

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3221-3224

Chapter 3221

Charlie's words shocked the government commander's face!

Before that, he had never thought about what Charlie said.

But now, he suddenly felt that what Charlie said seemed very reasonable.

At this time, Charlie stared at him closely, and said seriously, "For you, Dragon Hall is the gauze used to wrap wounds!"

"When the wound keeps bleeding, you especially need gauze to help you stop the bleeding and heal the injury."

"But if the wound is healed, you will not let the bloody gauze stick to you all the time, and you will also want to take off the gauze!"

"And the gauze itself, if you want to stay with you, you must keep your wounds from healing and bleeding forever!"

"If the gauze wants to take up more of you, find a way to cut more wounds in you!"

"Until you're covered in this gauze!"

Charlie's words completely frightened the commander of the government forces.

He can already imagine that in the future Syria, under the shadow of the Dragon Hall, will be in full swing, full of fire, and never at peace.

Charlie looked at each other, word for word warning, "Think of America, Commander!"

"You have suffered in the Middle East for a long time, the United States under the banner of humanity to your Middle East chicken dog, and even sent troops to invade many countries, do you think he really for your peace and tranquility?"

"You must understand that they're just trying to get your oil resources under their control for a long time!"

"They are the source of your pain!"

Speaking of which, Charlie reached out to Calum, and said coldly, "These people, and the United States is no different, if you still do not recognize this, then you will be tortured by these parasites to death!"

The government commander have turned grim.

At this moment, he completely believed Charlie's words.

Believe that the Dragon Hall is not here to help them, but to kill them with a knife.

And Calum around him, at this time also heard all over can not help shaking.

He was so frightened that he wondered, "How does this guy know the Lord's plan?"

“Lord Creighton really has long planned, and so on the Dragon Hall in Syria to establish a base, immediately secretly support the new opposition, so that Syria continues to be mired in civil war, then the Dragon Hall will always be needed by the government forces to rely on, and naturally can also use this to ask the government forces for more resources ...”

“But how does a Commander Hamid’s army division know this?”

“The Lord’s plan for Syria is parasitic!”

“The Dragon Hall was first tempted to help Syria clear the opposition, so that Syria willingly opened the door and let the Dragon Hall take root.”

Chapter 3222

“Once it takes root, the Dragon Hall will spread wildly in Syria!”

“But if Syria were to recognize the situation now, they would never continue to cooperate, so that all the plans of the Dragon Hall would be completely lost!”

At the thought of this, Calum was very nervous and the whole person’s scalp numb.

At this time, the government commander subconsciously moved his body, and Calum to maintain a certain distance, opened, “Things are now beyond my personal ability, I need to report to my superiors, but also ask two to wait a moment.”

“As the man spoke, he got up and pulled out his satellite phone to go out.”

Calum quickly judged it in his head.

“If I let this guy out, let this guy make a phone call to the top, then all the plans of the Dragon Hall will be lost ahead of time;”

“And once it’s gone, the Dragon Hall has no choice but to get out of Syria.”

“In that way, more than 2,500 lives, so many days of all military spending, will be completely watered down;”

“But if the Dragon Hall refuses to retreat, it will have to tear its face with Syria.”

“But once the Dragon Hall is at odds with Syria, it is tantamount to the Invasion of a Sovereign State by the Dragon Hall.”

“The whole international community will not allow this to happen, the Dragon Hall will become the target of public criticism!”

Thinking of this, Calum deep down thought of a solution!

He thought, “What this man with the last name Wade just said, only the three people here know, and this room also does not have any recording equipment, so as long as I kill both of them, I can ensure that the true purpose of the Dragon Hall is not exposed!”

“As for how to tell the government forces after killing these two people, I can throw the pot to this last name Wade, say that Commander Hamid sent to assassinate the government commander, that he tried to kill first the government commander, and then ready to kill me, but I finally kill him!”

“Yes! That’s it! This is the only solution to the problem! ”

At this point, Calum quickly got up, staring at the government commander, and said in cold voice, "Don't go out!"

"The commander of the government forces subconsciously took a few steps back and asked coldly, "Calum, what do you mean?"

"What do I mean?" Calum smiled and gritted his teeth and said, "I want your life!"

Having said that, he suddenly launched an attack on the other side. He rush forward, and his movements so fast to ordinary people are difficult to see with the naked eye.

And that government commander is just an ordinary person, did not realize that Calum will suddenly attack him!

Not waiting for him to dodge, Calum punched him in the mouth, and instantly hit his heart!

The commander of the government forces instantly spit white foam, the whole face also became iron green, he stared at Calum, mouth whimpering, "Calum, you..."

Before the rest of the words were finished, he had his eyes open and passed out.

Charlie looked at Calum this hot shot dead, eyebrows slightly frowned at the same time, the heart of the martial arts master's contempt for a little more.

Because Calum is a six-star warrior, who relies on the strength and speed of his body beyond ordinary people to strike the enemy at the material level.

Calum does have a strong internal force in his body, and there is no sign of aura.

From this perspective, he is still very different from himself.

After killing the government army commander, Calum immediately turned to look at Charlie.

Seeing that Charlie was not afraid at all, he couldn't help but be a little surprised.

However, he quickly put the surprise behind him, and his figure quickly flashed in front of Charlie, and said coldly, "The man with the surname Wade! Have you ever thought that one day you will die by talking too much?!"

Charlie didn't put the other person in his eyes, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly, and said with a smile, "Sorry, I can tell the fortune, and my life shows that I will not die by talking too much."

Calum stared at Charlie, and asked in a cold voice, "Aren't you afraid that I would kill you at all?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Then you have to kill me. Do you think you can kill me at your level?"

Calum sternly said, "Boy! You really don't know how to repent when you die!"

"I am one of the four kings of the Dragon Hall, a six-star warrior!"

"In the Dragon Hall, my strength is second only to the Lord!"

"Killing you is easy for me to do!"

Charlie couldn't help but sarcastically said, "F*ck, six-star warrior, you are so f*ck!ng awesome!"

Chapter 3223

Calum saw the disdain and sarcasm in Charlie's expression, and coldly said, "It seems that you don't understand martial arts at all!"

"As a Six-star martial artist, in the entire mercenary world, there are no ten people like me!"

"Killing you is as easy as I can!"

"Oh?" Charlie said with a smile, "Many people want to kill me, but no one has succeeded so far."

"Why are you so confident that you can easily kill me?"

Calum sternly said, "Just kill one rubbish like you, even if there are a hundred like you, I will still kill them!"

"With my strength, you rubbish, it is impossible for you to understand!"

Charlie nodded and said perfunctorily, "I know, I know, isn't your six-star martial artist just six strange meridians and eight veins?"

"I think your seventh meridian also seems to show signs of opening up."

"When your seventh meridian is opened, will you be renamed Ladybug Seven Stars?"

Charlie's words full of tones made Calum's whole expression freeze in an instant!

He looked at Charlie with an unbelievable face, and his voice stammered, "You... How did you know it?! Are you also a martial artist?!"

"Why can't I see your cultivation?"

Charlie laughed and said, "I said I have golden eyes. Now, do you believe me?"

Calum suddenly felt nervous, and at the same time, he thought repeatedly in his heart.

"I don't know how capable the man surname Wade is, but at this time, there is no way to turn back!"

"If I don't kill him today, I will lose my business of the government commander."

"In that case, the plan of Dragon Hall in Syria will be completely aborted!"

