

Chapter 3309

Since both the Wade family and the Sun family had prepared a motorcade, Orrin simply let the Sun family's team follow, which was regarded as helping Charlie to cause a bigger scene.

On the way to the Wade's family house, Stephen Thompson drove in person and reported to Charlie in detail about the accident that happened to Helena today.

Charlie had only three feelings in his heart after listening.

First, Helena is indeed ill-intentioned in concealing the truth;

Second, the Wade Family's throwing the pot is indeed shameless;

Third, Helena and the Wade family can reach a consensus on this basis, proving that they are both human beings, and there is no fuel-efficient lamp.

In addition, he can also infer that Helena's current situation should be difficult.

On China's side, it was difficult for the Wade family to let her marry the family, and on the Nordic side, it was impossible for her to return easily to the royal family who used her mother's life to threaten her.

She is now in a dilemma.

But Charlie didn't even think about helping Helena.

Firstly, he was unfamiliar, and secondly, although Helena was pitiful, she was too scheming.

This kind of person is not suitable for excessive contact.

When the twenty Rolls-Royce drove into the Wade's house, Lord Wade had already led all the Wade family members to greet him in person.

In the crowd, Helena has changed into a very formal dress, and put on very decent makeup.

It is completely invisible that she has just nearly died.

At this time, Lord Wade was particularly excited.

Lord Wade had many expectations for Charlie.

It was not only because of Charlie's unpredictable strength, but also the destructive aura that Charlie showed to the Banks Family and in the Middle East.

It is because Charlie has mastered the mystery that brings people back to life and gives youth.

Leaving aside Helena's biting her finger to save her life, it happened more than half an hour ago.

During this period, the upper class of Eastcliff has been trying to figure out how Orrin turned from a dying patient with advanced pancreatic cancer into a miracle. Healed, and even twenty years younger.

It's a pity that Orrin is tight-lipped and doesn't say anything to the outside world, even if it's his friend, he doesn't reveal anything.

Others don't know the reason, but Lord Wade knows.

He knew that all of this was done by Charlie.

Because Charlie had said to Cynthia himself.

Just rushing to this point, Lord Wade was also willing to bow down to Charlie.

If being humble and kneeling can earn a life extension of twenty years, it is simply the most cost-effective business he has ever done in his life.

However, everyone in the Wade family except Cynthia Wade didn't understand what the old man was trying to do.

It was enough to let Charlie come back, after all, he was Wade Family's protagonist.

But the old man personally took all Charlie's uncles, aunts, and brothers and sisters to welcome Charlie at the gate.

This kind of surrendering status made this group of people unacceptable.

However, Lord Wade didn't say anything, and didn't let them say anything either .

When other people saw him coming out, they could only follow honestly.

Soon, Charlie's vehicle stopped in front of the Wade family's house.

Through the car window, Charlie looked at Lord Wade outside the window, and the Wade family in two rows behind him, feeling a lot of emotion in his heart.

Chapter 3310

Back then, his parents left Eastcliff with their own anger, and none of the Wade family at that time saw each other.

Twenty years later, he returned, but the Wade family, under the leadership of the old man, and they all came out to line up to greet him.

The comparison between the two is ironic!

At this time, Charlie was sitting in the car and didn't mean to get out.

Stephen Thompson had already gotten out of the car in front of him, hurried to the door of Charlie's side, took the initiative to open the door, and respectfully said, "Young Master, we are here."

Charlie nodded lightly.

He was still not in a hurry to get off the car, but said to Stefanie, "Stefanie, thank you for your hard work for sending me all the way here."

Stefanie smiled sweetly, "Charlie, why are you polite with me."

Charlie nodded and said, "Then I will go first. You don't have to trouble yourself to pick me up at night. After I'm done, I will ask Stephen Thompson to send me back."

"Okay." Stefanie said hurriedly, "Then I will wait for you at home."

Charlie replied, and then got out of the Rolls Royce.

At this time, Jon was mad.

He lowered his voice and complained to his father, Corran beside him, "I don't know why Charlie has such a big deal made of him! Grandpa took us out to meet him personally. He didn't get out of the car quickly, and we still had to wait. He even let Stephen Thompson open the door for him! It's too good to show off!"

Corran glared at him and shouted in a low voice, "Take care of your own mouth! Don't you know the words that come out of your mouth?"

Jon could only shut his mouth angrily.

Although he was still full of dissatisfaction, he did not dare to show too much of it.

When Charlie got out of the car, he didn't say hello to the Wade family immediately.

Instead, he stood outside the car, turned around and waved to Stefanie in the car.

After watching the Rolls Royce leave, he turned around.

Most Wade family members were dissatisfied with Charlie's performance, but Lord Wade was not at all angry.

Instead, he stepped forward very excitedly and took Charlie's hand, choked up and said, "Charlie, you left home for so long and finally came back. Oh! God bless my Wade family, now that I can live to see you return to the Wade family, even if I die, I now have no regrets!”

Charlie knew that the old man’s remarks were not very credible.

However, Charlie did not refute his face, and said politely, “Grandpa, for so many years, you have been worried.”

Lord Wade said with emotion, “Nothing is going to happen, just come back! Just come back!”

