and more immodest. In addition, she had not fully regained her internal energy and was unsure what other things he might do to her, so it was better to leave first.

Darryl did not know whether to laugh or cry upon looking at Quincy’s back. He could not help but yell out loud, “Eh? Why are you going just like that...”

However, Quincy did not look back. Darryl then chuckled, sat cross-legged on the floor, and tried to heal his injuries. Megan had interrupted him just moments ago when he tried to cultivate the Blood Battle Eight Directions and had not healed yet till that moment, hence Darryl intentionally aggravated Quincy and made her leave so that he could finally heal in peace.

Meanwhile in a quiet backyard of an ancient tomb.

Zhu Bajie was dressed with his handsome face full of smiles.

At one side was Donoghue's wife, Shentel Xion was cowering with her tear-streaked face streaked and glaring loathsomely at Zhu Bajie—wishing she could kill him.

She had been defiled by him.

Zhu Bajie approached her smiling at that moment with his eyes still mesmerized by Shentel's body and mischievously said, "Gorgeous, why give me that look as though you want to eat me when you were very gentle just moments ago? Are you worried that I'm an irresponsible man? Don't worry, I'm not. I'll treat you well. Haha..."

Although this woman was not as gorgeous as Diaochan, she was comparably gorgeous!

"Go away! Get away from me!" Shentel could not help but wailed, trembled, and gritted her teeth. She truly wanted to chop Zhu Bajie into a million pieces at that moment!

She was the wife of Westrington's Prime Minister! How could she be defiled by this person? How was she going to face others in the future, especially her husband?

"Hmm?" Zhu Bajie furrowed his brow upon seeing her face full of loathing and playfully said, "Gorgeous, you're being unreasonable. You are the one that buried yourself in my arms, yet you're acting as though I forced you!"

"You..." Shentel was extremely embarrassed and furious upon hearing his words, yet could not retort. However, she was a little delirious at that time due to consuming the Iced Fire Lily and could not control herself. It was not her intention.

'Forget about it. I should just die since I don't have the face to continue living!'

She lifted her hands and engaged her internal energy and attacked toward the top of her head with that thought in mind.

'F*ck me! She would rather die defending her chastity.'

Zhu Bajie was stunned upon seeing this scene as he moved quickly and immediately caught hold of Shentel's arm.

"Let me go! Let me die!" Shentel wanted to die as she kept on yelling with all her might. She wanted to break free but her wrist was held on tightly by Zhu Bajie such that she could not do so.

Zhu Bajie smiled and persuaded, "My gorgeous, why do you want to die in your prime? What's so bad about following me?"

Chapter 1343

Zhu Bajie then continued, "As the saying goes, you'll have deep feelings for each other once you become husband and wife, so I cannot bear to watch you die. Why don't you obediently follow me from today onward?"

Zhu Bajie then quickly jabbed Shentel's acupoints, picked her up, and walked a distance. Shentel was anxious and furious while being carried tightly in Zhu Bajie's arms. There was no chance of her breaking free and she almost passed out from being in unspeakable despair.

A group of badly injured people rushed over when they just left.

The group leader was drenched in blood as though he just came from the butchery! It was none other than Donoghue Dixon!

After a long hard battle under Donoghue's leadership, they finally defeated the enchanted beast Pixiu before Donoghue led his man to come and look for Shentel.

The moment he entered the backyard and saw the scene before him, Donoghue trembled and could not help but yelled, "Ted!"

He saw Ted and his men lying in a pool of their own blood with pale faces and icy-cold bodies.

Donoghue approached them to check and determined that they had been dead for over an hour while his wife was nowhere to be found.

‘What happened?’

Donoghue’s face turned blue as he could not hide the anxiety and fury in his heart.

Donoghue scanned his surroundings next and yelled out loud, “Quick! Everyone, immediately find Mistress Shentel! There can be no mistakes!”

“Yes!”

His men responded before splitting up and searched their surroundings upon his orders.

Donoghue clenched his fist tightly at that moment as his face was filled with anxiety.

‘Dear, you have to be safe. You must be safe.’

...

Meanwhile, Darryl sat with his legs crossed on the floor while healing his injuries. He finally opened his eyes violently after a long period and immediately stood up!

Darryl smiled upon feeling his energy field had a magical power spreading throughout his entire body as he finally regained his full powers.

He had obtained the Blood Battle Eight Directions. 'It's time to leave the ancient tomb.' He turned and left with that thought in mind.

He just walked a few steps when he heard two exciting voices coming from somewhere nearby!

"Darryl!"

He turned to see Dax, Chester, and Debra quickly approaching him.

Dax and Chester previously saw Megan fall into a huge pit, so they returned to where they came from and met up with Debra before the three of them brought the Elysium Gate disciples to look for Darryl.

