

When She Stops Playing Nice Chapter 111

Chapter 111

Olivia knew that she couldn't keep it a secret forever, but she did not expect that the matter would be exposed so quickly.

Of course, Ella was not a fool. She did not believe them just because they said that Eisen would not withdraw his investment. She also personally went to the company to check the accounts and found that the funds had indeed arrived. In addition, Dale Group did not announce that it would withdraw its investment and cancel the cooperation. Ella thought that this matter would be resolved perfectly.

At this point, what happened in reality was against her wish.

What's going on with the company's books? Explain it to me!"

This was the first time Ella was so hysterical.

Noah pursed his lips, braced himself, and stammered, "We faked the books."

Ella almost could not breathe. She clutched her chest and looked like she was about to faint. Olivia hurriedly went forward to support her, but Ella shook her hand off.

Ella pointed at them and questioned, "You two are just my nice son and daughter. Do you think the Miller family is not having enough chaos? Is there a point in joining forces to lie to me?"

Olivia could not help but cry. "Mom, I really don't want to leave the Miller family. I was too afraid that you would leave me back then, so I did this. Don't blame Noah. It's all my fault. Mom, don't be angry because of me. I'll get out of the family now!"

Seeing that Olivia had taken all the blame, Noah was a little touched.

"Mom, now that things have come to this, it's useless for you to blame Olivia. Moreover, you have to understand that it was Gina who caused our Miller family to be in this state! If she had not been brought home, the Miller family would've remained in peace!

Noah did not mention that back then, he only brought her home because he wanted to obtain the shares in his grandmother's will instead of finding his lost relative.

"That bh usually pretends to be depressed and looks like she's well-behaved and useless. I didn't expect her to be so vicious and cg. She's so scheming and has ruined our family!"

Noah's eyes were filled with resentment.

Ella said subconsciously, "She's not useless. She's the final judge of this contest.

After returning home, Ella only focused on criticizing Olivia and did not elaborate on what had happened, causing Noah to be shocked when he heard this. "She's the judge? How did she become the judge?"

It was said that the judges of the contest were all experienced designers who had won international awards and were famous. internationally. Noah thought that Gina was just a country bumpkin, so how could she do it?

Noah doubted if he was dreaming-

He even pinched himself.

He muttered in a dull voice, "I've never heard Gina mention it before."

A

Chapter 111

However, after C n a acknowledged them as her relatives, not only did they rarely let Gina go home, but when Gina talked to them they all had unconcealed disdainful expressions and refused to talk to her.

The three of them knew very well that they had once been extremely aloof to Gina. At this moment, they felt guilty and tacitly did not continue the topic.

“Mom, the members of Dale Group have already made up their minds to withdraw their investment. We’ve already tried all kinds of methods, but they didn’t work. Why do we have to butter them up while they’re indifferent to us? We can just find another partner. In the lure, our Miller Jewels will become bigger and stronger. The tables will turn, and Dale Group will have to kneel and lick our boots! Just get over this!” Noah talked big and comforted Ella.

Ella smiled mockingly. What else could he do other than to get over it?

However, she felt a little regretful. She regretted not letting Gina join the company after discovering that she knew how to design.

One wrong step would lead to many mistakes.

Ella did not say anything else and turned to go upstairs.

Noah looked at Olivia, whose eyes were red from crying, and comforted her. “Let Mom calm down. Everything will pass. I’m here.

As Noah spoke, he went forward and hugged Olivia familiarly.

He hugged her tightly in his arms and said in an ambiguous tone, I’ll always take your side.”

Olivia felt a little uncomfortable. Although her relationship with Noah exceeded the relationship between siblings, unrestrained, Noah had started to touch her more and more, which terrified her a bit. She was afraid that the others in the family would know what was going on between them.

But now, Noah was the only person who could help her unconditionally. She could not make Noah unhappy. She could only push Noah’s chest as if she was playing hard to get. “Noah, you’re hugging me a little too tightly.

“Olivia, you know what? I want to make you mine.”

Noah thought he was being flirtatious.

Olivia had goosebumps all over her.

So greasy...

Olivia’s body trembled slightly, Noah thought that she had been seduced by him,

He became even more impudent and blew on Olivia’s ear. “Olivia, I want...”

“Ms. Olivia. Mr. Noah.