As he said, he hurriedly took Charlie’s hand, faced the Wade family behind him, and said enthusiastically, “Come on, Charlie, you have been away from home for too long. You may not remember many people. Grandpa will introduce you to them. “

At this time, Charlie found that Helena in the crowd had a pair of blue eyes staring at him without blinking.

Charlie and her gaze intertwined briefly.

Seeing her eyes filled with gratitude and pleading, Charlie treated it as if he did not see it, and immediately turned to look at his uncle, Corran.

Because the first person the old man was going to introduce to Charlie was his eldest son, Charlie’s uncle Corran.

Although Charlie and Corran hadn’t seen each other for 20 years, after all, the appearance of middle-aged people had not changed much, so he could recognize them at a glance.

Lord Wade pointed to Corran and said to Charlie, “Charlie, this is your uncle, do you remember?”

“Yes, I remember.” Charlie nodded, also out of observance of etiquette, and took the initiative to speak, “Hello, uncle, it’s been a long time.”

Although Corran is unhappy with Charlie, but the superficial work is still in place, he sighed, “Charlie, you finally came back, uncle is really too happy! For so many years, you don’t know how much we worried about you.”

Charlie nodded and said politely, “Thank you, uncle.”

Corran smiled pretentiously and said, “Charlie, how long do you plan to stay in Eastcliff this time? Let your Brother Jon take you around in Eastcliff!”

Corran’s remarks are also what many people want to ask Charlie.

They all want to know what Charlie plans to come this time.

He came back to Aurous Hill after attending an ancestor worship ceremony, or he just didn’t leave when he came. Especially Corran, he knows that the old man will soon hand over power when he is old.

Then he will naturally be the next Patriarch, and Jon will naturally be the candidate for the next Patriarch.

However, killing Charlie at this time will more or less definitely affect the future development direction.

Therefore, he must first understand Charlie’s intentions.

Charlie couldn’t hear the meaning of Corran’s words, and smiled slightly, “Uncle, I came back this time to recognize my ancestor and return to my ancestry. After I recognize my ancestor and return to my ancestry, I will become a member of the Wade family again. So, to this question..."

After speaking, he smiled again, "Even if I don't live here often in the future, I have to let Grandpa reserve a room for me, because I will definitely come back often!"

Chapter 3311

Hearing Charlie's words, Corran was extremely depressed.

He understands what Charlie meant.

From now on, whether he lives in the Wade Family, whether he stays in Eastcliff or not, Charlie has officially returned to the Wade Family.

Corran cursed inwardly, "This kid is a bit disgusting if he does like this..."

However, in front of the old man, he did not dare to say anything.

So, he could only smile and said, "Okay, okay! You can come back anytime!"

The old man then introduced to Charlie his third uncle William, fourth uncle Myles Wade, aunt Cynthia Wade, and younger sister Ciara Wade.

When introducing Cynthia Wade, Cynthia's expression was very attentive, and she said excitedly, "Charlie, Auntie has been waiting for you for so many years, and you are finally back! Your parents are in the spirit of heaven, they will definitely be very pleased!"

As she said, she made a few hypocritical sobs, but no tears came down.

Charlie has long been accustomed to Cynthia's performances. After all, Cynthia Wade is a noble family member of the Wade family. In popular words nowadays, she is definitely an old princess. The old princess has always been arrogant and domineering, and she never needs to bow her head to anyone, so the acting skills are not very good right now, but it is understandable.

After all, this kind of old princess doesn't usually have the energy to study and improve acting skills.

Charlie could also see that she had tried her best to act, but her tears did not come.

So Charlie smiled slightly and said politely, "Thank you, auntie."

But Ciara Wade, who had been silent next to her, had her eyes flushed without saying a word.

When Lord Wade introduced her, her tears could not be faked. She took Charlie's hand while crying, and choked with sobs, "Charlie, you finally came back this time, please don't leave again...."

Looking at his Aunt Ciara who was about forty years old in front of him, Charlie couldn't help but think of his childhood.

His Aunt Ciara was a whole decade older than him.

When Charlie was still a child, she was also young. At that time, he was glued to her because she would take her time to play with him every day after school. And she was very clingy to his father, she had the best relationship with his father. Charlie's father also spoiled the youngest sister the most. He basically treated her as a daughter and gave her whatever she wanted. So although the siblings are much different in age, the relationship is indeed very harmonious.

In Charlie's memory, Aunt Ciara had a very lively and cheerful personality, and she didn't think so much like Cynthia.

At that time, Cynthia approached Corran and deliberately alienated his father Bruce Wade.

The reason was that Cynthia felt that in the future, the heir of the Wade family would definitely be Corran, the eldest son, so she had already developed a sense of standing in line.

Ciara had never had those complicated ideas.

When Charlie left home with his parents, his Aunt Ciara was studying abroad.

Charlie's memories of her still remain in the scene when she graduated from high school and everyone sent her abroad.

Aunt Ciara at that time was still a young girl, and now, she has reached adulthood.

Seeing the true feelings of his aunt, Charlie couldn't help sighing for a while, and said respectfully, "Auntie, don't worry, I will come back this time to recognize my ancestors and return to the family. Even if I leave Eastcliff temporarily in the future, I won't break my connection with the Wade family."