They had not expected to stumble upon Darryl by accident just when they had lost all hope after an hour or so.

"Darryl, what's this situation of yours? Where are your clothes?"

At that moment, Dax quickly approached and could not help but to tease him upon seeing the bare-chested Darryl!

Swoosh!

Debra beside him blushed too. 'Why is Darryl undressed? What will happen if the others see him?'

"Uh..." Darryl scratched his head and suddenly did not know where to begin explaining.

Dax was delighted upon seeing Darryl being awkward and continued teasing, "Darryl, I wonder which lady has her eyes on you and tear off your clothes."

Chapter 1344

Darryl was almost in tears! Dax really had no filter and dared to say almost anything!

Did he not see Debra beside him? Darryl immediately waved his hands at Dax and said, “It’s a long story, so stop trying to guess. Anyway, it’s hard for me to explain right now!”

Dax chuckled before he suddenly thought of something and looked at Darryl. He could not hide the excitement in his heart. “By the way, Darryl—did you obtain the Blood Battle Eight Directions?”

Previously, they met many people who said that Darryl obtained Lu Bu’s Spiritual Pearl with the Blood Battle Eight Directions in it! Dax suddenly recalled that, so he could not help but asked Darryl at that moment.

“Of course!” Darryl smiled and pointed at his brain. “Who am I? I managed to get the Spiritual Pearl, so I would have also obtained the Blood Battle Eight Directions. It’s all in my mind! I’ll share the cultivation method with all of you when we leave the ancient tomb, so we can practice them together!”

“That’s great! Our powers will surely improve!” Dax chuckled and was extremely excited!

The Blood Battle Eight Directions was Lu Bu’s ultimate technique—the one he used to reign supreme!

Chester was immensely excited as well before waving his hands and said, “Let’s go! Let’s get out of this ancient tomb!”

The three of them then put their arms around each other’s shoulders and headed toward the ancient tomb’s exit.

Debra who was carrying the unconscious Diaochan quickly followed suit.

Outside the ancient tomb at that very moment.

Many people had gathered at the bottom of Mount Hua at that moment! Every sect which left the ancient tomb did not immediately leave but waited patiently instead.

The news that Darryl had obtained the Blood Battle Eight Directions had spread like wildfire.

All of them were waiting for Darryl upon knowing that he had yet to exit the ancient tomb. They were holding on to their last hope and observing if they could get their hands on the Blood Battle Eight Directions!

Especially Mount Hua Sect disciples who gathered at the ancient tomb’s entrance in fury and sadness.

Darryl had killed their Sect Master—Old White Brows—just for the Blood Battle Eight Directions! They could not let Darryl leave Mount Hua and have to avenge their master regardless of the cost!

However, there was another equally anxious person whose mind was not on the Blood Battle Eight Directions! It was Donoghue!

Donoghue's men swept the entire ancient tomb just moments ago, yet could not find his wife, Shentel!

Donoghue realized that perhaps his wife was in trouble and became instantly extremely anxious and agitated!

Buzz!

A surge of aura came from the entrance of the ancient tomb right at that moment.

“Someone is coming out!”

“Is it Darryl?”

Everyone stared at the ancient tomb's entrance at that moment and saw a handsome figure quickly flying out.

It was Zhu Bajie!

A petite figure with a gorgeous blushing face was in his arms. It was Shentel!

“Dear!” Donoghue shuddered and could not help but yell out loud upon seeing Shentel.

“Hubby!” Shentel trembled before biting her lip hard. “I-I’m so sorry. Please treat me as if I’m dead and forget about me.”

Shentel had a bitter expression when she said this.

Truth be told, she really wanted to rush into his arms and cry.

However, she was seen being carried by Zhu Bajie by so many people. She could only bear through the pain and bade him farewell for the sake of Donoghue’s face and reputation!

‘What?’ Donoghue froze upon hearing her words and was in a daze. “W-why? Dear, why...”

‘What happened?’

Chapter 1345

Everyone was baffled at that instance as their eyes kept moving back and forth between Zhu Bajie and Shentel.

‘Why is Zhu Bajie carrying Donoghue’s wife? Did something happen between the two of them?’

“Haha...” Zhu Bajie laughed out loud at that moment as he teasingly looked at Donoghue. “Dude, there’s nothing to wonder about as the Beauty has made her decision to follow me from today onwards. It’s because both of us had experienced the pleasures of a man and a woman, haha!”

Gasp!

The crowd was in an uproar upon his words!

Many men looked at Zhu Bajie in admiration. He was too brutal! How dare he sleep with the wife of Westrington’s Prime Minister? He was the idol of all men in the Nine Mainlands!”

Swoosh!

Donoghue glared deadly at Zhu Bajie with reddened eyes at that moment.