Thinking of this, Calum clenched his teeth and stared at Charlie.

He said coldly, "If you can see my real strength, you really are something! But it's useless to have bare eyes!"

"Good fists are the most fundamental! Prepare to die!"

Calum said, roared and quickly punched Charlie with all his strength.

This punch is extremely fast and powerful.

The fist even roared to Charlie's door in the blink of an eye with gusts of wind.

If ordinary people get this punch, I'm afraid the whole skull will be smashed.

But Charlie showed no sign of fear at all.

Instead, he gathered his right hand with the aura in his body and was ready to punch Calum at any time.

When Calum saw that Charlie did not dodge, his face had hung a grim smile.

He has tried his best to punch, and even if his strength has reached the ten thousand troops of the Eight-Star Warrior, he dare not resist.

Although the strength of the eight-star warrior and the six-star warrior is very different, this difference is mainly reflected in speed, strength and overall attack power.

As for the body's defense ability, there is no qualitative leap.

Therefore, Calum feels that his fist is determined to win and will definitely kill Charlie completely!

However, strange things soon happened!

Calum found that when his heavy fist almost infinitely reached Charlie, his right fist suddenly seemed to be hit by a few tons of iron ball.

With a roar, Calum's whole fist surface was smashed instantly, and even the bones of his arm were broken!

Chapter 3224

Calum felt the extreme pain from his arm and found desperately that he got the shadow in front of him just now, which turned out to be Charlie's fist!

It turned out that Charlie directly hit Calum's heavy fist.

He thought it was at least a tragic scene like Mars hitting the Earth, but who would have thought that the result was as easy as a hammer hitting a walnut!

Charlie's fist is the hammer, and Calum's fist is like a walnut smashed by the hammer!

Charlie ate a lot of Rejuvenating Pills.

Although Rejuvenating Pills could not supplement his aura, it greatly improved his body.

It was generally no exaggeration to say that it was a copper wall and iron wall.

In addition, the right fist is assisted by aura, which is even more indestructible.

How can Calum's fist be his opponent.

Calum was scared out of his mind.

He knew that this strength was far from simple as martial artists!

Even if the ten thousand troops have all opened up eight meridians, they do not have such strong strength!

He looked at Charlie in a daze and asked in pain and horror, "You... who are you..."

Charlie smiled and said, "I have told you, call me Master Wade!"

Calum endured the severe pain and gritted his teeth and asked, "Your strength...how can it be so strong..."

Charlie sneered , "Hmmm, mainly because you are too weak!"

With that, Charlie suddenly stretched out his hand, and the tiger's mouth stuck Calum's neck like an iron pliers, and his expression also changed from sneering to a powerful indifference.

Calum was choke in his throat and hurriedly tried to break Charlie's tiger mouth with his left hand.

But he tried his best, and he could not separate Charlie's fingers by even a millimeter at all.

He looked at Charlie desperately and found that in Charlie's eyes, he had been regarded as grass mustard by him, and his life and death had completely fallen into his hands.

At this moment, Calum gritted his teeth desperately and said with all his strength, "You...if you kill me, the Dragon Hall will never...will not let you go, nor Commander Hamid!"

"The account of this government commander will also be counted on Commander Hamid's head... you... no matter how strong you are... you can't... you can't protect everyone..."

Charlie laughed and said, "Oh, are you scaring me? I'm the least afraid of being scared."

With that, Charlie put away his smile and said coldly, "If you want me to kill you, I won't kill you so easily."

"I want you to feel what life is better than death."

As soon as the words fell, Charlie poured into Calum's body with aura.

The powerful aura, like the invincible shield machine used when building the subway, rushed across his strange meridians and veins, destroying all his meridians in an instant!

For a martial arts person who has been practicing martial arts for many years, destroying all his meridians is equivalent to becoming an invalid person in an instant.

Calum felt that his meridians were broken, and his whole body was approaching the edge of collapse.

He has practiced martial arts for so many years, and has long regarded martial arts as the greatest pursuit of life.

Originally, he was looming about to break through the seventh meridian, and was about to become the second talent in Dragon Hall to break through the seven meridians.

But who would have thought that all the efforts and pride would be wiped out in this moment!

He looked at Charlie with an angry face and gritted his teeth and asked, "What did you do to me...?"

Charlie looked at the desperate Calum and said lightly, "I destroyed all your meridians."

"Congratulations! From now on, you are a noble martial arts waste."

Calum only felt anxious, and his brain almost fainted on the spot with a period of hypoxia and vertigo.

After a long time, he recovered.

His eyes stared at Charlie and shouted hoarsely, "You...you are so poisonous!"

Charlie sneered and said, "I'm just abandoning your cultivation."

"Is this poisonous? So what did you say when you just wanted to punch me to death?"

Calum was a little nervous, and then he knew that he could not escape death today, so he said blankly, "Don't talk nonsense, just kill me!"

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "It's impossible to kill you, at least not yet."

With that said, Charlie looked at the government commander who had died for a few minutes due to a severe heart attack, and asked Calum with a smile, "Do you think that if this man is alive, and tell the story of the matter to the highest level of the government army, how will they find you and Dragon Hall to settle accounts?"

Chapter 3225

Calum was startled when he heard Charlie's words, and then said with a sneer, "You think very well, but he's already dead!"

After finishing speaking, Calum said again, "Even if...even if you tell this matter to the highest level of the government army.... They... They won't believe in you ..they won't believe in the enemy's words! He is the only one at the highest level of the government army who believed you, no one else will, only him! But... he is dead now! The dead man... can never tell!"

Charlie curled his lips and said lightly, "It's okay, he's been dead only a few minutes and there's still a chance for him to be saved."

"Impossible!" Calum blurted out in horror, "Although I didn't use all my strength, his heart has been severely injured, and he can't be saved!"

Charlie asked him with a smile, "The reason why you didn't use all your strength just now is to frame me?" With that, Charlie said, "Just now, I was wondering why someone like you, an old dog who is a six-star warrior, didn't use all your strength. If you punched out with all your strength, I'm afraid you could directly punch a hole in his heart. The reason why you deliberately use less effort in your punch must also be to reduce suspicion to you and conveniently frame me, right?"

Calum said stubbornly, "That's right, I... I'm going to frame you! Let you and Commander Hamid carry the blame! If you kill me, you will carry more blame!"

Charlie sneered and said, "You think too much. No one can let me take the blame! After saying that, Charlie said again, "Don't worry, I won't kill you, because you are still of great use to me!"

Calum sneered, "Huh! You are nothing more than a mouse, You just want to take me hostage and escape from here. In the final analysis, you are also a brave mouse!"

Charlie stretched out a finger and shook it gently, laughing and said, "You guessed wrong. I really thought so, but I didn't expect that you were a fool who jumped up and took the initiative against the government commander. Aren't you giving me all the initiative?"

Speaking of which, Charlie raised his eyebrows and laughed, "So I don't intend on taking you hostage to escape anymore, but to borrow your hand to expose all 15,000 people of your Dragon Temple in the Middle East!”

Calum blurted out and scolded, “Borrow my hand? Don’t dream of it! I’d rather die! I’d never betray our brothers!”

Charlie sneered and said, “It’s no longer up to you whether you can betray them or not!”

With that, Charlie stared into his eyes and shouted sharply, “Kneel down!”

As soon as these words were spoken, Calum felt an inexplicable force pouring into his brain, and then his legs involuntarily softened.

