

When She Stops Playing Nice Chapter 101

Chapter 101

Gabriel replied indifferently.

Felix immediately retracted his fawning smile and became more serious. "Mr. Jackson, my wife was so angry that she went into the operating theater because of what Miss Miller said. I know that Miss Miller has a deep relationship with you, but I can't just watch my wife suffer! Also, Miss Miller, aren't you Aria's friend? No matter what, Yolanda is Aria's mother."

Perhaps because he felt guilty, Felix added to himself, "Although their relationship isn't very good, they're still a family. Do you think it's appropriate for you to hurt Aria's family like this?"

Gina felt that everything she said before was like playing the lute to a cow.

Felix suddenly thought of something and said in shock, "Could it be that Aria asked you to anger my wife like this? Miss Miller, no matter how loyal friends are, you can't do such a wicked thing, right?"

Gina frowned. She really did not expect Felix to think so badly of Aria. They were biological father and daughter, right?

However, on second thought, Gina thought of her so-called family and felt relieved.

"It has nothing to do with Aria, Gina said solemnly.

Felix was a little flustered by Gina's cold and sharp gaze, but he was still chattering. "In short, if anything happens to my wife and child, Miss Miller, you have to take responsibility!"

Gina did not say anything. She was waiting for the results of the surgery. She followed them to the hospital because she could not leave them in the lurch. If there was an accident, she could help.

Soon, the chief surgeon, Dr. Leon, walked out.

He was also the main doctor during Yolanda's pregnancy. Every time Felix brought Yolanda to Oriata City for a pregnancy test, he would come to look for him.

“Dr. Leon, how’s my son?” Felix looked very anxious.

Dr. Leon looked very regretful and said, “Mr. Torres, it’s a pity that the child couldn’t be saved!”

Felix looked like he had been drained of all his strength and wailed, “My son!”

Dr. Leon comforted him. “Mr. Torres, don’t be sad. There will be more children in the future!”

Felix seemed to be talking to Gina. “Didn’t you say that the fetus was stable every time we checked?”

Dr. Leon glanced at Gina, who was standing behind Felix. A glint flashed across his eyes as he continued, “Mrs. Torres has suffered a serious blow.”

With Dr. Leon’s meaningful and pointed words, Felix immediately pointed at Gina. “Miss Miller, what do you think we should do? I’ve lost my son! Mr. Jackson, you can’t protect Miss Miller indiscriminately, right? However, if you want to take responsibility for Miss Miller, that’s fine.”

Gabriel frowned. He felt that Felix’s change of topic was too stiff, so he took the opportunity to ask, “How do you want me to take responsibility?”

Felix, who had been crying his eyes out just now over the loss of his son, suddenly restrained all his sadness. He was like a face-changing master.

82%

Since you’ve said so, I’ll be frank! I want the Jackson Group to give 30% of the profits for all the projects it cooperates with the Torres Group”

Gina was surprised for a moment, then sneered. So the responsibility that Felix wanted was to take advantage of the Jackson Group!

“Mr. Jackson, can’t you agree? You’re the one who asked me how I wanted to resolve this, aren’t you?” Felix was a little anxious when faced with Gabriel’s silence.

Gabriel did not say anything because he was also quite speechless with Felix. Putting everything else aside, not only did Felix not care much about his wife, but he also did not care much about his son. What he cared about was only his own interests.

Gina did not want to waste time with Felix. She looked directly at Dr. Leon. "So, the thing in her stomach has been removed?"

Dr. Leon was stunned. Why was she talking about the child like it was a thing?

Could it be that Gina knew something?

Impossible!

Dr. Leon immediately denied his guess.

What could a little girl know?

Dr. Leon cleared his throat. "It's a mature boy. It has been removed."

"I want to take a look," Gina said.

Dr. Leon's eyes widened. "Miss, you're not a family member. Besides, there's nothing to see about a dead baby. I'm afraid you'll be traumatized if you see it. By the way, Mr. Torres, you don't want to see it either, right?"

"I don't want to."

Felix probably did not dare to look at a child who had just taken shape.

His intuition told him that there was something wrong with Dr. Leon.

Gina decided to find out what was going on with the tumor in Yolanda's stomach.

"I have to go in and take a look."

Ca insisted.

Dr. Leon was a little flustered. "No, young lady, why are you so ridiculous? What do you want to see? Mr. Torres, what's going

Felix looked as if he was immersed in sorrow. "Miss Miller, what are you trying to do? My son has already been killed by you! Do you still want to take a look and confirm if he's dead? I don't care. You have to give me an explanation today. Mr. Jackson, can you agree to the conditions I mentioned just now?"

Gabriel lowered his eyes slightly. He knew that Ca had her reasons for doing things. Hence, he said, "Let Gina go in and take a look. I'll give you an answer."

Felix was stunned. He could not fight Gabriel head-on. It was not easy for him to catch Gabriel's "wrong" side because of Gina. He had to seize the opportunity.

Felix thought for a moment and asked Gina to go in and take a look. It was fine. She did not find it disgusting, but she insisted on going in to take a look. What a weirdo!

Felix nodded. "Alright, you can take a look if you want."

This time, it was Dr. Leon's turn to stop Gina. "Miss, how can you enter the operating theater casually? Stop joking."

"What are you afraid of?"

Gina narrowed her sharp eyes.

The more abnormal Dr. Leon's reaction was, the more certain Gina was that he was guilty.

Dr. Leon gulped. "You're deliberately causing trouble and affecting the order of the hospital. Do you understand?"

The family members have agreed to let me in to take a look. Why are you stopping me?" Gina asked again.

Dr. Leon was defeated. His eyes flickered. 'Alright, alright, alright. Go in and take a look. It's disgusting. I don't care!'

Gina ignored Dr. Leon and entered the operating theater. Soon, she saw a round thing covered by a white cloth on a tray. It was not very big. She put on gloves and lifted the white cloth. The surrounding medical staff wanted to stop her, but it was too late. There was a by tumor on the tray.

Indeed.' Gina thought.

Gina's eyes darkened.

They said she was nothing...Gina Miller was found by her biological family when she was nineteen. She had expected a grand reunion and being showered by love. However, her parents and brothers looked down on her lowly upbringing and country manners and instead loved the daughter they adopted when Gina went missing. After much disappointment, Gina left and never looked back.He had everything but was dying... Gabriel Jackson was rich, successful, and handsome. He had everything others wanted and more. Too bad he was ill and was predicted to die before thirty. His father wanted to set him up with someone, but Gabriel was afraid of being a burden to her. Besides, Gabriel had his sights set on someone already. But she was more than she seemed... Gina didn't want to play nice anymore. No longer hiding herself, her various identities were revealed one by one. She was a multi-billionaire, superb doctor, top hacker, and renowned designer. The powerful respected her. Those who once disdained her were deeply regretful. After Gabriel took her side multiple times, Gina could tell he was interested in her. But Gina didn't remember that their paths had crossed many years ago...

Chapter 102

When the weak Yolanda saw Gina, she became agitated. "You bh, why did you barge in? My child is gone because of you." When the medical staff in the operating theater saw how agitated Yolanda was, they were worried that her wound would tear. "Mrs. Torres, calm down!" Yolanda's eyes were filled with hatred. Gina's expression was calm. From your pregnancy to your prenatal checkup. Dr. Leon took over? You didn't see any other doctors?" Yolanda was not in the mood to answer Gina's question. "B h, I'm going to fight you to the death!"