Suddenly, an untimely voice sounded.

It was Lucas.

Noah immediately let go of Olivia. Olivia also quickly distanced herself from Noah.

“Lucas, what are you doing? You’re so elusive. Are you trying to scare me to death?”

Noah asked impatiently since his Olivia's gaze gradually became firm. She clenched her fists. "Alright, I'll do as you say!"

On the other side, Gina returned home. When she entered the elevator, she received a call from Gabriel. "Gina, I've helped you deal with those nobodies. Dr. Leon has been fired and will be sentenced."
"Well, okay. Got it. Thank you for what you did, replied Gina.
Then can I ask for a reward?" said Gabriel.
Gina was puzzled. "What?"
"Gina, I'm downstairs. Can I come up and stay with you for a while?" Gabriel asked gently.
"Sure

“Okay.”

Gabriel's tone instantly became light and happy.

After Gina reached the floor, she subconsciously stood in the corridor and waited for Gabriel.

The elevator door opened and Gabriel walked out.

Gina smiled lightly and teased, “Let's go to. You'll be my guest.”

That's what I've wanted to do”

Gabriel followed Gina's footsteps. Just as the two of them were about to turn the corner, a person wearing sunglasses and a mask suddenly appeared. Then, Gabriel saw the woman raise her hand and splash the liquid in her hand at Gina. Gabriel reacted quickly and hugged Gina.

He turned around and protected her in his arms.

The unknown liquid in the woman's hand was splashed all over Gabriel. After that, his clothes began to sizzle.

Gina looked at Gabriel's corroded clothes and reacted. She frowned and said loudly, ‘Is it sulfuric acid?’

When the woman saw that Gina was not splashed, she seemed a little vexed. Seeing that her plan had failed, she immediately planned to escape escape. He immediately chose to 11:07 Thu, 23 May Chapter 112 block the woman's path. Gina also stepped forward and subdued the woman. Gina twisted the woman's hands and asked, “Who instructed you to do this?” Realizing that there was no hope of escape, the woman gritted her teeth and said, “No one instructed me! I just don't like your and hate you. I want you to die, so I did this.

I'll take responsibility for my own actions.” Gina felt puzzled. She pulled off the woman's sunglasses and mask. It was a completely unfamiliar face. Gina thought of something. “You were the one who splashed red paint on my door and cursed me to die, right?” The woman simply admitted it and roared helplessly, “Yes, it was me! You bh should die!”

When Gina saw that the woman had gone crazy, she began to wonder if the woman was me n t l l y ill or if she had been. provoked by something. Gina was about to call the police when she subconsciously turned to look at Gabriel beside her.

She realized that his neck had also been splashed and corroded by sulfuric acid, and a bl o d wound could be seen.

Gina exclaimed softly and knocked the woman out with a karate chop. Then, she grabbed Gabriel's hand and ran into the house. “Your neck was splashed with sulfuric acid. You have to treat it immediately.”

Ruby was a little surprised to see Gina return with Gabriel. “Gina, you're back...”

Gina was very worried. “Ruby, please help me get the first aid kit in the room.”

Ruby felt nervous when she saw how worried Gina was, “Okay, okay,”

Gina brought Gabriel into the bathroom. “Rinse it now!”

Gabriel immediately rinsed it.

When the cold water touched his wound, the burning pain intensified.

Gabriel could not help but frown. After he rinsed the wound, Gina took a clean towel to help Gabriel wipe off the remaining sulfuric acid.

She tried to be as gentle as possible while frowning slightly. As she looked at the terrible wound on Gabriel's neck, she suddenly felt quite upset.

She looked up at Gabriel and asked, "Does it hurt? Did I use too much strength? If it hurts, tell me."

Gabriel shook his head. "It doesn't hurt."

Without anesthesia, he could grit his teeth and endure the pain of digging out the bullet that had entered his flesh with a disinfected dagger, let alone being splashed with sulfuric acid,

I'll put some ointment on you." After Gina finished speaking, she held Gabriel's hand and led him to the living room.

Gabriel could not help but feel like laughing. He seemed to have become a child in Gina's eyes who needed to be taken care of. However, being able to hold Gina's hand made him feel very happy. Gina's hand was warm, soft, and tender. There seemed to be some calluses on her fingertips, and her palm was very warm.