The meaning of Charlie's words was very clear.

After returning to the Wade family this time, he will definitely return to Aurous Hill, but he has officially recognized his ancestor and returned to the family, and will formally become a member of the Wade family's direct line again.

Hearing this, Lord Wade and Ciara's ears were naturally very happy, but other people were very upset when they heard it.

Charlie's recognizing the ancestor and returning to the family means that there will be one more competitor in the future family property battle.

After the old man took Charlie to say hello to these elders one by one, the rest were those who were equal to Charlie.

The oldest is Jon, followed by Brenden, and several other younger siblings.

Except for Jon and Brenden, the rest of the rich second generation who had been pampered since childhood didn't have any feelings about Charlie, a relative who had been away from home for twenty years.

Everyone said just a few words on the surface.

Seeing that Charlie and everyone had known each other one by one, Lord Wade looked at the time and said happily, "It's a great thing for Charlie to come back. Let's go in and sit down. Let's talk about the past together. When the time is up, the relatives should also come to visit us."

Seeing Lord Wade's order, everyone moved to the main hall of the Wade Family Villa.

Helena has been by Jon's side, looking for an opportunity to communicate with Charlie alone, but seeing the situation at this time is unlikely, so she had to give up temporarily.

At this time, inside the main hall of the Wade Family Villa.

In the center of the huge main hall, in accordance with the ancestor's instructions, a fan shape has been used with multiple yellow rosewood chairs.

The center of the fan shape is the old man's position, and beside the hands of the position, there are more than ten chairs.

These are the seats of direct members of the Wade family.

And around the fan-shaped, there are hundreds of simple folding chairs neatly arranged, these are all seats prepared for the relatives.

Lord Wade pulled Charlie to the main seat, pointed directly at the position on the right hand side, and said to Charlie, "Charlie, if your father was alive, the position on my right hand side would be his. Now he is gone, after returning to the Wade Family, you will naturally take this position!"

Lord Wade directly let Charlie sit on his right hand.

This move surprised everyone at once.

Because according to the rules, when the relatives come to visit, the father sits in the upright position, the eldest son sits in the lower left position, the second son sits in the lower right position, and the son's generation sits next to each other before the grandchildren's turn.

After the grandchildren have also sat down, the daughter and granddaughter sit next to each other on the outermost side.

As for grandsons and granddaughters, people with foreign surnames are not allowed to participate, so Cynthia and Ciara's husband and children are not there.

Since the second son Bruce Wade has passed away, according to the old rules, the position of Bruce Wade should be postponed to the younger son, William.

At the last ancestor worship ceremony twelve years ago, William did indeed replace Bruce Wade.

But this time, Lord Wade didn't give William a chance.

Corran felt that the old man had favored Charlie too much, so he couldn't help but speak, "Dad, Charlie just came back, and I understand you feel sorry for him, but the rules are already set and you can't change it at will. Bruce is gone, this position should be taken by William, Charlie should sit with his cousin Jon!"

William felt a little more at ease.

Seeing that Charlie was about to take his place, he felt most upset in his heart. But he didn't dare to argue with the old man, but fortunately, his eldest brother stood up to be fair to himself.

Lord Wade sneered at Corran's words, and said lightly, "The rules are all set by people! I am the head of the Wade family. I will arrange whatever I say."

After that, he looked at Charlie and said without a doubt, "Charlie, just sit here!"

Of course Charlie had no opinion. Now he is not only going to sit next to Lord Wade, in the near future, he will replace Lord Wade and sit in his position.

Therefore, offending the first uncle and the third uncle today is just an appetizer. One day, he will offend the entire Wade family.

But he doesn't care, as the saying goes, if you want to wear a crown, you must bear its weight.

If he wants the Wade family to surrender, he must first offend them all. Then, they will be subdued and subdued one by one with their bad temper. Let them learn to bend over, learn to bend their knees, and learn to surrender!

Only in this way can oneself be able to secure the position of the Patriarch of the Wade Family.

So, he smiled slightly and said without thinking, "Okay! Then I'll sit here!"

After that, he just sat down!

Chapter 3313

No one expected Charlie to sit so calmly and casually.

It seems that the seat itself was his.

William, who was robbed of a seat, turned green with anger.

He originally thought that Charlie would definitely have to reduce his sharp edge when he first arrived.

But who would have thought that this guy would sit down directly!

This made William curse in his heart, "D*mn! Charlie doesn't understand the rules too much."

"He just came come back and grabbed grab my seat. Does he want to step on me? Is it on top of his head?"

Corran, was also very upset.

He originally thought that Charlie would be a little bit more restrained and humble in front of the old man and to his uncles when he returned to the Wade family, but he didn't expect that Charlie would ignore these so-called elders at all.

Corran couldn't help scolding secretly in the bottom of his heart, "This Charlie robbed William's position."

"On the surface, he hit William's face, but in fact, he also gave Jon a slap in the face!"

"After all, Charlie is also a grandchild. Whether by generation, seniority, or by age, he should be behind my two brothers, and also behind my son!"

"But now, the old man actually asked him to directly cross Jon, over his third and fourth uncle, and directly sit beside of the old man..."