Gina was still trying to communicate with her. "You might have been deceived by him! I told you, you weren't pregnant. It wasn't a child."

"I don't believe you. Do you think I'll believe your nonsense?" Yolanda's eyes widened. "Where's my child? Let me child!"

The nurse said worriedly, "Mrs. Torres, why don't you wait until your health is better before you take a look? I'm afraid it's not appropriate to take a look now."

"I want to see it now!"

The effects of the anesthesia were fading. Although Yolanda was weak, she was shouting at the top of her lungs.

It could not be helped. With Yolanda's persistence, the medical staff showed the tumor to Yolanda. It was the size of a fist, but when it was in her stomach, it was very obvious. When Yolanda saw this, she was stunned.

"Do you think a grown baby looks like this?" Gina asked

Yolanda could not accept reality, but she had to admit that the thing in front of her could not be called human.

It looked a little terrifying.

"No, this isn't my child. Where's my child? Where did you hide my son? How did this happen? Where's my child?"

Gina frowned. "If you want to understand the situation, answer my question."

Because she was too agitated, Yolanda's wound hurt a little. She had exhausted all her strength from crying just now, and now she looked like she was on the verge of death.

"It's him. From the beginning to the end, I came to him for a checkup"

Gina asked again, "Then how did you get pregnant with this so-called child?"

"How else can I get pregnant?"

Yolanda flew into a rage out of humiliation. Why was Gina still asking her such a private question?

Gina was speechless. "You have an infertile constitution. When you get pregnant, you don't use external help? For example, test tubes?"

Yolanda was surprised. "How did you know?"

41:04 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 1027

"Could it be that Aria told you?"

Did this wretched girl really tell everything to outsiders?

No, Aria did not know about this either!

Yolanda thought again.

C i n a said calmly, "I can tell."

Yolanda was stunned.

I drank the prescription Dr. Leon gave me. I drank it for a month and got pregnant."

There was something very wrong with Dr. Leon

Gina did not want to help Yolanda out of kindness. It was just that she had revealed some clues about this matter. Gina could not tolerate people who were called doctors but did dirty things.

Gina glanced at Yolanda and explained calmly, "Your so-called pregnancy is just the accumulation of water in your stomach and the tumor expanding your body. You weren't pregnant at all. During the pregnancy, didn't you realize that you were weak and thin? Your stomach was getting bigger day by day, and your body was getting weaker. You even had frequent abdominal pains, right?"

After Gina said that, Yolanda felt that everything was right. As for the abdominal pain, she had thought that it was a fetal movement,

"Think about it yourself. Have you been deceived?"

Gina turned and walked out of the ward.

Feli immediately came up to her. "Miss Miller, can you give me an explanation now?"

"Where's Dr. Leon?"

Gina glanced around.

"Dr. Leon? Dr. Leon has returned to the department to rest.

"Go find him."

Gina's expression was solemn.

Felix was still in a daze. He hurriedly followed behind Gina and stared at Gina's back. It was as if he was afraid that she would escape responsibility.

In the next second, Felix felt a chill run down his spine. He turned around and saw Gabriel's eyes that were so cold that they could freeze someone to death. When they landed on his body, they were like countless icicles that wanted to pierce his body. Felix subconsciously retracted his gaze and did not dare to stare at Gina anymore. When they arrived at Dr. Leon's office, they looked around, but there was no sign of him.

He escaped, Gina concluded.

Chapter 102

Obviously, Dr. Leon also knew that he could not hide what he had done anymore, so he ran away guiltily.

He had escaped.

"Why would Dr. Leon run away for no reason?"

Felix was stunned.

“Ask your wife for specifics. As I said, she wasn’t carrying a child.”

Gina could not help but emphasize it again.

We can’t let him get away!”

Gina Miller did not want to see other victims!

Gina subconsciously took out her phone to call Michael. It was time for him to work.

Gabriel said. “Gina, I’ll send someone to look for him immediately.”

This time. Gina did not reject Gabriel’s good intentions. “Okay,”

Soon. Gabriel sent someone to intercept Dr. Leon, who was trying to escape from the city, on the highway.

Dr. Leon was taken back to the hospital.

Back in his office.

Gina looked at Dr. Leon and said, “You gave it to Yolanda. Did you develop the prescription that can make people pregnant. after drinking it?”

Dr. Leon pulled a long face and said stubbornly, ‘No comment!’

“How many people have you introduced to this remedy? How many victims have you listed?”

Dr. Leon shut up and refused to answer. He even pretended to be stupid. “I don’t understand what you’re saying!”

Gina’s face was cold. “Answer my question properly, or else!”

“Or else what? You’re still threatening me? Do you believe that I’ll call the police? I just got out of the operating theater and. was about to go home to rest when you suddenly arrested me. What are you doing? Kidnapping? It’s very tiring to undergo surgery!

Gina frowned.

Gabriel said, “Gina, leave him to me. I promise I can pry open his mouth.”

Dr. Leon was stunned. What did this mean?

He felt like Gabriel was going to force a confession out of him.

Dr. Leon panicked, but he was still stubborn. “I won’t give in! I won’t tell you what you want to know!”

If he did, he might lose his life.

11:04 Thu, 23 May –

Chapter 102

“Yeah, sure.”

O

Gina nodded. Gabriel felt that school had reopened because Gina had accepted his help. This meant that Gina was slowly accepting him in her heart.

As long as he persevered, he would be able to integrate into Gina’s circle and become her reliable partner!

Two burly men in suits entered the room. Dr. Leon was trembling with fear. “What do you want? Hit me? You’re breaking the law I’m calling the police”

Gabriel’s expression was indifferent. “Who said I was going to hit you?”

Chapter 103

Then what do you want to do to me?”

Dr. Leon asked in a panic.

Gabriel ignored Dr. Leon.

The burly man holding Dr. Leon sneered. "You'll know when you come with us!"
"Help, help!"

The burly man covered Dr. Leon's mouth mercilessly.

Gina glanced at Dr. Leon, who was almost dragged away. He asked Gabriel, "Are you really not going to hit anyone?"

Gabriel laughed. "No, we're in a civilized society now, and I'm not a gangster."

Gina changed the topic. "However, even if he was beaten, he deserved it. He did something wrong and should pay the price."

Gabriel smiled. "Then I'll instruct my subordinates to beat him up.

"No need" Gina shook her head and added, "It's not time yet."

On the other side, because Gina had been emphasizing that his wife was not pregnant with a child, Felix went to take a look. After taking a look, he was disgusted.

The thing in Yolanda's stomach was actually a tumor?

Did that mean that Yolanda had been lying to him previously? She had even lied to him, saying that she was pregnant with a son.

Felix felt like he was being treated as a resentful seed. He immediately flew into a rage out of humiliation.

He went straight to Yolanda's ward and questioned her.

"Is this what you meant when you said that you were pregnant with my child? That lump of r bh, actually dared to lie to me?"

Felix was furious.

flesh is our son? You, this

Ignoring the fact that Yolanda had just finished her surgery, he slapped her face.

Yolanda said in shock and fear, "Felix, I was also deceived. I was deceived by Dr. Leon!"