“You—the one called Zhu. I’ll kill you!” Donoghue gritted his teeth and roared as the Sky Breaking Axe tore through the skies. “Bring it on!”

Donoghue then engaged his internal energy to its limits before rushing straight at Zhu Bajie!

He was seething with rage at that moment!

He was Westrington’s Prime Minister—someone who was below one and above many! He was a respectable person and had the Grand Weapon Sky Breaking Axe, yet he could not even protect his own woman. It was utter humiliation!

“Why bother trying when you can’t even beat me?”

Zhu Bajie laughed lightly upon seeing Donoghue rushing at him without feeling anxious at all.

Shentel was touched and sad upon witnessing this scene as she could not help but yelled, “Hubby, don’t be rash. Forget about me. Forget me...”

Although Donoghue was powerful, he was no match for Zhu Bajie.

However, it was as though Donoghue had not listened to her as his eyes were filled with murderous intentions while rushing forward!

“Zhu Bajie!” A yell rang through right at that moment before Gonggong ethereally flew over.

“Zhu Bajie! You never change! Stealing someone’s wife in broad daylight! You deserve to be punished to death!” Gonggong coldly said before internal energy erupted from her and she violently sent an attack toward Zhu Bajie.

Gonggong had exited the ancient tomb quite early on and was waiting for Darryl like the others.

However, she felt extremely angry as a woman upon seeing Zhu Bajie stealing someone’s wife!

‘What’s with this psychotic woman?’

Zhu Bajie muttered something upon seeing Gonggong attacking him without giving a second thought as he carried Shentel while turning around and ran into the distance.

Zhu Bajie teased loudly while running, “Gonggong, what does the matter of me stealing someone’s wife have to do with you? Could it be that you have a relationship with this Donoghue?”

Truth be told, Zhu Bajie was not even afraid of Gonggong and Donoghue joining forces, but he had no fighting intentions with such a gorgeous beauty like Shentel in his arms.

“Pfft!” Gonggong was livid upon hearing his words as she yelled, “You foul-mouth being! I dare you not to run!”

In a blink of an eye, the three of them vanished in everyone’s line of sight as they ran far away while yelling at each other.

On the other end!

It had to be said that Lu Bu's tomb was way too huge!

They walked for almost an hour before Darryl and the others finally exited the ancient tomb!

'What's going on?'

Darryl, Dax, Chester, and the others were stunned upon seeing the scene outside the ancient tomb.

They thought the other sects would have left.

However, they had not expected that not only did they not leave, but also gathered right in front of the ancient tomb's entrance and filled it with people!

More importantly, the nearest to the entrance was the Mount Hua Sect disciples wearing mourning bands on their arms with a mixture of grief and anger in their expressions! Darryl had killed their Sect Master, Old White Brows!

Darryl noticed that the disciples were all looking at him in seething rage the moment he appeared!

He frowned upon noticing something was not right. Darryl exhaled a long breath from those extremely uncomfortable gazes.

'Are these bunch of Mount Hua Sect disciples nuts?'

They were looking at him as though Darryl owed them money which only made him confused.

At that moment, he still was unaware that Megan had killed Old White Brows and put the blame on him.

Chapter 1346

Not only was Mount Hua Sect disciples glaring at Darryl, but the other World Universe sects' gazes were extremely hostile as well.

Darryl had no regard for the martial arts world's morality as he killed the Mount Hua Sect Master, yet still had the cheek to face the cultivation world?

“Darryl!” Naomi Grand from Xiaoyao Sect was the first person who yelled right at this moment while also one of those glaring at Darryl, “Darryl! You trash of the martial arts world. How do you still have the face to come out of the tomb?”

‘F*ck! Why won't I have the face to come out?’

Darryl was stunned with his face filled with confusion, yet was speechless at heart.

‘I know you guys are jealous I've gotten the Blood Battle Eight Directions, but you don't have to say it in such a way right?’

“Darryl!” A Mount Hua Sect disciple walked out and pointed his finger at Darryl before reprimanded in grief at the same time, “You're the Elysium Gate Sect Master and presume to claim the righteousness in the world of cultivators, yet you killed our Sect Master for the Blood Battle Eight Directions! You don't deserve to live!”

This sentence was like a fuse before all the other Mount Hua Sect disciples also instantly pointed at Darryl and yelled.

“Darryl, it’s ironic that the Elysium Gate uses ‘Justice for Mankind’ as your slogan, yet the vilest person here is you!”

“Darryl! Return our sect master’s life!”

“It’s most natural in this world for someone to pay with their own life for taking another person’s life. Darryl, don’t even think about leaving Mount Hua alive!”

‘What? I killed Old White Brows, the Mount Hua Sect Master? Where did such news come from?’

Darryl did not know whether to laugh or cry at that moment. It was funny, yet aggravating at the same time.

Gasp!

The other sects erupted into a heated discussion at the same time.