"If the old man favors him to this point, it will be an extremely dangerous signal! In case he surpassed Jon, wouldn't it be possible for the Wade family to fall into his hands after that?!"

Jon was also angry.

In any family, the eldest son and grandchild are the most valuable, so in Jon's eyes, his younger brothers and sisters will all make a living under his own hands in the future, which is naturally several grades worse than himself.

Not just these brothers and sisters, even those uncles and aunts!

After the old man left and the power of the Wade family was handed over to his father, these uncles and aunts began to develop to the wind of their relatives.

At that time, don't they have to do things according to their own faces?

But today, the old man praised Charlie to such a high position, which really gave him a great sense of crisis.

Other Wade family members were also dissatisfied with the old man's behavior, but at this time no one dared to speak out to his face, so they could only resist it.

After everyone sat down one after another, Stephen Thompson took a guest post written with a brush, and handed it to Lord Wade with both hands.

He said respectfully, "Master, this ancestor worship ceremony, the Wade family, is distributed in foreign relatives all over the world."

"A total of 791 members came to participate, and the list is all on this famous post."

"Okay!" Lord Wade nodded with satisfaction and said, "There are so many people who came to the Wade family's ancestral ceremony, proving that they have not forgotten their roots!"

Stephen Thompson handed another famous post and continued to say, "Master, there are a total of 136 representatives of foreign relatives who came to visit today, all of whom are the heads of various branches of the Wade family and the eldest son and grandchildren."

Chapter 3314

"The order above the list is the order of the meeting of foreign relatives."

Lord Wade took it, glanced, laughed and said, "There are many more direct descendants of each family who came to visit this time than the last time!"

“Yes.” Stephen Thompson nodded and said, “There are many young people in it, all about 16 to 25 years old.”

“At the last ancestor worship ceremony, they were still children, so they did not come to attend.”

Lord Wade nodded and said with a smile, “Our Wade family has branched and scattered leaves across the country and even the whole world.”

“Tomorrow’s ancestral ceremony, we will invite the genealogy out on the spot and fill in all the information of these young descendants.”

“The ancestors will certainly be very gratified when they see it!”

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, “That’s perfect!”

With that, Stephen Thompson asked again, “Master, it’s still three minutes to 9:30.”

“More than 100 relatives of the Wade family have been waiting outside the manor.”

“Can they come in one after another?”

Lord Wade nodded and said with a smile, “Yes, let’s go!”

With that, he also turned his face and introduced to Charlie beside him, “Charlie, the first one to visit later was your second grandfather’s family.”

“I don’t know if you still remember him?”

Charlie shook his head, "I don't remember anything."

Lord Wade smiled and said, "You should have seen him once or twice when you were a child, but after all, you have been away from home for too long, and the second master and his family are in Canada, and they don't have many opportunities to come to China."

After that, Lord Wade said again, "In speaking of so many relatives of the Wade family, your second grandpa's family is the closest to us, after all, he is my own brother."

Others saw Lord Wade all talking and laughing with Charlie, and they were all jealous.

Soon after, when everyone heard the door open opened, Stephen Thompson announced, "Benedict Wade, the eldest son of Lucas Wade and the eldest grandson, Carl Wade came to visit!"

As soon as the words fell, an old man with white hair came in with a middle-aged man and a young man with a smile.

This old man is Lord Wade's own brother, Lucas Wade.

Lucas Wade took his eldest son and grandson and stepped straight to Lord Wade, who was sitting in the central seat.

He said excitedly, "Big brother! Long time no see!"

Lord Wade nodded and smiled, "You haven't come back in the past two or three years, have you? You don't usually come back to see your big brother!"

Lucas Wade said ashamedly, "Big brother, my body is getting more and more unable to toss around."

"A few years ago, I had a serious illness and had more than half of my stomach cut off."

"The doctor told me not to be too tired, so I basically don't go far away."

Speaking of this, Lucas Wade sighed again, "This ancestor worship ceremony, the children did not want me to come, but how can't I?"

"Maybe this is the last time I can attend the ancestor worship ceremony!"

Lord Wade said quickly, "Don't talk nonsense, take good care of yourself, you will definitely be able to participate in another 12 years!"

Lucas Wade sighed softly and waved his hand and said, "Big brother, I know my body well."

"I'm satisfied if I can live another three or five years. How dare I hope for twelve years?"

Speaking of this, Lucas Wade said again, "I just finished talking to my children a few days ago."

"I want them to take my body back to China and bury it in the ancestral tomb of our Wade family after I die."

"However, the children did not agree at first. They always felt that it was too far away. It was not easy to come to see me and worship."

Lord Wade blurted out, "Okay, brother! Don't talk nonsense about these frustrating remarks."

“Coming back here this time, you must stay for a few more days. We will get together!”

“Okay!” Lucas Wade nodded again and again, and then said to his son and grandson next to him, “Benedict, Carl, what are you still doing in a daze, come quickly and see the head of our Wade family!”

Benedict Wade quickly knelt on one knee and hugged his fist and said, “I, Benedict Wade, pay pays tribute to my uncle!”

His son Carl Wade also fell on his knees and said respectfully, “I, Carl Wade, pay pays tribute to my grandpa!”