Charlie crossed the reiki into his brain, but because he had not replenished the reiki well for several days, the reiki in his body was not abundant, and the continuous output made him almost overdrawn.

Fortunately, Calum has become a waste at this time not making it too difficult for Charlie.

But even so, Charlie secretly thought in his heart that he would put the refining of the pill of cultivation on the agenda when he returned, and it is best to refine it as soon as possible. Otherwise, there would be no aura left to use if he would encounter this kind of six-star warrior or seven-star warrior again and he can only choose to go on head to head.

At this time, Calum felt that the mysterious power into his brain was getting stronger and stronger, and his heart was extremely desperate, because he didn't know why his knees seemed to kneel on the ground without control.

Chapter 3226

He was about to cry, and desperately asked, “What is this...what’s going on...what have you done to me?!”

Charlie said coldly, “I’m going to brainwash you with reiki.”

With that, Charlie said in detail, “I will seal all your personal consciousness, but don’t worry, after sealing them, you will still retain all your memories, but your body will be completely disconnected from your consciousness, and everything your body does will follow my command. By then, even though your own consciousness knows everything, you can’t do anything. In other words, your consciousness will be completely sealed in your mind, and as long as I don’t stop, you will never be free.”

Calum was immediately desperate. His eyes were full of endless panic, crying and asking, “You...how can you have such power? Isn’t that the power that only exists in legend? You... Who the hell are you?”

Charlie shook his head and sneered, “I’m your master!”

Calum was completely panicked.

He cried and said, “No, please don’t block my consciousness. I don’t want to be a living dead person. Please forgive me. As long as you are willing to spare me, I will listen to you for everything! I can make all the soldiers of Dragon Temple outside surrender immediately and let you go. Please let me go...Please I beg you!”

Charlie smiled and asked him, “Do you really want to listen to me?”

Calum nodded without hesitation and promised, “I swear to God that I’ll listen to you. I will do whatever you ask me to do!”

Charlie smiled and said seriously, “To be honest, I don’t believe in you very much. People like you can even kill your partners. How can you fulfill your promise?”

Calum cried out of his collapse and said, "I swear to God that I really do everything you tell me. Please believe me... I really don't want to be trapped in my body forever... Please..."

Charlie snorted and said, "I'm sorry, I still don't believe you very much."

With that, Charlie's fingertips once again injected more reiki into Calum's brain.

Calum's expression changed from extreme panic to a gradual calm and then turned into a dull and blank face.

At this time, Charlie let go of his hand, pointed to the government commander lying on the ground, and ordered Calum, "Go and carry him over and put him on the meeting table."

At this time, Calum's consciousness can hear what Charlie said and receive the vision seen by his eyes, but he can't control his body at all. He could only watch as his body, in Charlie's command, immediately stood up, went to the commander, and picked him up with great efforts, and put him on the conference table in front of Charlie. His self-consciousness was extremely frightened and desperate. However, now he has no way to change all this. He can only stay in his body honestly like an unrelated passenger. At this time, his body has also been destroyed, and his whole body quality can only be regarded as an ordinary person.

As for the government commander, his skin color is already a little black and purple. His heart was damaged and stopped suddenly, causing his brain to lack oxygen. Generally speaking, the best time in this case is only four to six minutes. If in four to six minutes he can make the heart beat again, there is a certain chance of survival.

However, at present, his heart is seriously damaged, and his body organs are extremely hypoxic, and he has reached the verge of biological death. Normally, this situation is no longer possible to save life.

However, for Charlie, this is not a big problem. Charlie felt that if he did not save him, he could also let Calum take him out of here easily, even let Calum order Dragon Temple to withdraw, or let Calum personally escort himself to take Zayne away.

However, after thinking about it, Charlie felt that it could not be so cheap. Now, only the government commander knows the true face of Dragon Temple. If he were to be rescued, the government army would definitely turn their faces with Dragon Temple. And he happened to control Calum again.

If it is done properly, all these 15,000 Dragon Temple soldiers can be packaged and sent to the government.

Chapter 3227

The Dragon Temple in the Middle East has suffered extremely heavy losses. But if these 15,000 people are captured again, the loss will be unprecedented. It will definitely make Dragon Temple more passive and even more miserable.

Although Charlie has no direct hatred with Dragon Temple, his intuition always makes him feel that this Dragon Temple will definitely become his enemy in the future.

Therefore, rather than just retreating at this time by himself, he is more willing to seize this opportunity to wipe out the Dragon Temple in the Middle East. The price of achieving this goal is at best a rejuvenation pill.

The Rejuvenation Pill is of course precious, but a Rejuvenation Pill may wipe out the 15,000 people in the Dragon Temple, so far for Charlie, it is still very worthwhile.

Therefore, he did not hesitate to take out a Rejuvenation Pill and planned to give it directly to the government army Commander, to save him.

But to calculate the effect of this rejuvenating pill, it is estimated that there will be more effects on the Commander after he is rescued. Just like when Don Albert was dying at the beginning, taking a Rejuvenating Pill not only saved his life and healed his wounds but also greatly improved his physical function. He was much younger after recovery. So Charlie doesn't feel sorry about spending a Rejuvenation Pill.

But Charlie only met the army commander for the first time today and he felt no necessity to let the commander feel the positive effects of the pill but only be saved from death. So he broke off half of the Rejuvenating Pill and stuffed the other half into the man's mouth.

Soon, the efficacy of the medicine began to work in his body, the damaged heart was repaired, and the hypoxic organs were recovering rapidly.

However, when the effect of the medicine was completed, the other party did not wake up immediately.

Charlie looked carefully and found that the other party's brain did not seem to have been completely repaired, so he took the remaining half of the Rejuvenation Pill again, then broke it again into half, and stuffing it into his mouth.

Soon, the government commander woke up like a revived corpse.

The first time he woke up, he felt extreme pain all over his body, especially his heart, as if he had been stabbed by a knife. In addition, his brain had a strong sense of pain and dizziness, and even a very strong vomiting impulse because of lack of oxygen for a few minutes and his body was also weak.

His whole body felt like he had just climbed over a gate and half the body was still hanging on the other side of the gate and unable to climb over.

If Charlie also gave him the remaining half of the rejuvenating pill, he would probably not feel the pain anymore, but Charlie did not intend on it and so silently put away the rest of the rejuvenating pill because he felt that firstly there was no need to give him such a blessing because he was not related to him, not an enemy nor a friend. Second, Charlie had to let the commander be filled with hatred for Calum.

Chapter 3228

If he is blessed by misfortune, he may thank Calum to some extent for giving him this opportunity. Therefore, Charlie felt it was most appropriate to let the commander be revived but still feel the pain so he would react appropriately for the situation.

This was also in response to the four word proverb left by the ancestors, "Save if you can."

The first thing this man did when he woke up was to struggle to get up, and at the same time glared at Calum and scolded, "Calum! You son of a bitch, you actually wanted to kill me!"

Although Calum could not have any reaction at this time, he was shocked in his heart!

He never thought that Charlie could save the commander with just more than half of some mystery pill. How could this be possible?!

It was also at this moment that he realized that Charlie was not just as simple as the vast number of masters with magical powers.

He really didn't understand how Commander Hamid could have such a powerful military advisor.

This man's ability is much higher than the master of the Dragon Temple, and even stronger than the ancestor behind the Dragon Temple!

Charlie looked at the commander at this time and said faintly, "You don't have to blame him here. His consciousness has been controlled by me."