Gina walked into the ward. "Dr. Leon has been arrested. We'll know the truth when he relents."

Gina came over to inform Yolanda. After all, Yolanda was the victim.

Gina felt that Yolanda was probably just one of the victims.

Yolanda was extremely embarrassed. She did not know how to face Gina.

Felix did not dare to be righteous anymore. "Miss Miller, so it was all a misunderstanding. You and Mr. Jackson can pretend that I was just spouting nonsense."

Chapter 103

Ca did not have the time or energy to care about Felix. She only glanced at him indifferently before leaving. A few days later. Gina received Aria's WhatsApp message. "Gina, today is the award ceremony for the National Higher Education Design League Contest. Do you have time?" Gina remembered that she had promised Aria that she would go with her. She quickly replied: [Yes, I've got time.] The two of them met up and headed to the awards venue. On the other side, Olivia was also accompanied by Ella. She could not accept the fact that she did not have a ranking. Moreover, after she and her family flaunted it everywhere, this result was announced and ruthlessly slapped their faces. It was too embarrassing. At the entrance of the venue. Ella saw Gina. "Isn't that the Torres family's daughter?" Ella was a little surprised. She was very surprised to see Aria hugging Gina so intimately. That wretched girl used to be in the Miller family. She always had a bitter expression on her face and did not have many friends. Now, she could actually make friends with the Torres family's daughter? Olivia said sarcastically, "Gina took away the family's shares and money. Now, she has the money to befriend the socialites in the circle." Ella's expression was a little ugly. Why did she not see that Gina had such a brain in the past? She knew how to make friends and expand her family's connections. She must have been pretending! Gina did not know how to contribute to the family at home. How could she have such a despicable daughter? Ella was very angry. "Ella, let's go in." "Alright" Ella tried her best to calm down. Upon entering the venue, Gina received Caleb's WhatsApp message. Caleb: [Am I seeing things?! Ca, you're here? I didn't recognize the wrong person, right? I'm getting old, and my eyesight isn't good anymore! What brings you here?]

Gina replied: [I'm accompanying a friend to receive the award.]

11:04 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 103

Caleb: El see. I haven't seen you in a long time!!

Caleb sighed.

Gina: [Where are you?]

Caleb quickly replied: I'm resting backstage!

Gina: [I'll go over and see you.]

Caleb (Good, good!) Caleb was filled with joy.

Gina said to Aria, "I'm going to see an old friend. See you later."

"Alright." Aria smiled and nodded.

When she came backstage, Gina saw Caleb and many other judges from the league.

However, many of the judges did not know Gina's identity.

"Gina!" Caleb was a little excited.

"Caleb Gina greeted politely.

"How have you been? Do you have time to have a meal with an old man like me?"

"Later."

"That's great!" Caleb said happily.

At the same time, Olivia and Ella ignored the staff and went backstage.

Olivia did not expect to meet Gina backstage. Furthermore, Gina was still chatting with one of the judges, Caleb.

They seemed to be chatting happily?

Olivia was stunned for a moment before she thought of a possibility.

"Ella, look, Gina is chatting with one of the judges! I suspect that Gina was the one who caused me to lose my award. I don't know what method she used, but it can't be

Olivia looked like she could not continue.

Ella naturally understood what Olivia meant.

This wretched girl, Gina! Was she shameless? She was fooling around with a man in his seventies or eighties?

Ella could not take it anymore. She went forward and shouted, "Gina Miller!"

Gina turned around and looked at Ella. Ella looked at her as if she was her enemy.

Gina glanced at Ella coldly and ignored her.

However, Ella was agitated. "You were the one who ruined Olivia's award, right? You hd up with the judges and made them choose again? You removed Olivia from the list?"

11:04 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 103

Caleb's expression turned ugly. He said to Ella, "I see that you're already so old. Don't you understand that you can't talk nonsense?"

Ella looked fearless. "Why? Are you feeling guilty now that I've exposed you? If I hadn't come today, I wouldn't have known about this! Gina, you're really good at playing tricks! How can I have an ingrate daughter like you?"

Caleb was a little shocked. This shrew in front of him was actually Gina's biological mother!

It was no wonder. He knew that after Gina acknowledged her family, she did not mention them much. When he asked about her family again, Gina told him that she no longer had anything to do with the Miller family.

"Do you dare to admit that you were the one who caused Olivia to lose her award? Say something!"

Ella panted heavily, looking like he was about to tear Gina apart.

Gina replied nonchalantly, "Yes"

SEND GIFT

Chapter 104

Ella was stunned. She did not expect Gina to be so honest.

Olivia also cried immediately. "Gina, how could you do such a thing? Are you willing to sell your body to take revenge on me

Olivia deliberately said the second half of the sentence very loudly.

"Your Caleb had lived for a long time. Being slandered like this made him so angry.

Olivia was secretly pleased with herself. Looking at the expressions of the people around her, she knew that it was impossible for Gina to explain herself

However, Olivia did not think that she was spreading rumors,

Gina was so familiar with the judges of the league that she could use this relationship to destroy Olivia's award. Other than selling her body, what other methods could they use?

There was no panic on Gina's cold face. She looked at the two of them and said, "It seems that after the engagement is annulled, the two of you will still be as close as mother and daughter."

She gradually tore apart Olivia's layers of disguise, but Ella still did not give up on hating Gina. It was within Gina's expectations, and she even felt that it was a little ridiculous.

Come to think of it, Olivia had probably done something to remedy her relationship with the Miller family. There was no need to investigate to guess that it was Gina.

Olivia was stunned. Gina actually had the mood to mock her?

Without waiting for Olivia to speak, Ella said, "What nonsense are you talking about?

What do you mean by we are as close part of the as mother and daughter? We are mother and daughter! All these years, Olivia has always remembered that she is Miller family!"

“Remember, Dale Group is withdrawing investment from the Miller Group. Olivia has been tirelessly working day and night, gaining recognition from the president of Dale Group. It was all because of you that the award was withdrawn! What about you, Gina? What did you do for the Miller family? On the contrary, you messed up everything for the Miller family!” Ella vented all the unwillingness and resentment she had accumulated in her heart toward Gina.

Dale Group canceled the withdrawal of investment?

Out of Ella’s meaningless tirade, Gina only cared about this sentence.

How was this possible?

Ella was still venting her anger. “Olivia’s design talent can convince the president of Dale Group. You’re colluding with the judges now. You used such a despicable method and caused Olivia to lose her award. Do you still have any shame?”

Gina looked coldly at the enraged Ella. “Are you done? It’s my turn to speak

“Olivia doesn’t deserve the award at all. Her work was made by plagiarizing. It’s only right for her to be disqualified from the award. As for me, I made the final judgment through the proper selection method, not what you’re making wild guesses. Don’t think that others are like you just because you’re useless and can only use your body to exchange for what you want. Or is your mind so lacking that you can’t think of any other possibilities other than selling your body? However, the biggest possibility is that you just want to slander me without caring about anything. This is your best and lowest-level method”

11:04 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 104

Ci a looked at Olivia and said word by word.

After all, this kind of rumor making was low-cost but lethal. It was also the public’s favorite gossip.