Lord Wade smiled and said happily, “Come on brother, as well as Benedict and Carl, let me introduce you.”

Corran had already lifted his butt and was about to get up.

Because according to the rules, this kind of formal occasion, even if everyone already knows everyone, they must still go through a cutscenes.

As the eldest son, he must be the first to be introduced.

But who would have thought that just a few centimeters away from his ass, Lord Wade pulled Charlie on the side, and introduced to the three and said, “This is Bruce’s son, Charlie!”

Chapter 3315

The moment Lord Wade uttered the word Charlie, Corran sat back in his chair again.

The anger in his heart already made him feel a little numb.

“From the moment the old man asked the whole family to greet Charlie today, everything related to Charlie has exceeded normal standards!”

“It can be seen that the old man just wants to hold Charlie to the top...”

“For me and Jon, this is an extremely dangerous signal.”

“If we continue to develop like this, Charlie might take my place as the heir!”

At this time, the three were shocked when they heard that Charlie was Bruce Wade’s son.

Lucas Wade looked up and down at Charlie, sighing incomparably and said, “Sure enough, he looks a lot like Bruce!”

With that, he looked at Lord Wade and asked, “Big Brother, hasn’t Charlie been missing for many years?”

“When did you find him? Why didn’t you tell us earlier about such a big thing? It would make us happy too!”

Lord Wade smiled and said, “It’s been a while since I found Charlie, but Charlie’s personality is relatively low-key.”

“He has not also been in Eastcliff during this period. Today is also the first time he came back after so many years away from home.”

“So that’s it!” Lucas Wade turned to look at Charlie again, stretched out a pair of wrinkled hands, clasped Charlie tightly, and exclaimed, “Charlie, your father is the pride of the Wade family.”

“For now, those in North America's America the top families mention mentions your father’s name, but they still change their voices!”

“Since you have returned to the Wade family, you must inherit your father’s legacy and carry forward the Wade family!”

Charlie did not have any impression of this second grandfather, but he could also see that what his second grandfather said was from the bottom of his heart, so he respectfully said, “Second grandfather, rest assured, I will definitely!”

“Okay! Great!” Lucas Wade said gratifyingly, “It is really gratifying to congratulate the son of Bruce on to return to the Wade family.”

“Tomorrow’s ancestor worship ceremony, the ancestors will definitely be very pleased!”

Benedict Wade couldn’t help but sigh, “When Bruce was alive, he was the light of the Wade family.”

“Back then, all of our peers admired him so much. I hope Charlie can inherit his father’s mantle and become the next Wade family’s light!”

Lord Wade smiled and said, “I believe Charlie will definitely do it!”

After that, he said again, “Brother, you take Benedict and Carl to sit next to you for a while.”

“We had to start half an hour late today. Time is running out, so I won’t introduce the greetings one by one.”

Lucas Wade nodded and said, "Okay, big brother, let's go and sit on the side first, you continue!"

Corran was very depressed, "I, as the eldest son, didn't even have a chance to stand up and say a few words during the whole meeting."

"The old man is completely paving the way for Charlie!"

Just when Corran was resentful and intolerable, the second wave of foreign relatives who came to visit also walked in.

As before, Lord Wade only introduced Charlie to the relatives who came to visit him, and he didn't give Corran Thomas a chance to get up at all.

Chapter 3316

In half an hour, dozens of Wade family branches and more than one hundred foreign relatives who came to visit were basically finished.

Among them, the closest relatives are Lord Wade's two siblings, followed by his grandmother's cousins, the further the relationship is, the farther the relatives are.

After everyone had paid their respects, Lord Wade stood up and said loudly, "Thank you all for coming here for your hard work and traveling far and wide."

"Everyone is the descendant of the Wade family. No matter where they are located, we are the Wade family."

"The blood of our ancestors is blessed by our ancestors of the Wade family."

“Therefore, in addition to worshiping our common ancestors this time, I also hope that all the descendants of the Wade family here will be more united and carry the Wade family forward throughout the world!”

In the main hall, there was a burst of warm applause.

As the head of the Wade family, Lord Wade felt a sense of accomplishment, and said with a smile, “Everyone, nowadays, the Banks family has suffered various blows.”

“The whereabouts of the eldest son and second son are unknown, and the overall strength has already declined seriously!”

Speaking of this, Lord Wade smiled wholeheartedly, “I believe that when this year’s revenue statistics come out, our Wade family will surpass the Banks family, achieve a reversal, and become China’s first family!”

In the main hall, there was thunderous applause again.

Just as Lord Wade gave an impassioned speech, a very large motorcade was approaching vigorously.

At the beginning of the convoy, there are more than 20 pure black Rolls Royce, and there are many extended Land Rover off-road vehicles behind them.

The most shocking thing is that behind the off-road vehicle, there are twenty or thirty extended flatbed transport vehicles!

And on these flatbed trucks, each of them has several cheap and inferior coffins placed sideways!

Since the flatbed truck has no fence at all, these coffins are all fixed on the flatbed truck with big red ropes.

What's even more outrageous is that these coffins are not only fixed with big red ropes, and even on each coffin, there is also a huge red flower woven from red silk and satin!

In the Chinese funeral customs, black and white are the main ones, and yellow and purple are supplemented.