“Darryl killed the Mount Hua Sect Master?”

“How can such a matter happen?”

“He really could do anything for the Blood Battle Eight Directions.”

The surrounding discussions came non-stop as Darryl took a deep breath and looked at Naomi. "Sect Master Naomi, you accused me of killing Old White Brows, where's your proof?"

"Yes!" Dax could not help but walk forward at that moment and angrily yelled, "Stop slandering Darryl! Darryl has no feud with Master White Brows, why would he kill him? Stop slandering him or I'll chop all of you into pieces!"

Dax immediately unsheathed his axes at that.

"Proof?" Master Leonard took a deep breath and slowly walked out before gazing at Darryl. "Darryl, we won't have suspected you if there's no proof. Everyone knows that you obtained Lu Bu's Spiritual Pearl which was also found beside Old White Brow's body when we discovered his body!"

Master Leonard then threw something at Darryl's feet—it was the Spiritual Pearl!

Darryl frowned hard and muttered silently to himself at that moment.

'F*ck! He casually threw the Spiritual Pearl on the floor when he received the Blood Battle Eight Directions. How could it appear next to Old White Brows?'

Darryl could not help but smile and said, "Master

Leonard, your logic is right. I should be a suspect since the Spiritual Pearl appeared next to Master White Brows, but I have to emphasize that I threw it away after getting the Blood Battle Eight Directions from the Spiritual Pearl!”

Chapter 1347

Darryl then scanned his surroundings and seriously said, "I don't know who picked the Spiritual Pearl up afterward, but that person could be the one who murdered Master White Brows."

Truth be told, Darryl would have been angered in the past from the slandering. However, he had gotten used to it after being slandered countless times, so he did not get mad but calmly explained himself.

Everyone was in silence upon listening to his words.

Darryl had a point too. The Spiritual Pearl was indeed by Old White Brows' side, but no one saw Darryl murder Old White Brows. Could they have wrongly blamed him?

Master Leonard, Naomi Grand, and the other sect masters looked at each other at that moment and suddenly did not know what to say.

At that moment, Dax sneered and could not hide the rage in his heart, "All of you suspect Darryl just because of a Spiritual Pearl. I think all of you are just nuts! In the future, don't simply slander a good man without any cold hard proof! Bunch of idiots!"

Dax was always hot-tempered. He scolded immediately without caring who the other person was upon seeing his brother being accused due to the fury which rose in his heart.

Utter silence! It was utter silence in the huge land containing a few hundred thousand people as no one said a word at that moment!

“You want cold hard proof? I’ll have it!”

A cold voice rang through right at this moment followed by a woman in tight jeans who slowly walked out. Her cold face was emotionless.

It was Megan Castello!

“Megan?” Chester was stunned and glared at her, but was also in shock!

“What? You’re not dead?” Dax was stunned as he stared at Megan with his blanked mind.

That was not right! Megan fell into the huge pit! The seemingly bottomless pit was so deep that she should have died after falling in. How did she survive the fall?

Gasp!

Everyone secretly frowned at that moment. What was going on?

Why were Dax and Chester so stunned and said that she did not die?

The crowd looked on in confusion while Megan pretended to be sad and continued, “Everyone, Master White Brows is indeed murdered by Darryl in the presence of Dax and Chester, hence both of them are Darryl's accomplices! The three brothers met up when Darryl got the Spiritual Pearl before bumping into Master White Brows. Master White Brows wanted to have a look at the Blood Battle Eight Directions Scripture, yet Darryl refused. They even killed Master White Brows while he was distracted!

"I coincidentally passed by and witnessed the scene at that time, hence the three brothers wanted to silence me! Dax and Chester then chased after me, but I'm only a weak girl. How could I fight against them? I could only run in a panic before I ended up falling into a huge pit, so they thought I was dead!"

Megan then glared at Chester, Dax, and Darryl. "Chester and Dax, aren't you both surprised that I'm not dead? Do you think your plan is flawless, yet you did not expect I was fortunate to survive being only at the brim of the death! I'll tell you this, the only reason why I could survive is thanks to Master White Brows's blessing in heaven! Therefore, I have to demand justice for him!"

'What? Darryl really murdered Master White Brows?'

All the World Universe's sects were glaring at Darryl at that moment while the other mainlands' sects were in an uproar too.

No one doubted Megan's words at that moment as the incident of Dax and Chester chasing after Megan had been spread out with everyone knowing of it.

Megan smiled coldly upon looking at the crowd's reactions. 'Darryl, just honestly take the blame.'

She no longer had any feelings left for Darryl in her heart at that moment—only hatred! She could not give him any self-redeeming opportunities since she was about to blame Darryl for it!