Gina said to Ella, “You’ve seen her exciting private life on the day of the engagement banquet. You should know what she once described to you. She was the one who experienced my messy private life. Even now, you can still believe her nonsense. How stupid.

Ella was fous. “What right do you have to educate me? You b a s t a r d! You’re judging? What nonsense are you talking about? What right do you have to judge? Why? Are you one of the judges?”

“Yes, I’m one of the judges, Gina answered firmly.

In an instant, the surrounding people who had been whispering were stunned, You’re one of the judges?

Olivia was in disbelief.

“If you say you are, then you are?” Ella refused to believe it.

Gina calmly took out her judge’s name tag.

All along, she had been acting as the judge of various leagues with an anonymous and mysterious identity. Every judge had their own name tag.

“Could she be the final judge who hasn’t appeared?”

“So young?”

The judges, who had been watching silently, were shocked.

“Impossible, this can’t be true!”

Ella could not accept this fact.

How could Gina, whom she despised for growing up in the countryside, be the highest-ranking judge in the league?

Gina did not want to waste her breath. There was a chip in the center of the brand name that could unlock the password of the selection system and enter the system to participate in the selection.

Although she rarely used the selection system, this was also a way to prove that she was one of the judges.

Gina did not waste any time. She got someone to bring over a laptop and let the computer scan the name tags in front of everyone to unlock the selection system.

The computer screen clearly displayed, "Authentication successful! Gina, welcome to the selection system!"

Olivia was stunned. Her lips trembled slightly and she was so shocked that she could not say a word for a long time.

How could this country bumpkin be a judge?

"Your work is just the work of the chief designer of Quaria. It was dissected and pieced together. I've already listed where you plagiarized it. Do you want to take a look?"

Mayor

Gina opened a document stored in the ju

Chapter 105

"No, it's all a misunderstanding. I'm sorry. My daughter misspoke just now. She's still young"

Ella tried to appease Caleb's anger with such a nonchalant apology,

Caleb palled a long face. "Still young? Can an adult in her twenties still be called a child? An adult should be responsible for her words and actions. Moreover, not only did she slander me, but she also slandered Gina. Isn't Gina about the same age as her? It's useless to say anything more. See you in court!"

After Caleb finished speaking, he had no intention of continuing to communicate with Ella.

Olivia's legs went weak as she admitted defeat. "Gina. I'm sorry. You're right. I was jealous that you could have a good chat with the judges, so I slandered you. I know I was wrong. Can you persuade Caleb not to be angry with me?"

Olivia was really scared. She knelt on the ground and confessed for the first time, "Everything that happened in the past was my fault. I tried to take something that belonged to you Gina, I'm willing to return everything that originally belonged to you to you!"

Gina sneered. Give it back to her?

She no longer cared!

"Gina, please!"

Olivia cried.

"Do I have to agree to your request? If you want to beg, go ahead!"

Gina mocked.

Ella felt humiliated and ashamed. She could not shamelessly plead with Caleb.

She turned around and left.

Olivia was stunned for a moment before she followed her in a panic. "Ella! Ella!" Caleb was furious. He took a deep breath and sighed. "Gina, with such a family, you must have suffered a lot the year you acknowledged your family, right?"

Caleb was secretly glad that Gina had soberly chosen to sever ties with them.

"It's all over now," Gina said lightly.

She was not someone who liked to reminisce about the past. Moreover, they were all unpleasant memories. Naturally, she should not take them to heart.

"Gina, I'm going to contact a lawyer. We'll talk about dinner next time."

"Alright" Gina could understand Caleb's current mood. He must have been speechless and angry. At his age, he had almost lost his integrity because of such unbearable rumors. It was completely understandable that Caleb was so angry that he was not in the mood to eat.

Gina left to look for Aria.

The award ceremony began.

Gina sat below the stage and watched the host announce the winners. Aria went on stage to receive the award. After receiving the award, she held the trophy and sat back beside Gina to share her joy

Suddenly, an untimely yet familiar voice sounded. "First place, your work isn't that good either?"

Gina looked up and saw Jasmine.

Jasmine originally came for Aria, but when she saw Gina, her anger began to shift to Gina. "Why are you here? Gina, you're really persistent. Or did you deliberately come to make things difficult for me? Did you know I was here, so you came over?"

"You're thinking too much, Gina said indifferently.

Jasmine was unconvinced. "I don't care why you're here. Get out of here right now!"

Aria could not stand it anymore. "Miss Bush, please be polite to my friend!"

Jasmine glanced at Aria and sneered. "Do you think you have the right to speak here? Who do you think the Torres family is? Why don't you think about what you're capable of? How dare you shout at me? If you help this bh again, I'll make you get out of here!"

Gina looked at Jasmine coldly. "What right do you have to ask us to get out?"

"I'm too qualified! The Bush family has sponsored the funds for the league tournament!"

Jasmine said proudly,

"That's it?" Gina chuckled.

"That's it?" Jasmine was displeased. "Security? Where's the security?"

The security guard was quickly called over.

Jasmine pointed at Gina and said, "Now, kick her out immediately!"

The security guard was dumbfounded. Why would he need to kick someone out all of a sudden?

"Miss, what happened? Can't we talk things out?"

"Our Bush family is one of the sponsors of the league. If you don't chase her away, you'll offend me, our Bush family, and one of the sponsors of the league. Have you thought it through?"

The security guard was speechless. He was really under a lot of pressure!

The security guard had no choice. He was just an employee. He could only brace himself and discuss with Gina. "Miss, why don't you leave?"

The security guard hoped that Gina would understand his difficulties. After all, the unreasonable party was rich and powerful

"You're the one who should go out!"

Caleb was originally at the judges' table, but because of Jasmine's unreasonable behavior, everyone's attention shifted to Gina. Caleb also came over to see what was going on.

Jasmine turned around and saw Caleb. She immediately restrained her arrogance because she knew that Caleb was the most experienced among the judges. He was also one of the internationally renowned designers who had won an international award

It was rumored that Quaria's chief designer was once a student under him.

"Caleb, why do I have to get out? I admit that I've disrupted the order of the scene, but the Bush family is one of the sponsors of the league tournament!" Jasmine gulped.

Caleb said mercilessly, "This is also the first time your Bush family has come to sponsor this year. Don't you know what the purpose is! Your family wants to use the sponsorship to ensure that you can get a good ranking in the competition. They didn't succeed in bribing you, but they don't want others to think that your family is anxious and didn't withdraw their investment because they didn't want to be angry. If the Bush family wants to withdraw their investment, they can do it at any time! The league has never lacked the Bush family's sponsorship money!"

Jasmine bit her lip. She never expected Caleb to not show her some respect, 'Caleb, let's not talk about anything else for now. Why are you protecting her?"

Im not protecting you. You're the one who doesn't have the right to kick Gina out."

"Why wouldn't I be qualified?" Jasmine was furious.

"Because she's the final judge of the league!"

Gina was the largest sponsor of the league fund.

Before Caleb could finish his sentence, Gina interrupted him. "Caleb, there's no need to explain so much to her."

Caleb paused. He understood that he was a little too agitated just now. Gina did not like her private matters to be known by too many people. He almost let it slip.

Jasmine was shocked, "She's the final judge?"

"Yes," Caleb replied with a dark expression.

Jasmine found it hard to accept this reality.