The big red is extremely taboo!

The dark coffin with red ropes and red satin flowers gives people a feeling full of weirdness.

When the Wade Family's bodyguard saw this scene, they all became alert.

Hundreds of people immediately blocked in front of the opposing team, and at the same time closed the gate of the manor tightly.

A head of the bodyguards stood up and shouted at the Rolls Royce team, "This is Wade Mansion's land! The idlers must not get close!"

"If you don't retreat, don't blame us for being rude!"

At this time, the leading Rolls-Royce stopped slowly.

Immediately, the car door opened, and the White Tiger King, Apollo Wainwright of the Dragon Temple stepped down.

The head of the Wade Family's bodyguard stepped forward and asked coldly, "Who are you? What do you want?"

Apollo Wainwright sneered and said, "Who am I? A local dog like you doesn't don't deserve to know!"

"Tell the direct members of the Wade family that the coffin prepared by our Lord has been delivered to them!"

"Let them one by one crawl out on their knees and sign for it!"

The head of the Wade Family's bodyguard suddenly became furious, and blurted out, "Presumptuous! You are so courageous! If you don't get out of the way, I'm going to kick you out!"

The head of the bodyguards of the Wade family is a three-star warrior, comparable in strength to Master Hett of the Banks family.

In the martial arts field he knows, the only four-star warrior is Wilfred Elms of the Elms family. No one else was higher than him.

And Apollo Wainwright's strength is a real six-star warrior, so the head of the Wade Family's bodyguards can't see his strength at all.

At this moment, Apollo Wainwright glared at him, his eyes were full of murderous expression and said, "You are a bitch, you are not worthy to yell in front of me!"

After that, he frowned and yelled coldly, "Die!"

As soon as the voice fell, Apollo Wainwright immediately punched the head of the Wade Family's bodyguard in the abdomen.

The speed of this punch was so fast that everyone present could not see clearly.

Almost between the electric light and flint, the head of the Wade Family's bodyguard suddenly flew out at a very fast speed.

At the same time, extremely pressured blood gushed from his mouth, drawing an arc-shaped blood mist in the air...

After flying upside down for a full tens of meters, the head of the Wade Family's bodyguards hit the gate of the Wade family Manor heavily.

His eyes were big, his face pale as paper, and his abdomen had , has been deflated, a large piece visible to the naked eye!

Immediately afterwards, he slid down from the gate like a free fall, crashed to the ground, and died miserably!

Chapter 3317

The bloody scene in front of them made all the Wade family's bodyguards struck by lightning!

Who would have thought that as soon as these people came, they would directly beat their most powerful bodyguard to death?!

What kind of terrifying power is this? !

In an instant, the more than one hundred bodyguards of the Wade family took a few steps back subconsciously, and everyone was panicked deep in their hearts!

Apollo Wainwright punched the head of the Wade family's bodyguards, his expression was still very relaxed, took out a handkerchief from his pocket, gently wiped the back of his hand, looked around, and said coldly, "Who else is not convinced, stand up!"

As soon as the words fell, the more than one hundred bodyguards of the Wade family retreated more than ten meters one after another.

When the head of the bodyguards was killed by the opponent just now, they had already lost all fighting spirit.

Seeing this group of people slowly backing again and again, Apollo Wainwright immediately took out a cigar, took a sip after lighting it, and sneered, "Listen to me, as long as you open the door and don't block my way, I will spare your dog life!"

Speaking of this, Apollo Wainwright's expression suddenly became extremely cold, pointing to at the head of the bodyguards who was dead in the distance, and sternly said, "But if anyone is like this dead dog, dare to stand in front of me and speak loudly to me..."

"...then don't blame me for being impolite!"

When everyone heard this, their expressions were even more panicked.

The opponent's strength has surpassed them by more than one rank.

If they don't know a little at this time, they will end up worse than the head of the bodyguards.

As a result, this group of people quickly opened the door, and then one by one, bowed their heads, and quickly retreated to both sides, completely letting the door of Wade Family Manor open.

Apollo Wainwright snorted disdainfully as he watched these people's movements.

In fact, he didn't want to continue with today's mess of sending coffins.

He is one of the four kings of the Dragon Temple and possesses the super strength of a six-star warrior.

As a result, he came to deal with the Wade Family's gang of bodyguards who were weak and spineless.

He was really over kill.

However, since it was the order of Wesley, he could only agree to it unconditionally.

However, seeing the strength of this group of people is so weak that it is negligible, he can't help feeling a little bored boring in his heart.

Seeing that the door had been opened, he turned and shouted to the Dragon Temple elite behind him, "Everyone will come in with me, bring the flatbed cart in, and deliver the coffins sent by our Lord to the door of the Wade family!"

A group of Dragon Temple elites immediately followed Apollo Wainwright and swaggered into the gate of Wade family Manor.

Dozens of flatbed trucks slowly moved behind, pulling more than a hundred coffins, and then entered the gate of Wade family Manor one after another.

Chapter 3318

Seeing the convoy coming in, one person in the Wade family's bodyguards hurriedly took out the walkie-talkie and blurted out, "A bunch of unidentified people have broken in!"

