

THE BILLION-VALUE LANDS ARE JUST FOR FARMING

Chapter 1

Chapter 1 - Super Farming System Activated

“Su Ming, if you want to marry my daughter, you'll need to provide five hundred thousand as betrothal gifts.”

“Furthermore, you must buy a 150 square meter house in the Second Ring Road, and the property's owner can only be my daughter. The house should be well-decorated, and while we can live there, your parents are not allowed!”

“You must also own a car worth at least 200,000 yuan!”

“On top of that, you will be responsible for your brother-in-law's four years of college tuition and living expenses. Additionally, you will cover his wedding expenses in the future.”

Standing in the living room, Su Ming frowned upon hearing his mother-in-law's conditions. “Auntie, didn't we agree on three hundred thousand as the betrothal gift?”

“You won't accept it?”

Lee Cuihua slammed the table, her tone dripping with sarcasm, “Xue is attractive and well-educated. It's an honor for you, a countryside dweller, that she took a liking to you! Besides, she's carrying your child!”

“My son just started university, so we need a lot of money.”

“If you don't have money, you won't be able to get married. You should go back to your parents' farm!”

Lee Cuihua was aggressive.

Su Ming was seething with anger upon hearing this, but he clenched his fists and gritted his teeth, forcing himself to swallow his rage.

A month ago, Su Ming went to a bar and met Wang Xue. They had a pleasant conversation, got carried away with drinking, and woke up together in the same bed.

Later, Wang Xue said that she was pregnant.

Su Ming's parents were overjoyed upon hearing the news. They worked diligently and borrowed money, managing to gather three hundred thousand yuan to support their marriage.

A while ago, Su Ming had already covered the expenses for Lee Cuihua's house renovations and electrical appliances.

Today, he came officially to propose marriage. Originally, they agreed amount was three hundred thousand yuan. However, they unexpectedly increased the price to five hundred thousand yuan and introduced several additional conditions!

Su Ming explained, "I have already paid for the renovation of your house and the household appliances. I truly don't have any extra money. Nevertheless, I promise to work hard to earn more in the future."

"Impossible!"

Lee Cuihua displayed a disgusted expression and rolled her eyes. "Is it just because our home renovation cost over a hundred thousand yuan? The son-in-law from the Old Su family next door went ahead and bought a house worth over a million yuan for his mother-in-law. Don't you feel embarrassed in comparison?"

Su Ming was at a loss for words.

She didn't seem to have this attitude when he paid for the refrigerator, color TV, and air conditioner, did she?

At that time, she affectionately called him son-in-law.

“Xue...”

Su Ming looked at Wang Xue for help.

“Don't look at me.”

Wang Xue lowered her head, engrossed in her phone. “I'm a girl, so I should listen to my mother. Whatever she says is true.”

After Wang Xue finished speaking, she sneered in her heart.

If she hadn't accidentally become pregnant last month while out with friends and now desperately needed a father for the child in her belly, she would never willingly marry Su Ming.

Su Ming clenched his fists and teeth.

“Su Ming, I have no other choice. My brother is getting married soon, and he needs at least 500,000 yuan. This is for his future marriage.”

Wang Xue continued, “This price is very fair to you.”

“Detected that Lee Cuihua and Wang Xue are looking down on farmers. Activating the farm system. The system will provide you with five million in cash!”

“Activate mission.”