Chapter 1348

“Megan!” Chester’s face was blue as he reprimanded, “You might be pretty, but why is your character so despicable? You said that Dax and I chased you to help Darryl cover up his tracks? Hehe, I was avenging for my late wife!”

Dax chimed in, “Yes! Megan, how shameless can you be? Ask your own guilty conscience why would Chester and I want to kill you? Isn’t it all because ten years ago you killed his wife? Yet now you have the audacity to come and slander Darryl. Why are you so anxious to come out and show proof? You must’ve killed Master White Brows!”

Megan sneered and maliciously looked at Chester, “Ok, you said you were avenging for your late wife, then I would like to ask you why did you not take any action for the past 10 years, yet suddenly chased after me in the ancient tomb today? Why is that so?”

“I...” Chester was suddenly rendered speechless.

Aurora had been the head of the Emei for the past ten years while Megan was always at Mount Emei concurrently and rarely came down. Chester knew he would have to bring down the entire sect first if he were to enter the Emei Sect and kill Megan.

However, it would be a huge loss for the World Universe if he destroyed the entire Emei Sect since the enchanted barrier between the Nine Mainlands had vanished while the other sects had their eyes on the World Universe!

The World Universe's powers were already weaker than the rest, it would be a huge loss if Emei Sect were to be destroyed. Therefore, Chester did not seek revenge on Megan all these years. However, Chester noticed that Megan was alone just moments ago so he wanted revenge of course!

However, no matter what Chester said at that moment was useless as the surrounding people would not even listen to his explanations.

“F*ck!” Dax was livid and could not help but yelled, “Megan, you confuse the crowd with absurd nonsense. I’ll kill you today!”

Dax then immediately clenched both axes tightly and rushed toward Megan.

“How arrogant!” Master Leonard rushed over and blocked Dax at the same time while reprimanded, “Dax! Everyone from the cultivation world is here, don’t get cocky! What? You want to kill Megan because she unveiled the truth about you; three brothers killing Master White Brows?”

“These three brothers are pretending to be righteous when they are the community’s evil! We have to seek justice and kill them! Seek revenge for Master White Brows!”

“Yes, the Eternal Life Palace was always a cult! We thought they have changed through these years, who knew they are still equally evil!”

“Such malicious and evil people! It’s not a pity if they die!”

The World Universe’s sects pointed fingers at the three brothers in fury in the next moment!

The other mainlands’ sects were standing by the side watching—basking at their misfortunes.

“Darryl! Repay our Master’s life!”

“Yes! An eye for an eye!”

The disciples of Mount Hua Sect could no longer hold back at that moment as they yelled in fury!

They then immediately rushed toward Darryl.

Woola!

At that moment, the surrounding Elysium Gate sect immediately gathered around in front of Darryl and defended him!

“Who dares to hurt our Sect Master shall die!”

The disciples of Flower Mountain and Eternal Life Palace also quickly gathered at the same moment.

A violent battle was about to instantly erupt! The air was filled with a murderous aura!

The Mount Hua Sect disciples suddenly stopped in their tracks upon seeing this situation. Mount Hua Sect had not been active in the cultivation world for the past few years and was quite weak as a sect. They knew they could not win a fight against Elysium Gate, Flower Mountain, and Eternal Life Palace.

However, the disciples still glared at Darryl due to the anger in their hearts and flashing their endless hatred.

“Darryl, Dax, and Chester, we won’t allow you to be so arrogant today even if the three of you joined forces!”

Megan said coldly at that moment.

Chapter 1349

Megan scanned her surroundings in the next second.

“Emei, listen up! Assist Mount Hua Sect and kill Darryl!”

“Wudang, listen up! Take Darryl down!”

“Xiaoyao disciples, heed my orders!”

“Tianshan, take orders...”

The World Universe's sects which numbered close to a few hundred thousand instantly surrounded the three brothers upon their sect masters' commands!

Only Shaolin's Sect Master Endless frowned and seemed to be a little hesitant!

He put his palms together and chanted a Buddhist chant while silently looking at Darryl in the next second. “Master Darby, there's still hope in change as long as you put down your ego and admit your mistakes. Perhaps there's still a chance for forgiveness!”

Sect Master Endless also thought that Darryl killed Old White Brows like the rest. However, he was compassionate and did not wish to see things turned ugly and violent.

“Sect Master Endless, I'm being framed. How do you want me to repent when I didn't kill Old White Brows?" Darryl laughed bitterly while suppressing his anger!

Darryl then scanned the surroundings to look at Naomi Grand and the others before saying, "My fellow Sect Masters, I didn't kill Mount Hua Sect Master White Brows. Please believe me and give me half a month, I'll find out the truth. How does that sound?"

He glanced at Megan when he said that.

'This vile woman is trying to twist the truth. She must have known the true reason for Old White Brows's death. I'll have to capture her later and find out the truth from her.'