"They are extremely powerful! The head of the bodyguards has been taken by the opponent and punched to death!"

As soon as the voice fell, the man's forehead was pierced by a cigar flying at an extremely fast speed!

The second half of that cigar has penetrated his brain, while the first half is exposed outside his skull!

And the front end of the cigar was still lit at this time, with wisps of smoke coming out.

The guard also lost all consciousness at this moment and fell to the ground, died completely.

At this time, Apollo Wainwright took out a cigar from his pocket, and after lighting it, he shook his head and sighed, "Because of a dog, I wasted a good Cuban cigar."

"This is a d*mn beautiful Cuban cigar. It's a pity..."

At the same time, the bodyguard in front of the villa inside the manor heard the news from the walkie-talkie, and was immediately shocked.

One of them rushed into the villa quickly, preparing to report to Lord Wade.

In the main hall of the villa, Lord Wade had just received all the representatives of the Wade family's relatives.

They were sitting together, lamenting the current brilliance and achievements of the Wade family, and even beginning to imagine the situation of the Wade family's dominance after the rapid decline of the Banks family.

As the head of the Wade family, Lord Wade is naturally elated, extremely happy, and his sense of accomplishment is unprecedented.

Just when everyone was enjoying themselves, the subordinates rushed in panic and cried out, "Everyone...it's not good!"

"A large group of people broke in! They also killed the head of the bodyguards!"

At this moment, everyone in the Wade family hall was stunned!

Only Charlie, the ancient well on the surface does not wave, and deep in his heart can't help but sigh, "Dragon Temple, Dragon Temple, I waited for you all morning, and you finally came!"

"If you are not here, it's impossible to start a big show!"

At this moment, Jon blurted out subconsciously, "Who would dare to break into Wade's house and run wild?!"

"Isn't it enough to be tired of living?!"

His father, Corran also blurted out at this time, "My Wade family has been in Eastcliff for many years, and no one has ever dared to be so presumptuous!"

“Hurry up and gather everyone together!”

“I want to see who is so bold to start trouble in the Wade family Manor!”

Lord Wade’s expression was solemn, and he immediately asked, “You said that the head of the bodyguards was killed, is this true?”

The subordinate who came to report panicked and said, “Master...I don’t know about this. The bodyguard outside the manor said on the walkie-talkie...”

Corran only realized this and blurted out, “The head of the bodyguards was killed?”

“This...isn’t it possible?! He is a master of martial arts!”

Others wanted to understand this too, and all of a sudden became nervous.

Cynthia Wade asked nervously at this time, “Oh, could it be the Banks family who came to seek revenge?!”

Lord Wade said solemnly, “It’s impossible! We and the Banks family have no apparent conflicts, so even if they want revenge, they can’t enter our Wade family in broad daylight...”

Cynthia Wade stammered and asked, “Dad...then...who would it be...”

After speaking, she looked at Charlie and couldn’t help asking, “Char... Charlie... Did you offend people outside?”

Charlie chuckled and said, "I went back to the Wade family for the first time today, and apart from the Wade family, only Uncle Orrin's family knew about this."

"Even my enemies would not come here to find me."

Cynthia Wade felt that what Charlie said was reasonable.

After all, Charlie hadn't let the outside world know about his Charlie's return to the Wade family, and it was unlikely that others would find him to seek revenge.

Just when everyone was nervous, there was a roar outside, and there was a loud noise of the deflation valve when the truck braked.

Everyone in the Wade family was surprised and looked in that direction. at jt.

They all know that there must be a big battle outside, but no one knows what to do.

At this moment, Apollo Wainwright's voice came from outside, "Listen to me all the people surnamed Wade inside."

"I'm the White Tiger King, Apollo Wainwright of the Dragon Temple!"

"I'll give you 30 seconds now, one by one. Get out of here honestly!"

"Otherwise, when I rush in, I will kill you all!"

Chapter 3319

“Dragon Hall?!”

Hearing these words, Lord Wade’s younger brother Lucas Wade shook his whole body into chaff, and said in a panic, “How could it be...how could it be the Dragon Hall...”

After that, he looked at Lord Wade with trepidation and blurted out, “Big brother...you...how could you offend Dragon Hall?!”

Lord Wade didn’t know much about the Dragon Hall at first, but some time ago, there was news about the Dragon Hall in the middle east and he learned about it.

Although the Dragon Hall experienced a tragic failure in Syria some time ago, even so, the strength of the Dragon Hall cannot be underestimated.

There are tens of thousands of elite soldiers in the Dragon Hall, and all the high-level soldiers are martial arts masters.

With such strength, some small countries may not be their opponents, let alone a business family like the Wade family!

Therefore, except for Charlie, everyone present was frightened by the name of Dragon Hall and their legs became weak.

Lord Wade, who has always been calm, was also a little flustered at this moment.

He said with a blank look, "I don't remember any feasts between the Wade family and this Dragon Hall."

"My Wade family has been in business for so many years, although there are many assets overseas, but I have never been to a war-torn place to make money... and this kind of mercenary organization are completely in another world..."

Thomas Wade was also terrified, and couldn't help asking, "Dad, as a mercenary organization with tens of thousands of soldiers, why do they come to us for trouble?!"