The man asked in surprise, "You are in control? What does this... mean?"

Charlie said lightly, "He almost killed you just now. I saved you. Aren't you going to thank me for saving your life first?"

The government commander is not a fool. He knows exactly what happened to him just now.

At the moment Calum took action against him, he knew that he would definitely not survive. Unexpectedly, the government commander was actually saved by this mysterious Chinese person in front of him just now. Moreover, even Calum, who is superior in strength, was controlled by him. It can be seen that this person's strength is far above Calum.

Thinking about this, he quickly said gratefully to Charlie, "Wade... Master Wade, thank you for saving my life!"

Charlie nodded with a little pride and asked, "I don't know what to call you?"

The other party said quickly, "My name is Sayed."

Charlie said, "Sayed, you should see that Calum has been murderous to you. He is one of the four kings of the Dragon Temple. He dares to kill you, proving that the senior management of Dragon Temple has reached a consensus long ago and will do something against you sooner or later. So your current top priority is to quickly remove the threat of the Dragon Temple and save your motherland. If you can handle this matter neatly, you will become a national hero in the history of your country!"

After listening to this, Sayed nodded without hesitation and said, "Master Wade, you are right! I can see their true colors completely! I'll call our seniors to let them make a decision immediately!"

Charlie opened his mouth and said, "Report the situation clearly to them, and then tell them that you can do anything, and all 15,000 soldiers in Dragon Temple are to be taken as prisoners."

Sayed exclaimed, "Master Wade, do you really have a way?"

Charlie nodded, pointed to Calum, who was blank next to him, and said lightly, "With him, it must be no problem."

Sayed said excitedly, "That's great!"

With that, he immediately went to the corner of the conference room and called directly to the highest level army officer using a field phone. When the phone was connected, Sayed reported everything that happened here to the leader in his native language.

Charlie couldn't understand what he said, but he could hear that his emotions were getting more and more excited, and saw that he even swallowed several times. A few minutes later, Sayed hung up the phone and looked at Charlie.

He was red-eyed as he spoke, "Master Wade, I have communicated with the senior management. The senior management is grateful for your help and promises that if you can help us solve the soldiers of the Dragon Temple, we are willing to permanently truce with Commander Hamid!"

Charlie nodded and said indifferently, "In this case, you should immediately ask for support from your senior management and send all the troops you can send here!"

"Okay!" Sayed was so excited that he immediately made another phone call.

Soon, the government army sent more than 20,000 soldiers from all directions and rushed in.

During this period, Charlie still pretended to negotiate with Sayed and Calum.

Carrigan Astley, the Dragon Temple soldier who was responsible for receiving Charlie, knocked on the door several times to ask what was going on. Charlie asked Calum to send him away, so he did not alert the rest of Dragon Temple.

A few hours later, Carrigan knocked on the door again and said nervously, "Commander, the government army sent a lot of soldiers. Do you know what's going on?"

Calum opened his mouth under Charlie's instructions and said with pride, "Master Wade is a little doubtful of our true strength. So we decided to invite Master Wade to review our team with the government army. You go down and pass the order and let all Dragon Temple soldiers immediately gather in front of the camp so as to reassure Master Wade and ensure the absolute safety of the inspection process. All weapons are prohibited from being loaded with ammunition. Offenders will be imprisoned for one month and fined on two months' salary. Understood?"

Carrigan thought that Calum wanted to show Charlie their strength. This kind of act of highlighting their strength by inviting review can often be seen internationally. It is actually a deterrent to let the other party see their true strength so they can go back and weigh it carefully.

Therefore, it is also international practice to show strength to ensure that weapons are not loaded with ammunition, so Carrigan did not think much about it and immediately said, "Okay commander, I'll inform the others!"

At this time, Calum's consciousness was about to collapse. Naturally, he knew what Charlie was about to do. Once his soldiers unloaded their ammunition, wouldn't they become the lamb that is to be slaughtered? However, there is nothing he could do at this time except to worry about the fear of reality in his consciousness.

At this time, Charlie said to Sayed, "Are you ready?"

Sayed said, "Master Wade, I have communicated with all the commanders. I will fully arrest the 15,000 mercenaries in the Dragon Temple in a while. When the time comes, heavy machine guns and armored vehicles will guard them. Anyone who dares to resist will be killed!"

Chapter 3229

Hearing that Calum was preparing to show off his muscles to the negotiator sent by Hamid, the 15,000 soldiers in the entire Ten Thousand Dragon Temple immediately began to prepare quickly as if they were about to be beaten up.

Except for a handful of mid-level and high-level military officers in the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, who were thinking of shame and revenge for their dead brothers, most of the soldiers in the Dragon Temple had no sense of revenge at all.

After all, everyone is but a mercenary. The whole world gathers to fight side by side in the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple only to make money. Who is dead and who is injured does not really affect them.

The only issues they really care about are closely related to themselves such as how much money they'll be paid, whether the task at hand is dangerous or not, and whether it is hard or easy. Other issues are completely irrelevant and don't take any priority.

Therefore, they are extremely interested in showing their muscles at this time not because of a sense of collective honor but they have long been bored in this place where birds do not shit and only just want to end it quickly.

Right now the other party has come to negotiate. Therefore they have to seize the moment to show off in front of the other party and it is in their best interest to frighten the enemy down and let them surrender without resistance.

They heard that for this review, the government has taken great pains to transfer 20,000 to 30,000 soldiers from other places. These Dragon Temple soldiers are even more excited. The two sides together add up to 50 to 60 thousand soldiers. Their thought was whether Hamid had sent a negotiator just to be scared and pee?

As for not allowing live ammunition to be loaded with their guns, it is nothing unusual. There are almost no live ammunition inspections in this world. There has only been one inspection with live ammunition in the entire army history and that was the Soviet military parade in 1941. More than 100,000 soldiers participated in the military parade. They immediately set off and rushed to the battlefield to defend their country afterwards.

In addition, all inspections must ensure that there is no live ammunition. Otherwise, if anyone leaves a bullet in the gun and kills the enemy representative during inspection, the situation will get out of hand.

As a result, the soldiers in the Dragon Temple consciously removed all ammunition from their firearms, and their superiors also issued orders requiring officers at all levels to conduct a second inspection and confirmation of the firearms of their lower level officers and soldiers.

At the same time, the government forces were also actively preparing, but they are diametrically opposed to the Dragon Temple. What they want to confirm is that all weapons and ammunition are on standby at any time.

Subsequently, soldiers from both sides began to line up in a large open space in front of the camp. The government forces that originally fought side by side with the Dragon Temple were assembled on the right side of the Dragon Temple, while the government troops specially drawn from various places were arranged to assemble on the left side of the Dragon Temple.

At the same time, a large number of armored vehicles were all lined up and parked right in front. It is equivalent to wrapping these fifteen thousand people in Ten Thousand Dragon Temple as dumping stuffing. However, the soldiers in the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple did not feel any abnormality at this time.

Calum walked out of the negotiation room under Charlie's instruction and came directly to the front of his soldiers, with his hands behind his back and repeatedly emphasized the sentence: "Everyone listen! We must show our strongest posture, and strive to suppress the enemy from the beginning!"

All the mercenaries in the Dragon Temple responded one after another, standing tall and upright.

At the same time, they also despise the government forces on the left and right sides in their hearts because these guys, not even one of them, look like a soldier.