He really wanted to keep holding her hand and not let Gina pulled Gabriel to sit on the sofa. At this moment, Ruby brought the first aid kit over.

Gina opened the first aid kit and took out painkillers to apply medicine to Gabriel.

Gabriel's originally fair and flawless neck now had a red scar from being burned by sulfuric acid.

Gina felt quite guilty.

After all, that woman's target was her.

If Gabriel didn't block the attack for her, he wouldn't have been splashed with sulfuric acid.

"I thought she only splashed it on your clothes just now. I didn't expect her to throw it at your neck."

If she had discovered it earlier, she wouldn't have chosen to waste her breath on that woman.

Although the delay was not too long, Gina still felt that it directly caused Gabriel's injuries to worsen.

"I'm sorry. It's my fault, Gina said dejectedly.

"Gina, how can you be blamed for this? That woman who tried to hurt you should be blamed."

Gabriel could tell that Gina was blaming herself. When he saw her frown, his heart ached.

Gina's expression was solemn. "Don't worry. When I've concocted the ointment to remove the scar, there won't be a scar on your neck! You won't be disfigured!"

Gabriel was stunned for a moment before laughing. "I don't care if I'm disfigured or not. I'm just glad that I protected you just now. That's enough."

Gabriel was glad that the woman splashed the sulfuric acid on him. Because of his height advantage, she did not splash it on his face.

Ruby listened to their conversation. She was worried but could not understand. "Gina, what happened?"

"When I came back just now, someone wanted to pour sulfuric acid on me. Gabriel blocked it in front of me, so the sulfuric acid was poured onto his neck and caused him to look like this," Gina said.

"Sulfuric acid?" Ruby was shocked.

Chapter 113

"Gabriel, are you alright?" Ruby asked nervously.

Ruby, I'm fine."

Ruby held Gina's hand nervously and asked, "Gina, are you alright?"

Gina nodded. "I'm fine."

Ruby heaved a sigh of relief and looked at Gina carefully. She was afraid that Gina wasn't telling the truth, for fear that she would be worried.

Ruby looked at the bloody scar on Gabriel's neck. Just looking at it brought her pain, but when Gina applied the medicine to him, he did not even groan in pain.

Gabriel was injured because of Gina.

Ruby said, "Take a rest, guys. Gabriel, I'll make you something delicious to nourish your body."

Gabriel laughed when he heard this.

He had been splashed with sulfuric acid. His body was injured, but it was not that serious. However, in the end, Ruby was showing concern for him. Ruby was Gina's only relative. He could see the concern in Ruby's eyes. Gabriel wondered if he had passed Ruby's test.

"Alright. Thank you, Ruby"

"You're welcome," Ruby said and went to the kitchen to make the food.

After Gina applied the medicine to Gabriel, she recalled that the woman she had just knocked out was still lying in the corridor. Gina called the police.

After the police the surveillance footage from the property management, they took the woman away.

Fortunately, Gina had helped to repair the surveillance system in the neighborhood that had been invaded by the virus last time. This time, she could capture evidence of the woman splashing sulfuric acid on her.

Gina sat back on the sofa and frowned at Gabriel's wound.

It made Gabriel want to reach out and smooth her brows. "I'm fine, really. Gina, don't blame yourself."

"I want to compensate you, Gina said seriously.

Gabriel was slightly stunned. Then, he raised his eyebrows slightly. Then I have to consider carefully what compensation I want

Gina felt that if she wanted to make it up to Gabriel, she should not have said it out loud. However, she felt that Gabriel did not seem to lack anything. What could she make up for?

She could offer any kind of compensation as long as he asked.

"Cin a, give me a hug.

11:07 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 113

Just now, in order to protect Gina, he had hugged her for the first time after a long time. However, it was too short and he was caught off guard when she stopped holding her. He wanted to extend that happy moment for a while.

Just a hug?"

"Yeah."

Gabriel nodded seriously.

Gina got up and bent down to hug Gabriel.

Gabriel got up and hugged Gina.

"Can I hold you a little longer?"

"Sure."

C i n a chuckled when she heard that. Gabriel seemed to be in a good mood. Could a hug make him happy?

For some reason, a strange feeling appeared in her heart again.

Gabriel's embrace actually made her feel at ease and close her eyes, temporarily ignoring everything.

"Gabriel, Gina, what would you like to eat..."