"Darryl! How dare you still deny!" Naomi's face was cold as she barely gave it a thought and reprimanded, "There are cold hard proof and even a witness! Don't think about shirking off your responsibilities even if you try to talk your way out!"

Naomi Grand then waved her hands, "Everyone, listen up and kill this inhumane disciple of evil!"

"Hyah!" The several hundred thousand disciples drew their weapons and rushed toward Darryl at her words!

"Block them!"

“Don’t think about harming our sect master!”

The disciples of Elysium Gate, Flower Mountain, and Eternal Life Palace yelled and faced the battle head-on at that moment. A huge battle erupted in the blink of an eye.

“Darryl, die!” Naomi Grand yelled and attacked Darryl.

“Master Naomi, we’ll assist you!”

Master Leonard yelled and followed suit before Tianshan Sect Master and Sect Master Endless followed.

Dozens of Sect Masters instantly surrounded Darryl and his brothers!

“My fellow Sect Masters, can’t you listen to my explanation?”

Darryl was anxious yet furious at that moment. The fury in his heart kept rising, yet he forcibly suppressed it.

Truth be told, he was not afraid of being surrounded by so many people with his current strength as he could just use the White Lily Cold Flame, Celestial Swordsmanship, and Immortal Energy Palm to force them back.

However, the sects from the other mainlands were still watching at the moment! They would be injured if they end up fighting each other. At that time, the other sects from the other mainlands would not let go of this opportunity to sneak in an attack and the World Universe would be wiped out!

The cultivation world in the World Universe would then be completely ruined!

Chapter 1350

Chester was also anxious at the same time. “

Everyone, I swear on my own life that Darryl didn't kill Master Old Brows. Please don't believe that Megan woman.”

Chester was also extremely furious in his heart just like Darryl, but he was considering the big picture in mind.

On the other hand, Dax did not think much and saw how the other sect masters immediately took arms without bothering to know the truth and had completely blown up. “Chester and Darryl, I've said before that these bunch of idiots doesn't have the brains to think and even took arms! Why bother talking to them? I don't believe us three brothers won't be able to fight against them!”

Dax then locked his eyes on Megan. “B*tch, don't be too cocky. I'll kill you first if there's a chance!”

Dax then waved both his axes and rushed into the crowd.

Darryl and Chester bitterly looked at each other!

They could not afford to have this war! The World Universe would be in danger if they were to fight against each other!

Darryl and Chester only defended themselves while gritting their teeth and held on at that moment!

Clang! Clang!

Darryl had an array of ultimate techniques, but not a single defensive one at that time when he could only defend! He could still hold on initially, but it was slowly getting harder for him as the joint forces of the dozen sects were too powerful after all!

Darryl held on for a long time while receiving many injuries along the way. Fresh blood had long soaked his clothes as injuries kept appearing on his body!

Darryl could clearly feel the pain coming from his limbs, back, and chest. There was not a single place without pain!

Even so, Darryl gritted his teeth and tried to defend himself and not fight back. He could not fight back in such a situation! He could not let the other mainlands sneak in an attack! If the powerful cultivators of the World Universe died here, the common folks of the World Universe would be in the hands of the other mainlands and would not survive! Therefore, he could not fight back no matter what!

“Darryl, why aren't you fighting back? I think you're just feeling guilty that you killed Master White Brows. Isn't that why you aren't fighting back?”

Megan sneered at that moment as she drew her long sword, went behind Darryl, and sneak attacked him!

Stab!

Megan's sword directly stabbed into Darryl's shoulder in the next second and blood instantly spurting out before Darryl fumbled and took a few steps back.

'F*ck, this woman is trying to kill me!' Darryl gritted his teeth but did not yell out. He glared at Megan, his fury rising. Darryl only felt his energy level was falling at a rapid rate at that moment.

"Darryl!"

"Darryl! Fight back! Fight back!" Dax yelled out loud upon witnessing this scene and wanted to rush over but there were too many people in front of him, hence he could not even rush over.

Debra also could not help but yell out loud at the same time, "Darryl, don't be like this. Fight back!"

Debra was almost in tears when she said that! She knew that Darryl was not fighting back for the sake of the World Universe, but he would die if this continued!

"Woo!"

Hearing their yells, Darryl took a deep breath and engaged his internal energy, and immediately shook a few people away. However, Darryl did not take the opportunity to further attack.

“Woola!” Countless sect masters rushed up again with weapons in their hands and flashing cold eyes before Darryl could take another breath!

Darryl smiled bitterly upon witnessing this scene as he looked up toward the skies and yelled, “I’ll say this once more, I didn’t kill Master White Brows. Do any of you understand?”

Darryl was feeling reluctant at that moment. Would he be dying here today together with Chester and Darryl?

“Just die, the disciple of evil!” Megan yelled out loud and stabbed Darryl!