What right did this country bumpkin have? Besides, all the judges in the league had resounding qualifications. She was Gina. What could she have?

Chapter 106

Although Jasmine was bossy, she was not brainless enough to think that Caleb was lying in public.

She quickly thought of something and changed the topic. "Gina, so you're the judge. I was wondering why my family found out that I was ranked second. In the end, when I received the award, I was third. It's because you have a good relationship with Aria. She was originally third, but you actually raised her to first place. Do you think a person like you who plays favorites is worthy of being a judge?"

Aria was stunned. She did not expect Jasmine to be able to sow discord. "Jasmine, stop spouting nonsense. Before this, I didn't even know Gina was a judge. She didn't reveal her identity to me either. There's no such thing as covering up for personal gain!"

"She didn't reveal her identity, so she didn't play favorites? Perhaps she did this for you silently? After all, you two are good friends, right?"

Jasmine deliberately emphasized the word 'good friend.

"So you think I played favorites and gave Aria the first place that should have been yours?"

"Yes," Jasmine replied confidently.

Gina sneered contemptuously. "If I want to be biased, do you think you can still get an award? I'll just remove you from the list. You won't even get third place. For Aria's designs, public opinion is superior to yours in terms of completion, creativity, and design concept. Getting first place is the result she deserves. Especially when it comes to creativity. You don't have Aria's bold innovation. You're following the established trends of the fashion industry, and that's where you're losing.

After Gina finished speaking, the judges who had gathered around to watch the show chimed in. Indeed, Aria's work is more creative!"

Jasmine felt extremely embarrassed. No one was on her side.

"Miss Bush, if the Bush family wants to withdraw their sponsorship, you're welcome anytime!" Caleb said coldly.

"There's no such thing. The Bush family won't withdraw the sponsorship. I'm sorry, my insensible sister made a fool of herself and made a fool of herself"

Jabari appeared in everyone's line of sight.

Hannah was the one who asked Jabari to pick up Jasmine, who had just received her award, and bring her home. Jabari did not expect to see his younger sister causing trouble after he arrived. He also had a headache.

"Jabari." Jasmine hid behind Jabari, feeling wronged.

Jabari looked at Gina. "Miss Miller, I'm sorry. My sister has offended you. I apologize on her behalf."

Jabari, don't apologize to her!"

Jasmine was unconvinced

"Shut up. Haven't you embarrassed yourself enough?" Jabari frowned and said to Jasmine.

Seeing that Jabari was not biased towards her, Jasmine stomped her feet in anger.

Apologize to Miss Miller, Jabari demanded.

Chapter 106

"I won't, I refuse! If I don't apologize, what can you do to me?" Jasmine was determined to be stubborn.

Jabari was also furious.

Gina said coldly. "An insincere apology is unnecessary and useless. I only hope that Mr. Bush can discipline your sister well- and let her not provoke me. If Mr. Bush or an elder of the Bush family can't educate Miss Bush well, I don't mind helping."

When Jabari heard Gina's words, he felt a little uncomfortable and frowned slightly. However, it was his sister who had offended Gina first, so he could not say anything to refute.

"Alright, I'll discipline my sister well."

Jabari, what are you afraid of? You should teach her a lesson! You should stand up for me. Otherwise, what's the use of having a brother like you?"

Jasmine gave up.

Jabari was speechless. He grabbed Jasmine's arm and said, "The award ceremony is over. Come home with me!"

"Gina, just you wait. I won't apologise!"

Jabari covered Jasmine's mouth in disgust and used the simplest and crudest method to shut her up.

After Jasmine was taken away, the venue returned to normal.

The award ceremony was also announced to be over half an hour later.

After dispersing, Gina and Aria walked out of the venue. Aria was a little excited. "Can I ask you a question?"

Gina nodded. "Go ahead:

Aria said, "Actually, you're the mysterious chief designer of Quaria, right?"

It was rumored that Quaria's designer would be participating in the selection of the league. No one knew the true identity of the chief designer. Aria had always wanted to meet her idol.

Hence, Aria had previously studied the information of the judges of this league.

According to the public information of the judges, Aria ruled out all possibilities. None of these people was the chief designer.

The only thing left was that the undisclosed final selection might be Quaria's chief designer

"You're investigating me?"

Gina was a little surprised

Aria quickly explained. "No, I'm not investigating you behind your back!"

Aria explained how she had gathered clues and deduced that Gina was her idol!

When Gina heard Arish

Chapter 106

Gina had always concealed her other identities very well.

Naturally, her identity could not be easily exposed because it was very likely to attract trouble.

"Idol! You're my idol! Oh my g*d, I've become good friends with my idol! I'm so happy. I'm even happier than getting first place. Gina, can you write your signature on this trophy?"

Aria had wanted it for a long time!

Gina was naturally happy to help with such a small matter. "Okay!

Then, she signed her name on the trophy.

"Whether I'm a judge or a designer, I hope you can keep it a secret.

Aria nodded vigorously. "Alright, alright, I will

Aria used to look at Gina and feel that she had a clear temperament. She felt that Gina was definitely extraordinary.

Aria was taken home by the Torres family to celebrate. Gina was also preparing to return to her apartment to rest. Halfway through, she received a call from Gabriel.

Gabriel said, "Dr. Leon relented. He admitted that he was working for someone. He had an accomplice. Moreover, their group formed an industrial chain specializing in swindling. Moreover, their goal is basically middle-aged rural women who want to give birth to a boy. This is because such women are uncultured and superstitious. They are easy to deceive."

Then why did Dr. Leon target Yolanda back then?"

Gina was curious.

"Yolanda is also from the countryside. However, after getting together with Felix, her temperament and image changed. The fact that her mind is empty and she's easily deceived can't be changed. It's also because of Dr. Leon's insufficient greed. He wants to earn, or rather, he wants to cheat a lot of money."

Chapter 107

Whatever Dr. Leon said, Yolanda believed. He said that when things couldn't be covered up, he would lie to her that it was an accidental miscarriage. Dr. Leon's so-called leader holds a position in the Prover Hospital, Gabriel said.

Gina's pupils constricted.

Prover Hospital. Who?"

"The obstetrician, Zach Presley,

Gina's expression turned cold.

7 got it."

She would deal with Zach.

Gabriel also knew that Gina wanted to investigate this matter and uproot the sm hidden among the doctors.

"Gina, shall I help you deal with those small fries?" Gabriel asked tentatively. He wanted to help Gina, but he was worried that Gina would mind. so he had to ask for her opinion.

"Okay, thank you.

"If you're really thankful, just spend more time with me."

Gabriel chuckled softly.

Gina thought that Gabriel would say something like, "Don't stand on ceremony with me."

Gina had a feeling that Gabriel was pushing his luck.

However, Gina did not find it annoying.

"Yeah.

Gina agreed.

"By the way, Gina, there's something I've been wanting to tell you."

Tell me."

"It's about the fire in Trowell University's dormitory building. I asked the principal to investigate in detail and found some clues. The person who set the fire was a woman. She wrapped herself up very tightly and her whereabouts were unknown after she left school. I asked David to check the city's surveillance cameras carefully and did not find any traces of this woman. C i n a, do you have any suspects?"

Because there had been no progress in the clues, Gabriel chose to ask Gina.