But who could have imagined that when the army was assembled and 15,000 soldiers in Dragon Temple were waiting for Hamid's negotiator to appear, all government troops suddenly pointed their guns at the 15,000 soldiers of the Dragon Temple.

Immediately afterwards, someone shouted through a loudspeaker: "All the soldiers of the Dragon Temple must raise their hands and surrender unconditionally! Anyone who dares to resist and refuses to surrender will be killed!"

Chapter 3230

At this time, 15,000 soldiers of the Dragon Temple were completely fried in their minds! Who could have imagined that such a huge change would suddenly occur! Who could have imagined that the friendly forces who were fighting side by side suddenly turned against them with guns?

Just when everyone did not know what to do, Calum said loudly: "All the soldiers of the Dragon Temple must obey! I order you to surrender to the government unconditionally and wait for the government to arrest us. No one can resist, otherwise the consequences will be at your own risk!"

At this time, the soldiers of the Dragon Temple collapsed. If the friendly forces suddenly turn their faces, it can barely make any sense, but the highest commander of their own has also turned against them. What in the hell is happening? This is one of their four kings of the Dragon Temple.

Carrigan Astley, who has the best relationship with Calum, couldn't help but blurt out. "Commander, this...what the hell is going on?!"

Calum said coldly: "I fucking told you to surrender, you don't understand my words?"

Carrigan was dumbfounded. He didn't want to believe that his closest comrade-in-arms in the brotherhood they grew up together in would betray everyone. He couldn't help but ask: "Brother Calum, what's the matter with you?! Why are you doing this?"

Before Calum became the king of the Four Great Wars, Carrigan always called him Brother Calum. This has always been Carrigan's name for Calum since he was young. At this time, he also hopes to use this method to wake up his brothers and let him know that he is lost.

However, Calum had already lost control of himself. His consciousness was about to collapse and he wanted to kill himself, but his body strode uncontrollably in front of Carrigan and slapped across his face severely, as he spoke angrily: "If you talk nonsense, I will kill you!"

Carrigan burst into tears immediately, and couldn't help sobbing: "Brother Calum! You are one of the most loyal veterans in the Dragon Temple. The Dragon Temple is your lifelong belief. How can you..."

Calum's consciousness was already extremely painful, but his body wasn't in his control and he put the pistol muzzle on Carrigan's forehead, and said in a cold voice: "Say one more word of nonsense, I will shoot you down!"

Carrigan looked at Calum's murderous eyes, desperate in his heart, and at the same time gave up the struggle. Although he didn't know what Calum went through and why it had come to this, he knew that Calum was determined at this moment and it was useless to say anything.

Seeing Carrigan no longer speaking, Calum put away his gun and said coldly: "You surrender obediently, the government will not embarrass you, but if you dare to resist, you will immediately be killed on the spot!"

At this time, the armored vehicles of the government army were surrounded in all directions, and the muzzles of the armored vehicles and the muzzles of the heavy machine guns were all aimed at the 15,000 soldiers of the Dragon Temple.

Calum paused slightly, and then said: "You must remember! You are all non-government forces. Even if you are killed by the opponent's army in any other countries, the other party can completely define you as a hostile force that is invading illegally. No one will do anything by then or say a word about your death!"

After hearing Calum's words and looking at the dark guns in front of them, the soldiers of the Dragon Temple had completely given up the idea of resistance.

The problem is that there are still many three-star and four-star fighters among them and they dare not take a second chance at this time. Because they know that the other party still wants to solve the problem peacefully.

If they make a mistake here, the other party can shoot directly. What is the significance of being a three-star or four-star warrior? Even a five-star warrior can't defend against the riddling of an AK47's bullets. Therefore, they have no choice but to comply.

Chapter 3231

Fifteen thousand Dragon Temple elites became prisoners in an instant.

In order to control them well, the government forces bundled them in batches, and the bundled batches were sent directly to the truck, and they were hauled to the capital.

Long before the army came to support, the high-level government forces had already determined how to place 15,000 prisoners.

They are transported by trucks to many military prisons, military camps and municipal prisons in multiple cities for split control.

In this way, the 15,000 Dragon Temple soldiers can be avoided from uniting or escaping from prison to the maximum extent.

Just as the soldiers of Dragon Temple were pulled away by trucks in batches, Sayed, the commander of the government army, found Charlie and asked respectfully, "Master Wade, now that we have captured these 15,000 Dragon Temple soldiers, we don't know how to deal with so many prisoners of war for a while."

"What good advice do you have about our next direction?"

Charlie casually said, "The first thing you have to do now is to pull out all the officers for a surprise trial."

"We must let them confess the Dragon Temple's planned attempts to your country."

"All confessions must form a complete chain of evidence, including but not limited to the handwritten and signed confession, as well as the whole process is recorded on video."

After a pause, Charlie said, "After you get this evidence, you will immediately make it public and tell the whole world that you captured the soldiers of Dragon Temple, which is supported by enough jurisprudence, reasonable and legal."

"In this way, the Dragon Temple will be charged with threatening the national security of your country other countries."

"In this way, on the one hand, you can have absolute correctness at the legal level and win the support of international public opinion; on the other hand, it can also make Dragon Temple become the object of everyone shouting, so that Dragon Temple absolutely won't dare to retaliate against you in any form!”

“I understand!” Sayed nodded repeatedly and said, “What should we do with these 15,000 people?”

Charlie said seriously, “Since they have violated your homeland security, they will naturally be tried openly and fairly with the laws of your country.”

Sayed said awkwardly, “If according to our law, these 15,000 people will be sentenced to life imprisonment even if they are not sentenced to death, but how can our financial and social resources afford to support so many prisoners...”

Charlie laughed and said, “This is simple. You should seize the time to fix the evidence, seize the time to open the trial, and then negotiate with Dragon Temple, demanding that Dragon Temple must pay enough bail to release the 15,000 people on bail.”

“As long as the bail is in place, you will immediately deport everyone.”

“Bail money...” Sayed brightened his eyes and blurted out to ask, “So how much do you think is the appropriate amount?”

Charlie looked at him and laughed and said, “I suggest you first figure out the economic scale of Dragon Temple, and then jam their scalp and open the highest price they can afford.”

“In this way, the money can also be compensated for some infrastructure.”

With that, Charlie thought about it himself and said, “I think about a billion dollars should be safe and no problem.”

“Okay!” Sayed said excitedly, “Then I’ll report to the higher level!”

Charlie nodded, looked at the time, and said lightly, "Okay, I still have a lot of things to do."

"You can deal with it yourself here, but remember that you promised me to have a permanent truce with Commander Hamid, and give Commander Hamid enough freedom to develop by himself and not invade each other."

Sayed said without hesitation, "Don't worry, we will keep our promise!"

Charlie said, "Well, I'll leave Calum to you first."

"You will immediately interrogate him."

"I will let him cooperate fully, know everything and speak endlessly."

Chapter 3232

"After you get all the evidence, send it to Commander Hamid."

"At the same time, you will also follow, with the armistice agreement, and have Commander Hamid sign the agreement."

Sayed asked puzzledly, "Master Wade, do you want Calum to go to Commander Hamid?"

"No." Charlie said lightly, "This person is still useful. I'm going to take him away."

Sayed knew that Charlie's magic power was not possible for Commander Hamid's military advisor at all.

He thought it must be a great figure brought by Commander Hamid from the outside, so he quickly agreed and said, "Don't worry, we will immediately carry out a sudden trial of him."