Megan smiled. ‘Darryl, I have apologized to you many times, yet you refuse to forgive me every time! You would rather accept Aurora Hansen than me. Fine, I’ll kill you today!’

‘There won’t have any more proof of Master White Brows’s death after I kill you. I’ll then lead the Emei Sect and take over the Elysium Gate to become the World Universe’s top sect!’

She smiled wider with that thought in mind.

Master Leonard, Naomi Grand, and the rest took their longswords and stabbed Darryl at the same time!

“Tsk, tsk, the World Universe is interesting indeed. They’re starting to kill each other!”

The other mainlands’ sects were excited at the World Universe killing each other!

‘Haha! The World Universe’s sects are fighting amongst themselves! Fight on!’

‘We’ll wait until both sides are heavily injured before swooping in!’

These were the thoughts of those sects from the other mainlands!

“Die, Darryl!” Megan forced these words out as she thrust toward Darryl’s heart with the longsword in her hand!

Chapter 1351

Darryl was struggling against Naomi Grand and could not avoid Megan's attacks! He would die for certain if the sword struck him!

"Darryl!"

"Darryl!"

Dax and Debra's expressions changed! They wanted to save Darryl, but were surrounded by people and could not go over at all!

"No..." Debra's tears fell.

She was the Artemis Sect Master and had followed Darryl thousands of miles to the World Universe. Darryl was her everything! Debra would break down and lose herself if Darryl were to die there!

Darryl was sweating profusely as endless despair started rising in his heart upon seeing the approaching sword getting nearer!

'I'm done for, this is the end. I'm finished.'

Darryl let out a long sigh. He had roamed the Earth throughout his entire life, yet had to die under Megan's sword at last. He was reluctant! It was unfair!

"Debra, we'll see each other again in the next life."

Darryl looked at Debra with a smile as Megan's sword was less than half a meter from him.

Darryl closed his eyes to wait for the judgment of death at that moment.

Bang!

A girl suddenly came flying swiftly from mid-air like a shooting star and blocked Megan's attack right at the moment Megan's sword was about to pierce through Darryl's heart.

Clang!

A loud sound rang through and caused Megan to tremble before taking a few steps back before she started reprimanding, "Who's that busybody?"

She concurrently laid her eyes on the person in front of her.

She saw a young girl about 12 or 13 years old in a pastel-colored little romper with a fair and smooth face—looking exquisitely adorable!

However, even though she was young, her aura was extremely powerful while her face contained hints of maturity!

Gasp!

Megan trembled and could not help but gasp in the next second upon feeling the little girl's power!

This young girl was a Level Three Martial Emperor?!

Darryl was stunned as well as he looked at the little girl in a daze. “W—who are you?”

‘F*ck this girl is at most only 13 years old! How can she already be a Level Three Martial Emperor? Has she started practicing cultivation since she was in her mother’s womb?’

The Little Girl looked at Darryl emotionless. “It doesn't matter who I am. Everyone is ganging up on you, yet you don't fight back. You surely are extremely stubborn. You'll be wasting your life away if this continues! Why don't you just leave with me!”

However, she gave off a feeling of maturity despite her young and crisp voice—a feeling of maturity that was a mismatch for her age.

Darryl still did not know that the young girl in front of him at that moment was the Heaven Union Sect Master of the New World!

The Heaven Union Sect had been in the New World for over 2,000 years and had produced many powerful cultivators. In recent centuries, they were even more glorious being one of the top sects in the New World! The Heaven Union Sect had even surpassed the previous Incandescent Sect!

However, the Heaven Union Sect was without a leader recently when their last sect master passed away and started killing amongst themselves since everyone wanted to be the Sect Master! Their internal disputes had caused them to gradually decline!

Their decline lasted until that day their 33rd generation Sect Master had been appointed and their newest Sect Master was none other than the young girl standing in front of Darryl, Sonya Lowe!

Sonya was only 13 years old, but already a Level Three Martial Emperor when she became the Heaven Union Sect Master!

She was an orphan since young and had been in the Heaven Union Sect ever since she could remember. She was out to gain some experience three years ago before meeting an extremely powerful old man who liked her at first glance and decided to take her in as his disciple.

The old man was then attacked and killed, but he had given Sonya all the unique ultimate elixirs he had accumulated throughout his life before dying which came to about hundreds of them! Among the elixirs was an extremely rare elixir ten-thousand-year-old called the Chinese Redbud!

Sonya was only nine years old that year when she ate the hundreds of elixirs in one go which caused her powers to leap to Level Three Martial Emperor!

She returned to the Heaven Union Sect after her tremendous power increase and the idea of becoming the Sect Master started to grow in her upon her return. The other powerful cultivators in the sect initially looked down on her due to her age and disobeyed her.