Gina's first reaction was to wonder if Olivia's lackeys were up to no good, but Olivia's lackeys were all in jail. Besides, if it was just Olivia's lackeys playing tricks, it was impossible for Gabriel not to find out.

C i n a guessed another possibility. When she was overseas, she led her subordinates to destroy a drug lord's lair and dismantle the drug lord's power. From then on, the drug lord regarded Gina as a thorn in his side. He sent his subordinates to assassinate Gina many times, but they failed. Instead, he began to place orders on a hacker's website and hired top assassins to kill Gina.

Gina had always known about this, but she did not take it to heart.

As a top hacker, she naturally had the means to get rid of the drug lord's mission on the dark web. However, she thought that this would not threaten her personal safety, so she did not care.

If it was the drug lord's men, they would not be so brazen. Moreover, she was in the country now.

I don't have any suspects for the time being."

Gina Miler answered.

"Alright, I understand. I'll get someone to continue investigating."

Gina had initially focused on the fire at the Miller family's old residence because she knew that the school was investigating this matter. She wanted to see what the school's investigation results were, but there seemed to be no progress, and the school did not stop investigating.

It turned out that the school's insistence on investigating was instructed by Gabriel.

"Gabriel, thank you."

Gina's tone became more serious.

"Why are you thanking me again?" There was a hint of helplessness in Gabriel's gentle tone.

Thank you for doing this for me."

There was a moment of silence on the other end of the phone. Then, Gabriel's low and magnetic voice sounded again. "Gina, are you just grateful to me out of friendship!"

Gina thought about it seriously for a moment. "Probably."

"That's pretty good."

Gabriel's answer surprised Gina Miller.

"In the future, we'll become even closer friends."

Boyfriend and girlfriend.

Gabriel knew that C i n a was a slow-motion person. He was not in a hurry and even enjoyed the process of Gina slowly accepting himself.

"I'll hang up first."

Gina did not know how to continue Gabriel's sentence.

"Okay."

Prover Hospital.

Dylan had just finished his rounds. When he saw Gina outside his office, he quickened his pace. "Gina, why are you here?"

11:05 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 107

Why didn't you tell me first? Have you been waiting for a long time?"

"No, just for a while."

"What's wrong? Why are you looking for me?"

"Yes, I have something to ask you."

Dylan instantly became a little nervous. Could Gina be here to question him and tell Neil about the hospitalization discount?

Dylan was a little annoyed. Neil promised to keep it a secret, right?

"Are you familiar with Zach Presley?"

Dylan was stunned. So it was not about that matter. He felt relieved.

"Zach is the gynecologist. I'm not very familiar with him. Why are you asking him?"

"What happened to him? Go on?"

Gina could tell that Dylan wanted to say something but hesitated.

Usually, Dylan did not like to talk about his colleagues in the hospital behind their backs. However, he did not have a good impression of Zach.

"He has a bad temper and is very capable. He's a capable man in the gynecology and obstetrics department. Previously, he saved a few pregnant women from amniotic fluid embolism. As a result, he became famous. When many pregnant women came for a checkup, they would often ask him to take a look and follow up on the entire pregnancy. After he became famous, he became a little arrogant. There was also some friction between him and his colleagues.

Dylan also learned about these things from the doctors conversations. He was not a gossipy person, but his memory was too good.

Although he did not have a good impression of Zach, he was indeed capable. He could only say that Zach was a very person to evaluate!

"Take me to him."

"Oh, okay."

Dylan nodded.

Gynecology and Obstetrics Department,

"Where's Dr. Presley?"

Dylan asked a nurse.

diffic

"Dr. Presley isn't here." The nurse glanced at Gina and thought that she was a pregnant woman who was here for a checkup. "Miss, if you want to see Dr. Presley, you have to make an appointment in advance."

"Isn't it the scheduled shift time now?" Gina asked. 'Does Mr. Presley often miss work like this? Does he not meet unless he's booked?"

ETRUS TAU, 25 May

Chapter 107

The nurse immediately became nervous. "Oh, this is because Dr. Presley has a special arrangement."

Was he putting on airs?

Gina understood. Seeing that the nurse was in a dilemma and could not say anything.

Gina softened her tone. "It's fine. I'll make an appointment. Go ahead."

“Okay, okay.”

The nurse felt relieved and secretly rejoiced that Dr. Presley was not around. If Dr. Presley heard what this lady said in a slightly accusing tone, Dr. Presley would definitely fly into a rage and she would definitely be implicated.

An hour later, Zach arrived late.

He walked into the consultation room impatiently and glanced at Dylan. He did not even greet the nurse.

Chapter 108

“Hey, you’re the one who needs a checkup?” Zach asked Gina impatiently.

Dylan saw Zach’s arrogant and despotic appearance and could not stand it anymore.

“Dr. Presley, Miss Miller is looking for you

Gina wanted to discuss things with Zach.

Before Dylan could finish his sentence, he was interrupted by Zach arrogantly. “Why are you interrupting? Do you have the right to speak here?”

“You better mind your attitude, Gina said.

Zach’s surprised gaze landed on Gina. “Who do you think you are? Why are you asking me for punishment? Do you know how many people make appointments to see me every day? Now, you can get lost. I won’t treat you, understand?”

Gina’s expression was indifferent. “You have some reputation, so you’re starting to be arrogant, right?”

Zach found it strange. Where did this brat come from? She was actually educating him.

Zach sneered. “I don’t think you’re very old, but you’re here alone. I’m guessing that you’re having an affair with a gangster boyfriend and are pregnant. That’s why you came for a checkup, right?”

Zach sized up Gina from head to toe. “You’re quite pretty. It’s a pity that you’re already fd by someone.”

“Zach!” Dylan was furious.

Gina’s expression was indifferent, but she was still disgusted by Zach’s malicious words. She did not say anything else and raised her hand to slap Zach.

Smack!

The sound of the slap was loud and clear.

Gina used 50% of her strength.

Zach was dizzy from the beating, and blood instantly flowed from his nose. He touched his nose in disbelief and found at hand full of blood.

He could not believe this wretched girl was so strong. “Sid bh, you’re asking for trouble.”

Zach flew into a rage.

He raised his hand and prepared to counterattack. He clenched his fists and prepared all his strength to swing it at Gina’s face

Dylan exclaimed, “Gina, be carefull

Just as he was about to step forward to help, he saw Gina react quickly. She caught Zach’s fist with her palm and twisted it. There was a cracking sound. Zach was stunned for a few seconds before he started to scream in pain.

Dylan was stunned. It seemed like he had been worrying too much just now. Ca could deal with Zach so easily. Chapter 108 Dylan guessed Zach's hand was definitely fractured. Zach fell to the ground in pain. He covered his right hand and curled his body in pain. “Bh, how dare you hit me? How dare you hurt my hand? Do you know how precious my hand is? I won't let you off?” he shouted.

He also knew that he was no match for Gina, so he did not dare to act rashly for the time being.

Moreover, when he saw that the situation was bad, he planned to escape.

Gina saw through his intentions and signaled Dylan with her eyes.

Dylan understood.

He came forward and blocked Zach's way.