"I don't know..." Lord Wade couldn't help asking, "Could there be any misunderstanding?"

Having said that, Lord Wade asked again, "Have any of you ever had any conflict with Dragon Hall?"

Everyone looked at each other.

They have never dealt with Dragon Hall.

Even Lucas Wade, who lives overseas all year round, has only heard more about the Dragon Hall deeds, but has never had anything to do with them.

Franklin Wade couldn't help looking at Helena next to him, and couldn't help asking, "Helena, what is the conflict between your Nordic royal family and Dragon Hall?"

Helena immediately shook her head and said, "Although I have heard of the Dragon Hall, I have never heard of the royal family having any contact with them, and in order to maintain their image in front of the people, the royal family will never interact with organizations in the gray area."

"That's really weird..." Franklin Wade said nervously, "The Dragon Hall can't come to the door for no reason, we might be targeted!"

Just when the Wade family were at a loss, Apollo Wainwright was no longer ready to give them time to think.

He shouted outside the door, "Listen to me all the people surnamed Wade! I will give you ten seconds at the end."

"If you don't come out, I'm going to kill all of you now!"

When the Wade family heard this, they were even more panicked.

Chapter 3320

Everyone looked at Lord Wade and hoped that he, the head of the family, could come up with a solution.

But Lord Wade didn't know what to do at this time.

At this moment, Charlie stood up and said lightly, "Let's go out together."

"Since the other party has already reached the door, it proves that the Wade family's bodyguards has been resolved by the other party, or all of them have turned over."

"This house is no longer available for any protection, instead of passively waiting here, it is better to go out and see what the other party wants."

When the Wade family heard this, all of them were even more panicked.

They are not martial arts masters, even if they are hiding in the villa at this time, they feel that their legs are weak, let alone let them go out to face the evil white tiger king of the Dragon Hall.

Lord Wade also felt that it was inappropriate to go out directly, so he said to Charlie, "Charlie, don't be impulsive!"

Charlie said calmly, "Since the other party can kill the head of the Wade Family's bodyguards, he will definitely be able to kill everyone who are sitting here, not to mention that he is not alone, and the others who are walking with him are probably also masters."

"If you are unwilling to go out, if he gives an order and these masters rush in, you will all be lambs to be slaughtered, and no one can run away!"

Having said that, Charlie walked towards the gate and said, "If you are afraid, follow me behind, so at least they will kill me first if they really want to."

Charlie's words made Lord Wade's heart chuckle.

Then, he said in a deep voice, "Charlie is right, the head of the bodyguards is the strongest master in Wade family."

"The opponent can easily kill him. Not to mention ordinary people like us? Is it a blessing or a curse, or a curse that cannot be avoided!"

"It is better to listen to Charlie, and go out!"

After speaking, he immediately turned around and walked out after Charlie.

At this time, the others also gave up their illusions completely, and could only follow the old man yearning to walk one after another.

Seeing this, Franklin Wade hurriedly pulled his father, and said in a low voice, “Dad, since Charlie is willing to die, let Charlie rush in front, let’s stand back!”

Thomas Wade nodded.

He didn’t want to take any risks, so he deliberately hung himself at the end of the crowd.

Everyone came out of the villa one after another, only to realize that the other party had already surrounded the entire villa.

In the huge yard, rows of flatbed trucks filled with coffins were parked neatly.

When the Wade family saw this situation, all their faces were pale in shock!

With such a thing, they have never seen anyone send more than a hundred coffins to other people’s homes.

The impact and pressure of this scene on them is really too strong!

The rest of the Wade family were shocked by this battle, but Charlie was not surprised at the battle before him.

He kept looking at the man in white, headed by the other party, because he could see that among these people, the man in white has the highest strength.

Charlie discovered that the man in white clothes was the same as Calum who had been brought to China by himself, he was a six-star warrior.

However, his strength is a bit worse than Calum's, Calum already faintly means that he is about to break through, and this white-clothed man is still in the middle stage of a six-star warrior.

As for the other people around him, their strengths are all weaker.

There are three five-star warriors, and a dozen four-star warriors, and the remaining dozens of people are almost at the level of a three-star warrior.

Charlie also had to admit that the strength of the people in Dragon Hall was indeed much stronger than the average martial arts family.

It is not easy for ordinary martial arts families to come up with a three-star martial artist.

And the three-star warriors of Dragon Hall are like f*cking dumplings, just throwing so many dumplings into the pot, they can't be cooked at once.

At this moment, when Apollo Wainwright saw that the Wade family were all panicked, he sneered and asked sharply, "Where is the head of your Wade family?!"

Lord Wade was panicked in his heart, but he could only bite the bullet and stood up and said, "I am the Wade Family Patriarch!"

Having said that, he looked at Apollo Wainwright and asked, "My Wade family have no grievances with the Dragon Hall, why did you bring so many coffins to my Wade family's villa?"

"No grievances and no enmity?" Apollo Wainwright laughed, and said, "I tell you old thing, Dragon Hall and your Wade family are not just innocent, but they don't share the same heaven!"

Having said that, he said again, "Today, I am ordered by Wesley, the lord of the Dragon Hall, to come and pass the order to your Wade family."

"You have to put your ears up to listen to every word I say next!"