Although she was young, she was cruel and vicious when handling matters. She would use her powers to teach a lesson to whoever disobeyed her. The disciples then knew about her powers and finally made her the Sect Master.

The sect members finally stopped killing each other the moment she became the Sect Master. The Heaven Union Sect's power started to rise tremendously in just three years under her encouragement, management, and hard work.

Sonya immediately left without any hesitation the moment she heard that Lu Bu's Ancient Tomb had appeared! She wanted to rush over and grab some treasures! The Heaven Union Sect's power would rise even more if she could grab the treasures in the ancient tomb!

At that moment, Sonya did not give it much thought and rushed over upon seeing Darryl's situation not because of being worried for Darryl's safety. She wanted to rescue Darryl as she knew Darryl had obtained the Blood Battle Eight Directions and wanted to get that ultimate technique!

“The Heaven Union Sect Master?” Cultivators from the New World were all stunned at that moment as all of them yelled out!

The people from other mainlands might not recognize her, but the New World cultivators were instead very familiar with her! This extraordinary young girl had actually quickly rebuilt the dwindling Heaven Union Sect.

The Heaven Union Sect would instantly rise if they allowed her to capture Darryl and obtain the Blood Battle Eight Directions scripture!

Sonya tightly grabbed Darryl’s arm right at that moment and unquestionably said, “Darryl, don’t resist if you want to stay alive and obediently follow me!”

Chapter 1352

Darryl looked at Sonya and was stunned. This girl's aura was too strong!

He secretly furrowed his brows. Although he does not recognize Sonya, he knew her intention was not to save him, but only to get her hands on the Blood Battle Eight Directions!

Darryl took a deep breath as he briefly thought before smiling and said, "Little Girl, this is the World Universe's matters. You shouldn't meddle in our affairs even if my brothers and I are being ganged up by the other sects!"

"Do you think it's up to you whether I want to meddle or otherwise?" Sonya sneered with her condescending tone, "I'm going to save you today no matter what."

Megan then quickly walked over, pointed at Sonya, and yelled, "Little Girl, I don't care which mainland you come from, but it's not up to you to meddle in the World Universe's affairs! Leave immediately!"

Megan then glared at Darryl. "Darryl, you won't be able to escape today. You'll give your life for Master White Brows if you have any guilty conscience left!"

Megan drew her sword once again and wanted to go around Sonya and attack Darryl.

Sonya did not bother to deal with her and grabbed Darryl while avoiding Megan's attack like an elf before flying up with Darryl into the distant skies!

"Darryl..."

"Darryl!"

Dax, Debra, and a few others were extremely anxious upon seeing this scene! They wanted to chase after him, but were blocked by those people in front of them!

"Quick, chase after them!"

"Damn it! We cannot let Darryl escape just like that!"

At the same moment, Master Leonard, Naomi Grand, and the other mainlands' cultivators were yelling and chasing after them.

The World Universe's cultivators wanted to avenge Old White Brows while getting their hands on the Blood Battle Eight Directions.

The other mainlands' cultivators could not be bothered whether Darryl was alive or dead as they only wanted the Blood Battle Eight Directions.

It was a majestic sight to behold with a few hundred thousand people instantly chased after Sonya and Darryl.

Woo!

Darryl could not help but gasp in mid-air upon seeing those people chasing after them.

He felt Sonya's powers and was secretly shocked at the same time.

'How can this girl's internal energy be so pure? Such a small person carrying me, yet her internal energy is giving no hints of her slowing down. It was perplexing.'

"Little Girl!"

Darryl, shocked and could not help but asked, "Who are you and where are you taking me to?"

Sonya coldly replied, "Stop talking nonsense, and don't call me Little Girl."

Sonya had no patience to deal with Darryl's nonsense with so many people chasing after them.

'F*ck, she has a temper!' Darryl muttered in his heart and kept his mouth shut.

Sonya took him and flew far away. Although this was her first time in the World Universe, Sonya was extremely smart as she took Darryl specifically across complicated terrains and mountains before finally managing to lose those people chasing after them within two hours.

However, Sonya did not stop and continued until they reached the New World!

Sonya brought Darryl to a manor with a beautiful view after another four hours of flight.

It was called the Heaven Union Manor—Heaven Union Sect's main altar.

The Heaven Union Manor was in an ancient garden located south-east of New World with a stunning mountainous view!

The Heaven Union Manor which covered thousands of acres had ancient-style buildings decorated with trees and pavilions. It was a magnificent and utterly beautiful sight!

Gasp!

Darryl could not help but gasp upon seeing the sight in front of him when they landed.

'F*ck! There's such a place in the New World! It's as though it came from a painting—extremely beautiful!'

As he muttered in his heart, Darryl saw a golden plaque hanging at the main entrance of the manor with the words 'Heaven Union Sect' written flamboyantly on it.