"After getting the evidence, I will personally send him to Commander Hamid to find you!"

"Okay." Charlie nodded and said, "Go and call Calum here. I will tell him a few words."

"Okay Master Wade, wait a minute!"

At this time, Calum is experiencing the greatest pain and torture in his life.

It's too painful for him to see his brothers be betrayed completely by him, tied up by the enemy, taken away in a car, and his future is uncertain.

Every soldier of the Dragon Temple cast the most vicious curse on him, and those angry eyes deeply pierced his heart.

He even tried to close his eyes and not look at their resentful eyes, but he couldn't do it at all.

Because even his eyelids are no longer under his control.

His consciousness, like a parasite in his own body, can feel anything, but nothing can be controlled.

His own body has become his strongest cage.

In the world, nothing is more painful than this.

Just then, Sayed came to him and said, "Calum, Master Wade is looking for you. Go over quickly!"

Hearing these words, Calum's consciousness was frightened, but his body had moved its footsteps involuntarily, almost half a second of hesitation, and immediately ran to the conference room.

Running to the conference room, Calum felt that his body was uncontrollable and bowed to Charlie, respectfully said, "Master Wade, what do you want to ask me?"

Charlie said lightly, "In a while, Sayed will take you to make a statement and transcript."

"You must cooperate with him completely and tell him all the shameful things in the Dragon Temple."

"Do you understand?"

Although Calum's autonomous consciousness wanted to refuse, his body still said uncontrollably, "Okay Master Wade, I will cooperate with all my strength..."

Charlie nodded with satisfaction and said to Sayed, "Sayed, remember to find someone who is proficient in Chinese or English from your team, record all the notes in detail, form a paper document, and give me a copy of the transcript by sending it to Commander Hamid. I want to see it."

Sayed agreed without hesitation, and said, "Master Wade, don't worry, we will try to get everything done in the fastest time, and then I will take him to see you!"

"Okay." Charlie stood up and said lightly, "You go to arrange a helicopter and take me to the meeting place before, I will go back and wait for you.”

Chapter 3233

When Charlie returned to Commander Hamid’s base by helicopter, Commander Hamid, who had learned about his return trip in advance, could not wait to come out to greet him.

As soon as Charlie got off the helicopter, he couldn’t wait to step forward and ask, “Brother! My scout said that the drone saw that the government army seemed to have captured all the soldiers of the Dragon Temple.”

“What is going on?”

Charlie smiled slightly and said, “The government army has turned against Dragon Temple.”

“Now all the soldiers of Dragon Temple have been captured, and they have also agreed to a truce with you.”

“If there are no special circumstances in the future, you try to maintain the neutral attitude of the well water not offending each other.”

Commander Hamid was a little bit confused and asked, “Brother...how can they fall out with Dragon Temple?”

“This... This is too sudden...”

Seeing that he was shocked, Charlie told Commander Hamid in detail the story.

Commander Hamid was stunned to hear the whole person and blurted out, "Brother... I imagined countless possibilities after you left, but I didn't expect such a thing to happen..."

Charlie laughed and said, "What I originally thought to try was to control Calum after going, and then coerce him to escort me and Zayne to leave."

"However, I didn't expect that when he saw the situation of the Dragon Temple being exposed, he took the initiative to attack Sayed, which just gave me a chance to catch them all."

Commander Hamid couldn't help but give Charlie a thumbs-up and praised, "Brother Wade, you are really an amazing person!"

With that, he couldn't help asking Charlie, "Brother, do you think I really should stop fighting with the government?"

Charlie nodded and said firmly, "Of course, there is a truce."

"Don't think that you have strong defense and a lot of strategic reserves now."

"No matter how much you have, it will be exhausted."

"It is absolutely not good for you to continue to remain deadlocked."

Commander Hamid said awkwardly, "In fact, I don't mean to fight with them to the end, but I'm afraid that they aren't willing to stop the war now."

"It's just a slow-up plan. What should I do if they free up their hands and start to fight me again?"

Charlie said seriously, "I asked you to stop, but I didn't let you surrender."

"Once there is a truce, you can continue to expand your armaments and continue to build your defense line."

"After the armistice, they will definitely not surround you."

"You can resume the transportation of supplies and even hire more construction teams to help you build your foundation."

"In this way, your strength will become stronger and stronger."

"Even if you turn against each other one day, you will have more initiative."

Commander Hamid thought about it carefully and found that what Charlie said really made sense.

No matter how powerful his strategic reserve is, the days of siege by the enemy are always the most dangerous and difficult.

Since the other party will withdraw troops after the armistice, it is equivalent to giving himself a chance to breathe.

So he must seize this opportunity and continue to improve his defense ability.

So he said excitedly, "Brother, I understand. Don't worry, I will do my best to make the base more solid!"

Charlie said slightly, "I believe it won't be long for Sayed to come to sign an armistice agreement with you in person."

Chapter 3234

"I have asked him to send Calum together."

"When you finish signing the armistice agreement, I will take Zayne and Calum back to China."

Commander Hamid asked quickly, "Brother, is it so hasty? Won't you stay for two more days?"

Charlie waved his hand and said, "No, I still have a lot of things to do, especially the festival of China dedicated to ancestors is coming."

"I want to go back to worship my parents, so I won't delay here."

With that, Charlie also continued without hesitation, "And the conditions in your place are too harsh."

"There is nothing, not even a tourist attraction."

"It's no fun for me to stay here for two days, so I'd better go back first."

Commander Hamid laughed and said, "What I'm saying is that my place is really boring and the conditions are relatively poor, but don't worry, after the armistice, I will immediately start a new round of infrastructure construction."

"At that time, I will definitely dig a few high-end rooms in the mountain."

“When you come over next time, I will treat you well!”

Charlie agreed with a smile on the surface, but he whispered in his heart that he really didn't want to come again in the future.

Three hours later, Commander Hamid's scouts heard that the government army had begun to retreat.

Most of the infantry have left by car, and the original artillery and armored vehicles have also been withdrawn to the capital, leaving only some soldiers to pack tents, mobile board houses and other materials.

At this time, Commander Hamid's aide-de-camp came to report that a helicopter was approaching the base.

Commander Hamid knew that Sayed must have come to sign the armistice agreement, so he ordered his adjutant to take him directly to his headquarters after the other party arrived.

Soon, several soldiers took Sayed and Calum to the headquarters.

When he saw Charlie, Sayed's first thing was to bow respectfully and say, “Master Wade, I'm really sorry to keep you waiting!”

Charlie smiled, “It's okay. How's the situation over there?”

Sayed said quickly, “The vast majority of the officers of the Dragon Temple have been interrogated.”

“We have found a large amount of evidence, which is being submitted to the news agency for editing and will be sent to the world later.”

With these words, he quickly took out a thick A4 paper and handed it to Charlie’s hand.

He said respectfully, “Master Wade, this is Calum’s statement.”

Charlie took a thick piece of paper.

He did not rush to open it immediately, but asked him, “Sayed, have you brought your armistice agreement?”

“Yes, Master Wade!” Sayed quickly took out another document, handed it to Charlie, and then to Commander Hamid.

He said, “This is our armistice agreement template.”

“Commander Hamid can take a look first.”

“Master Wade doesn’t understand the language of Arab, so let me explain it orally to you.”

Charlie nodded and casually said, “Okay, you can talk about it.”