Zach glared fiercely at Dylan. “Get the fk out of my way. How dare you block my way? Do you believe that I can give you a hard time in the hospital?” When Gina heard this, she raised her eyebrows with interest and asked, “What right do you have to give him a hard time in the hospital?” “My dad is the hospital's leader. He can make you leave with just one word!” Zach said to Dylan. Then, he turned around and said to Gina, “You bh, do you think you can escape? I have a way to deal with you!”

“Oh? You can deal with me? However, I'm here to deal with you.” Gina smirked.

Zach was stunned. “What do you mean?”

Gina played the recording that Gabriel had sent to him.

Inside was Dr. Leon's confession of Zach. He also explained how he had cooperated with Zach to deceive those uneducated pregnant women from the countryside.

The more he listened, the paler Zach's face became..

“Who is your superior? Are there any accomplices in the hospital?” Gina sat on the chair and questioned Zach.

The natural pressure coming from her body made Zach shiver unconsciously.

Zach gritted his teeth. “Who the fk are you? What's your motive for investigating this matter? You want money? Alright, I can give it to you!” Zach thought that Gina was here to extort money. Otherwise, why did Gina not call the police when she found out about this? What he did not know was that when Gina found out that Dr. Leon was going to be a doctor at the hospital, she felt a little guilty. She only realized that such a sm had appeared in her hospital. It was her negligence.

Therefore, Gina planned to deal with this matter personally first. After that, she would let Zach and his accomplices be punished by the law.

“Name your price!” Zach boasted shamelessly.

Gina said coldly, “What I want is for you to atone for your sins.”

Zach was stunned for a moment before he sneered. “Who do you think you are, a savior? Do you think you're invincible just because you know how to beat me? Bh! Do you think you're so righteous now? Let me tell you, don't meddle in other people's business. Cutting off someone's path to wealth is like killing their parents. I'm afraid you can't afford to meddle in other people's business!” Gina was calm and composed. She stood up and kicked Zach's knee. Zach immediately bowed to Gina and knelt on the ground. Gina raised her leg again and stepped on Zach's face, crushing him hard. Looks like you're not learning how to speak human language." Zach groaned in pain. He was still unconvinced and shouted fearlessly, "Dn bh, if you have the ability, let me call my father over and I'll kill you!" Hearing this, Gina found it funny. Zach was like a primary school student preparing to complain to his parents. "Okay, go ahead." Gina moved her foot away. Zach could not be bothered to wipe the dirt off his face and started to call his father. "Ben, where are you? In the hospital? Hurry up and come to my office. It's urgent!" After Ben replied that he would be here soon, Zach felt like he could immediately hold his head high. He wiped the blood from his nose and looked at Dylan with disdain. "Dylan, just you wait. I'll kick you out of the hospital today." Dylan was amused. "Alright, I'll wait. If you can't get me out of the hospital, you'll have to call me daddy." Zach was disdainful. Could it be that his father, who was the hospital leader, could not fire a junior doctor? Zach's gaze returned to Gina. As for this dn bh, she should not be from the hospital, so it was even easier. Although she was a little good at fighting. as long as he paid a few burly men, Zach did not believe that she could defeat them..

11:05 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 108

Chapter 109

Just you wait! Zach thought angrily.

Zach glared at Gina.

Ben arrived at Zach's office. Before entering, he asked, "What happened?"

As soon as he walked in, he saw Zach with a swollen face. Ben was shocked and did not notice that there were others in the office Zach, who beat you up like this?"

Ben was furious

"Ben, it's her. That bh! She broke my arm. I might not be able to perform surgery in the future. Ben! Kill her!" Zach pointed at Gina and then at Dylan. "And this neurology doctor, he's helping the evildoer!" The moment Ben turned around and saw Gina, he was stunned. "Ben, fire Dylan!" "Shut up!" Ben's expression suddenly changed. He turned around and shouted at Zach. Zach was stunned. "Ben, I was beaten up!" Ben swallowed his saliva. His palms were sweating from nervousness. He was no longer in the mood to care about his son, who could not shut up. Ben nudged Zach and forced an ugly smile at Gina, "Miss Miller is the dean. Miss Miller, long time no see. "Yes." Gina nodded slightly. Zach felt as if he had been struck by lightning. He only knew that the dean was elusive, but he did not know the dean's true identity. Zach pursed his lips and said in a trembling voice, "She's the dean? The dean is a woman?" Gina frowned and sneered. Is there a problem with a woman being the dean?" Ben slapped Zach. "What nonsense are you saying?" Zach was stunned by his father's slap. Ben braced himself and said, "Miss Miller, I don't know what my son did wrong for you to personally teach him a lesson? Did he offend you because he didn't recognize you?" "He's doing evil, Gina said coldly. Her gaze became sharper. "What?" Ben was stunned. Dylan explained the whole story. The more he listened, the uglier Ben's expression became. "You bd!"

11:05 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 109

Ben flew into a rage and kicked Zach's knee. Zacj knelt on the ground and grimaced in pain as he curled up his body.

“How could you do such a crazy thing? You’re a doctor who saves the dying and helps the injured!”

The more Ben spoke, the more agitated he became. He even clutched his chest, looking like he was heartbroken and unable to accept it

Gina looked at Zach and asked. “Let me ask you again, who is your superior? Are there any other accomplices in the hospital?”

Each was silent for a moment.

Ben seemed to be even more anxious than Gina. He questioned sternly, “Say something. Are you mute? How could you do such a thing! You’d better not hide anything. Think carefully before you say anything! If I had known that you would do such a shameful thing. I would have never had a son like you! Are you worthy of your mother who had high hopes for you before she passed away? Do you still have the guts to face her in the afterlife?”

Zach’s body stiffened. He glanced at Ben and then at Gina. He gritted his teeth and said, “No, there are no more of my accomplices in the hospital! I have a superior, but I don’t know his identity. We only communicated by anonymous email.”

Let me see your e-mails”

Gina wanted to see what they talked about on email.

This was Gina’s goal. Perhaps, she could find a clue about Zach’s superior from the clues.

“We delete the emails every time we’re done talking. Zach said.

It seemed that the other party was very cautious.

The clues were cut off just like that, but Gina was not discouraged.

“Are there really no more accomplices in the Prover Hospital? If I find out that you’re lying, you’ll have to bear the consequences.”

Gina’s casual remark made Zach shudder.

He swallowed. Tm not lying. It’s true. There’s no one else!”

*Gina glanced at Zach’s right hand, which was trembling in pain, and announced, I’ve cd your right hand. From now on, you really won’t be able to hold a scalpel. You’ve also lost your right to be a doctor.” Ben echoed, “Miss Miller, you did the right thing. This unfilial son of mine did such a heartless thing. His hands should be cd! I will also do my best to cooperate and let him accept the punishment of the law.

Then, call the police,” Gina said calmly.

Ben did not hesitate and immediately called the police. The police arrived very quickly. With the evidence in Gina’s hands, the police took Zach away.

Gina also went to the police station.

When she came out of the police station, Ca saw Ben standing at the door, seemingly waiting for her.

He seemed to have aged a lot in just a few hours. “Miss Miller, I’m very sorry for raising such a sg for me. I apologize

11:05 Thu, 23 May kh

Chapter 109

to you solemnly here. I didn’t teach my son well”

“Zach is already an adult. You don’t have to apologize for his mistakes.

Moreover, from the looks of it. Ben was also kept in the dark.