Sayed rushed, “First of all, I am very grateful to Master Wade, and my leaders.”

“You have saved not only me, but also our country.”

Charlie waved his hand, "Please continue."

Sayed said gratefully, "Because of my gratitude to Master Wade, in our armistice agreement, there are basically no requirements listed."

"As long as Commander Hamid also agrees to the ceasefire, both of us will immediately enter an indefinite ceasefire."

"We will also explicitly prohibit our soldiers, weapons and vehicles from entering within a 30 kilometers radius of Commander Hamid, he also can continue to develop and expand, and we will not interfere."

Sayed said again, "Of course, while we respect Commander Hamid, we also hope Commander Hamid will not take the initiative to attack us."

"If Commander Hamid can do nothing against us, then we will never start a war against Commander Hamid, and the two sides will develop peacefully without aggression against each other!"

Charlie knows that these two completely different forces cannot achieve permanent and peaceful coexistence.

However, as long as the status quo of Commander Hamid's siege can be lifted now, it will make him a lot easier and give him more time and energy to improve his own strength.

In this way, even if he fights again in the future, he can have more initiative.

So he asked Commander Hamid, "Commander Hamid, do you have any comments?"

Commander Hamid naturally shook his head again and again and said, "I have no opinion!"

Charlie nodded, and said, "Since there is no objection, then it is decided."

"You can sign it directly."

The two said in unison, "Okay!"

Charlie took the advantage of the time the two were preparing to sign the contract and flipped through Calum's transcript.

At first, he didn't think it was anything strange, but he didn't expect that the more he looked at the content, the more frightened he was!

Chapter 3235

In Calum's confession, he told all the information he had about Dragon Temple without reservation.

Charlie skipped directly about Dragon Temple's attempt to Syria, because he already knew about it, in fact, he was more curious about some situations inside Dragon Temple.

Calum's confession shows that the founder of Dragon Temple is named Wesley. The main reason why he was able to set up Dragon Temple at a young age and grow all the way with Dragon Temple was that it he was due to a nobleman he met overseas that year.

The identity of this nobleman is very mysterious. Most of the soldiers in Dragon Temple do not know his existence. Only Wesley and other core members of Dragon Temple know his identity and respectfully call him the ancestor.

The real identity of this ancestor is actually a top martial arts master.

Wesley is the direct disciple of this ancestor.

According to Calum, after Wesley had a certain strength in the way of martial arts, he began to recruit troops overseas from Chinese circles. Almost all the kings and generals of Dragon Temple are disciples of Wesley.

With the continuous improvement of the strength of these core members, Dragon Temple soon became well-known in the field of mercenaries. Then Wesley began to expand again and privately divided Dragon Temple into three classes.

The first class is naturally kings and generals. These kings and generals are disciples of the Dragon Temple. Knowing most of the secrets of Dragon Temple, they are all very sincere.

The second class is the middle-level officers of Dragon Temple. These officers have played an important role in the personnel structure of tens of thousands of Dragon Temple. These people know that the first class of Dragon Temple is practicing martial arts, but they just know that if you want to practice martial arts, you must pass the assessment of the first class, so the loyalty of this group of officers is also very high.;

As for the third class, that is, the mercenaries hired by the Dragon Temple from all over the world. In fact, these mercenaries do not know the core secrets of the Dragon Temple. They just take the high salary of the Dragon Temple to work for the Dragon Temple. If they perform very well, they can be promoted to officers and become the second class of the Dragon Temple.

It is precisely because of this hierarchy, coupled with the attraction of martial arts as an ascending ladder in it, that the first and second classes of the whole Dragon Temple are extremely stable and the overall strength is getting stronger and stronger.

What shocked Charlie most was that Calum's confession said that the greatest wish of Wesley in so many years was actually to return to China to avenge his parents. For this goal, he had carefully prepared for many years.

Originally, the ancestor was not going to let him return to China for revenge. Over the years, although Wesley has been reluctant to give up, the ancestor has never nodded.

It was not until last year that the ancestor decided to leave the Middle East and travel around the world, and no longer interfere with anything in the Dragon Temple that Wesley was finally able to put the revenge plan on the agenda.

In order to avenge revenge this time, ten thousand broken troops and stirred up the army. the The four kings of war and hundreds of generals rushed to China.

Now, there are three kings of the fFour kings or Wars, leaving only Calum himself in the Middle East.

Calum, this time, was originally to rush to China to join the Dragon Temple army immediately after taking Commander Hamid and other opposition forces.

When Charlie saw this, he looked up at Calum and asked coldly, "Who is Wesley going to seek revenge from when he returned to China this time?"

Calum blurted out, "According to him, the enemy who killed his parents was the Wade family in Eastcliff!"

"Wade family?!" Charlie couldn't help frowning and asked, "How could the Wade family kill his parents?"

Chapter 3236

Calum said blankly, "I don't know what the specific situation is. The master of the Dragon Temple has never revealed the details to me. He only said that he wanted the Wade family to pay the price of blood, but we are not clear about the hatred between the Wade family and him."

Charlie asked again, "Have you heard Wesley say the name of his enemy in the Wade family?"

Calum shook his head, "I've never heard of..."

At this time, Charlie thought in his heart that this Wesley wanted to seek revenge from the Wade family, which has something to do with who in the Wade family was.

Is it the old man Lord Wade? Or Uncle Corran or other Wade's family?

In Charlie's opinion, the age of Wesley is similar to that of himself. If the Wade family killed his parents, it must have happened at least a dozen or twenty years ago.

At that time, in addition to his grandpa and uncle, the Wade family had a mainstay, his father, Bruce Wade.

Therefore, he also secretly wondered whether this enemy of Wesley would be his father.

However, Calum certainly didn't know this question, and it was meaningless to ask him.

Then, Charlie thought of the upcoming ancestor worship ceremony of the Wade family.

Wesley suddenly wanted to avenge the Wade family at this node. Could it be the time to choose the ancestor worship ceremony?

After all, this is a grand ceremony that the Wade family only has every 12 years. If he has a feud with the Wade family, he will naturally choose to attack the Wade family on this day.

So he asked Calum, "Wesley did not make a request to you, such as when must you arrive in Eastcliff?"

Calum nodded repeatedly and said, "It was mentioned that I must arrive in Eastcliff before April 3rd."

"April 3..." Charlie's eyes narrowed slightly, and his eyes said coldly, "April 5 is the festival of ancestral ceremony. According to you, Dragon Temple must want to do something on this day."

Calum said respectfully, "What is the specific plan of Wesley? This is really not clear below."

Charlie gave a hum, and then asked Commander Hamid for a satellite phone number and called Stephen Thompson.

As soon as the phone was answered on the phone, Stephen Thompson asked, "Hello, who is this?"

Charlie said, "Butler Stephen, it's me, Charlie."

"Young master!" Stephen Thompson asked in surprise, "How did you call overseas? Oh, yes, I heard that Master's Concorde plane is out again. Should it take you to the Middle East?"

"Yes." Charlie said, "Butler Stephen, I'm calling you to ask you about something."

Stephen Thompson said quickly, "Young master, please ask, I will know everything and answer endlessly!"

Charlie asked him, "Have you ever heard of a man named Wesley?"

“Wesley?” Stephen Thompson said for a moment, “Young master, I don’t seem to have heard of it.”

Esteban Drake, the father of Wesley, was not famous in Eastcliff, but just a dog with Zayne Banks. Moreover, when Esteban Drake had an accident, his son, Wesley was still a child, so not many people knew his situation.

Charlie asked him again, “Then I ask you, did the Wade family have any conflicts or contradictions with people surnamed Drake more than ten or twenty years ago?”

“Drake?” Stephen Thompson thought for a moment and said, “Yes! At the beginning, there was a man named Esteban Drake beside Zayne Banks. In order to stand up for Zayne Banks, he had some conflicts with your father. Later, he competed with your father in the futures market, but finally lost a fortune. Later, he jumped off the building and committed suicide, and his wife also took poison to suicide...”

“Your father was very guilty about this matter at that time. Although Esteban Drake took the initiative to provoke your father, he defeated him in the futures market, your father still felt that he was responsible for Esteban Drake’s death...”

Chapter 3237

When Charlie heard Stephen Thompson’s words, he couldn’t help frowning and asked, “Since it was Esteban Drake who took the initiative to provoke my father, and my father defeated him in a fair manner, committing suicide is his decision.”

“What does it have to do with my father?”

After speaking, Charlie said firmly, “My father wasn’t responsible for his death!”

“As for his wife who committed suicide by poisoning, it also has has also nothing to do with my father!”

“If it wasn’t for him to be extremely weak and choose to die, his wife will not go with him, so the death of his wife should be counted on his head!”

“What does it have to do with my father?”

Stephen Thompson sighed and said, “Young master, your father has always been kind and righteous.”

“In many cases, he has higher requirements for himself than morality.”

With these words, he couldn’t help asking, “How could you ask about this?”

Charlie casually said, “It’s nothing, I just met a Chinese overseas, and he happened to know something about the Drake family.”

With that, Charlie asked again, “By the way, do you know the current situation of the Drake family?”

Stephen Thompson said, “the Drake family has have been ruined for a long time.”

“After the death of Esteban Drake and his wife, Drake Group was also bankrupt and liquidated.”

“Not only did it have no surplus assets, but also owed a large amount of debts.”

“Some friends avoided it and broke off their relationship with them.”

With that, Stephen Thompson said again, "By the way, Esteban Drake had a son at that time, which should be similar to your age, or slightly two years older than you."

"At the beginning, after your father learned that his wife also committed suicide by poison, he thought about adopting the child, but he did not find him, and those relatives of Drake family knew that they had failed, so they all kept away from Drake family."

"So the Drake family is basically over completely."

"If you hadn't asked just now, I would have not remembered the Drake family's business for more than ten years."

When Charlie heard this, he already had basic speculation in his mind.

"This Dragon Temple's broken army should be Esteban Drake's son..."

"And, Wesley Drake, Dragon Temple, the name sounds very similar, which further confirms my speculation..."

"This Wesley Drake must think that my father killed his parents..."

Chapter 3238

"That's why he is bent on seeking revenge from the Wade family..."

"However, since his Dragon Temple has developed to the extent today, it is impossible not to know that my father has already passed away."

"Knowing that my father has passed away, he still wants to seek revenge from the Wade family, either to anger the whole Wade family, or to relieve relieving his deceased father.”

Thinking of the upcoming ancestor worship ceremony, Charlie’s eyes suddenly became extremely cold!

He clenched his fist and secretly swore in his heart, “If this Wesley Drake dares to target my parents’ grave, I will shred him into pieces!”

At this time, Stephen Thompson asked Charlie, “Young master, have you heard anything about the Drake family?”

Charlie said, “I’ve heard a little rumor, but it doesn’t matter.”

With that, Charlie said again, “Butler Stephen, I have something else to do on my side, so I won’t talk to you any longer.”

“When I get to Eastcliff, I’ll talk to you face to face.”

“Okay.” Stephen Thompson smiled and said, “All the heads of the Wade family’s collateral families have arrived in Eastcliff, and your cousin Jon’s fiancée, Princess Helena, has also arrived in Eastcliff.”

“I’m looking forward to you coming here too!”

“Princess Helena?” Charlie asked curiously, “Where is that princess from?”

“It’s from northern Europe.” Stephen Thompson said, “This is the marriage object that the master talked about for your cousin some time ago.”

“Considering the marriageable girls of many families, this Helena as a whole is the most suitable.”

“After your cousin marries her, the future development of the Wade family in Europe will also be greatly assisted.”

“After the festival, they will hold an engagement ceremony immediately. .”

“I see.” Charlie casually said, “I will only participate in the ancestor worship ceremony this time.”

“I won’t participate in the engagement.”

“Please help me say hello to them in advance.”

Stephen Thompson hesitated for a moment and advised him, “Young master, if you are not so busy, you’d better participate, otherwise I’m afraid it’s a little unreasonable in face.”

“No.” Charlie said firmly, “I don’t want to have too much involvement with the Wade family.”

“This ancestor worship ceremony is closed, and I can worship my parents, so I agreed to participate in other things, and I won’t get involved.”

“All right.” Stephen Thompson knew that it was difficult to persuade Charlie, so he asked, “Young master, when will you come?”

Charlie said lightly, “I will arrive in Eastcliff on April 3rd.”

“Okay!” Stephen Thompson said excitedly, “I’ll pick you up at the airport!”

Charlie casually said, "Let's talk about that Butler Stephen when I arrived."

"I have something to do. I'll hang up first."

After saying goodbye to Stephen Thompson, Charlie immediately stood up and said to Commander Hamid and Sayed, "You both must coexist peacefully in the future, which is the most beneficial situation for both sides."

With that, Charlie added, "In addition, the 15,000 soldiers of Dragon Temple will certainly bring great benefits to the government army, which is also a great promotion to the economy of the government army."

"Therefore, from now on, you two can completely concentrate on the development of infrastructure and economy, and there is no need to fight back and forth."

Commander Hamid nodded without hesitation and said, "Don't worry, brother, I will remember your teachings!"

Sayed also said, "In fact, we don't want to fight all day long."

"It's perfect to have peace talks!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Then hurry up and sign the peace agreement."

"I have some important things to do, and I must go back to China immediately."

"Commander Hamid, you help me prepare the helicopter and bring Zayne out."

“I want to take him back.”

Commander Hamid said reluctantly, “Brother, are you in such a hurry?”

“Look, brother, I haven’t been able to catch the wind and clean the dust for you so far!”

Charlie waved his hand, “You can do it next time, this time it’s really urgent and can’t be delayed.”

Commander Hamid nodded in understanding and said seriously, “Ok! Big things matter! I won’t keep you!”

“With that, he immediately called his adjutant to open his mouth and ordered, “Schedule the helicopter to send Mr. Wade to Beirut!”

As the adjutant was about to take command, Sayed said in a hurry, “Master Wade, you’d better take my helicopter.”

“After all, our current peace talks have not been announced to the public.”

“This way, in case someone recognizes General Commander Hamid’s helicopter, it will be difficult to attack when the brain is hot.”

“Take my plane, in this way, it is absolutely safe.”

Charlie is Sayed’s lifesaver and helped Sayed make great achievements in the army.

Sayed can be said to be extremely grateful to him.

This is even better than Commander Hamid, who was cured by Charlie.

Charlie nodded gently and said, "Then I'll take your helicopter."

Sayed said quickly, "Master Wade, I'll see you off!"

Commander Hamid said without hesitation, "Brother Wade, I'll go too!"

Charlie nodded, looked at Calum, and said coldly, "You follow me."

Calum said without hesitation, "Okay! Everything is up to you..."