However, Gina felt that Ben's reaction along the way was a little abnormal. She had a feeling that Ben's anger towards Zach was not because he expected better from him, nor was it because he was heartbroken.

"After the investigation is over, the police will definitely announce the case. This matter might also affect the reputation of the hospital. It's only right for me to apologize. Miss Miller, I still have something to tell you. I want to resign. I don't have the integrity to stay in the hospital anymore," Ben sighed and said.

Gina did not have much of a reaction. "The staff of the Prover Hospital are free to leave and stay as they wish."

"Alright." Ben sighed. "Then I'll take my leave first."

"Sure."

After Ben left. Gina called Elsen.

When Elsen picked up the call, he sounded pleasantly surprised. 'Gina! You haven't contacted me for a long time. Do you have any instructions this time, my beloved chairman?"

You're back in business with the Miller Jewels?"

Elsen was deeply impressed by Olivia's talent in design and decided not to withdraw his investment.

Gina had also just learned about this from Ella, although she felt that the credibility of this matter was almost zero.

However, she still decided to call Elsen and ask him what was going on..

After listening to Gina, Elsen said agitatedly, "What's going on? When did I decide not to withdraw my investment? What's more, it was your idea to withdraw the investment. Of course, I'll follow your request. Who said that our Dale Group is going to reinvest in Miller Jewels?"

This was a complete rumor!

Gina asked. "Then, has the termination notice been released?"

"Well, not yet."

SEND GIFT

Chapter 110

Previously. Elsen was also harassed by Noah and the others. Some of them were troubled and suggested that if they could make a series of jewelry that was more popular than the Wish collection, they would reconsider the issue of withdrawing their investment.

He only gave them a target that could not be completed.

Because he knew that the Wish collection was personally designed by the chairman.

How could the designers of Miller Jewels reach the level of Gina?

Therefore, Elsen felt that they would never make a series of jewelry that was even more popular.

Just as he had expected, after such a long time, there had been no news from Miller Jewels. They had not released any new products or contacted him.

Elsen thought that the Miller family should have retreated in the face of difficulties. He did not expect that such rumors would spread and the chairman would hear it.

Elsen was also a little surprised.

Previously, he had not issued a termination notice because he had verbally made a concession. The Miller family had vowed that they would definitely do what they wanted and asked Elsen to be lenient for a period of time and not release a termination notice. Elsen did not want them to continue harassing him like unkillable c o c k r a c h e s, so he agreed

Indeed. Elsen was able to live in peace for a period of time.

I'm sorry, the chairman was negligent in this matter," Elsen said, a little embarrassed. Gina had no intention of blaming Elsen. "Then let's issue the termination notice now."
"Okay, okay"

Just as Gina was about to hang up, Elsen suddenly thought of something and said to Gina, "Gina, a new high-quality diamond mine has been discovered. It will be auctioned in three days. Do you need to buy it?"

Nowadays, Dale Group owned a total of 29 diamond mines around the world. Their stock of raw stones was completely have a hobby of collecting. When he sufficient and even overflowed. However, Elsen felt that their chairman seemed to found out that a new diamond mine had been excavated, he told Gina.

"Buy it."

Although Elsen was not surprised by this answer, he still muttered, "There are already 29 of them. Isn't that enough?"

"Buy it. Let's make it 30," Gina said nonchalantly.

Elsen could not help but laugh. As expected of their chairman. She had to buy it just to make up the numbers. The total price of the newly excavated diamond mine was estimated to be more than four hundred million dollars.

However, this amount of money meant nothing to Gina.

Chapter 110

Elsen replied. "Alright, I'll help you with the bidding procedures. The auction has a requirement that you be present personally. At that time, Gina, you might have to take some time to go to the venue,"

"Alright, I understand."

After the conversation ended, Gina hung up.

She dropped into Dale Group's official website and refreshed it. Then, she saw the termination notice.

Gina looked at the announcement and smiled slightly.

This time, the Miller family would change again.

At the Miller family's villa.

The atmosphere was gloomy.

"Ella, don't be angry with Olivia, Olivia borrowed the design of the chief designer of Quaria, but she definitely didn't do it on purpose. She just wanted to learn imitation and accidentally went overboard."

Noah tried his best to put in a good word for Olivia.

Ella's face was ashen. "Stop speaking up for her!"

Noah was a little speechless after being yelled at. Who did he offend? Since things had already come to this, shouting at him. would not solve the problem.

Olivia's eyes were red from crying. She reached out and tried to pull Ella's sleeve to get close to her.

Ella dodged.

“Ella, I really know I was wrong. Don’t be angry, okay? You can hit me or scold me if you want, but don’t be angry and hurt your body!”

If it was in the past, Ella would definitely soften her heart immediately. She felt that her little daughter was so sweet that she could not bear to be angry with her.

However, everything had changed long ago.

Ella had witnessed Olivia’s lies being exposed one by one. Now that things had come to this, she had to accept that her daughter, who treated her as her own, was a liar.

She could not tell if what Olivia said was true or false.

“Stop talking. Listening to you now, I feel that every word you say is a quibble!” Ella said mercilessly.

Olivia was shocked. She did not expect Ella to say : harsh words to her. She could not stop her tears.

“What’s the use of crying? Can crying get the award back?”

“Olivia, you’re not in the wrong. I’m the one who’s in the wrong. I accompanied you to the award ceremony today and caused trouble. I’ve lost all my integrity!

Although the people backstage seemed to be busy with their own things, they were definitely watching silently.

Chapter 110

In the eyes of others, the mother-daughter pair was definitely a joke.

“I told you not to cry. The blessings of the family are about to be wiped out by you!”

Ella shouted again.

Olivia had no choice but to stop crying. She looked at Noah, who was sitting on the sofa on the other side.

Noah was also a little helpless. His mother was in a fit of anger now, and he did not know how to calm her down.

Noah braced himself and said, “Ella, don’t say that. It’s the blessing of the family. How could it be taken away by crying? Olivia did some wrong things and made a huge mistake, but did she help us win Dale Group back in the end?”

Ella was silent for a moment. She wanted to say something but hesitated. In the end, she only sighed.

She remembered that it was actually Gina who was the final judge of the league tournament.

How could Gina be worthy?

O

This was the first time Ella was curious about Gina, her biological daughter. She finally realized that she had never really understood Gina.

Ella had mixed feelings.

I have a headache. I’ll rest for a while. Don’t disturb me.”

As she spoke, Ella picked up her phone and stood up. At this moment, the phone screen suddenly lit up. It was a new notification about Dale Group’s’ business news.

“I hereby solemnly announce that we suspend all collaborations with and investments in Miller Jewels.”

Ella’s heart skipped a beat. She was a little anxious as she unlocked her phone and checked the news.

There will not be any collaborative projects in the future? Recently, there has been a rumor that Dale Group has reinvested. in Miller Jewels. It's untrue information. Half a month ago, I asked everyone not to believe the rumors!"

Ella gripped her phone tightly bit by bit. She turned around and looked at Olivia, who was sitting on the sofa. The more she thought about it, the more she felt that she was useless. In fact, she was not even as good as Gina!

Ella fumed and showed the news to Olivia. "Tell me, what's going on? Noah! Olivia! Didn't you say that Elsen has decided not to withdraw his investment and that the funds have been transferred to the account?"