Ruby walked out with a spatula. When she saw the two of them hugging intimately, she was stunned.

Gabriel let go of Gina.

Ruby smiled. "Looks like I've disturbed you guys. I'm really sorry"

Gina did not feel embarrassed. "Ruby, just cook as you see fit. You don't have to ask us."

"Yes, Gina is right."

Gabriel agreed.,

"Alright. I'll leave you guys to it then."

"Is a hug enough to make it up to you?"

Gina felt that it was not enough.

"Of course not."

Gabriel denied it. "You also need to tell me something about yourself."

"Ask away

What do you like?"

The last time, Gabriel gave C i n a the bags from an entire Hosxen store. However, he could tell that Gina was actually not very interested in bags. It was just that she did not reject his good intentions.

Something I like? Diamonds, I think.

11:07 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 113

Gina thought about it seriously. She liked to make high-quality diamond designs look like what she liked. In fact, jewelry design was just her hobby at the beginning. When Gina first started designing, she did not expect that the style she casually drew would be so popular.

Diamonds?"

Gabriel understood and noted it down.

After dinner, Gina offered to send Gabriel home.

Gabriel smiled warmly and said half-jokingly. "It's really worth it to be splashed."

He even made Gina take the initiative to accompany him home.

He also wanted to spend more time with Gina.

Gina did not know how to react.

They arrived at the Jackson family's old mansion.

Gabriel had told Neil in advance that Gina would also be there for a while. Neil was already waiting at the door.

Seeing Gina get out of the car, Neil immediately went forward and greeted her happily, "Gina!"

"Mr. Neil

"Hey!"

Neil casually glanced at Gabriel. However, Gabriel's injury was too eye-catching. Neil had no choice but to look at Gabriel. What happened to your neck?"

It's because of me. Gina told Neil the whole story.

I'm sorry. I implicated him."

Neil waved his hand. "Gina, don't say that."

He then looked at Gabriel and patted Gabriel's shoulder hard. He acknowledged, "Brat, you did a good job! By the way, Gina, are you okay? Are you hurt?"

I'm fine.

I'm glad you're fine. It's alright. Don't worry about this brat. He's a tough guy. It doesn't matter he's injured!"

Gina did not know how to react again. Neil seemed to be even more worried about her as an outsider.

However, it was the same for Gabriel. He didn't care much about his injury. He only cared if she was injured.

"I've sent you home. I'll go back now."

"Okay" Gabriel was a little reluctant. Although he wished he could stick with Gina 24 hours a day. Gina was a very independent person. She really needed her own space, He tried his best not to disturb Gina's freedom.

Before Gina left, she suddenly went forward and hugged Gabriel.

Gabriel was stunned. "Gina?"

Gina quickly let go of him. "I think it's too little to compensate you with a hug

Although Gabriel was still calm and composed, only he knew that at this moment, his heart was surging with joy.

This was the first time Gina had taken the initiative to get close to him. Today was simply a memorable day.

I'm leaving. Bye."

"Good-bye.

BUX

After Gina left, Neil patted Gabriel's back forcefully. "Brat, you even know how to save a damsel in distress. Well done! If the scar on your neck can't be removed, it's fine. If someone asks in the future, you'll say that you were injured protecting your beloved! It's your Medal of Honor!"

Chapter 114

Gabriel did not know how to react.

After returning to his room, Gabriel called David. "Check if there are any diamond mines for sale recently."

"Will do."

After David instinctively replied, he came back to his senses. "Mr. Jackson, why are you suddenly acquiring a diamond mine!"

He didn't know why Gabriel was suddenly into that.

It's for Gina."

"Okay. What?"

David was stunned.

As expected of Mr. Jackson. Other people give out one or two diamonds, but Mr. Jackson is offering a mine directly. How stunning!

"Why? Is there a problem?"

Gabriel's tone was a little gloomy. The tone he used when he mentioned Gina was completely different.

Just the mention of Miss Miller's name made Mr. Jackson's tone unconsciously soften. He really loved her so much.

"No, no!"

David cleared his throat. "I'll check right away!"

A few minutes later, David replied to Gabriel.

"Mr. Jackson, a diamond mine has recently been discovered in South Africa. Coincidentally, it's going to be auctioned soon."

"Alright, got it."

After Gina got home, she logged on to hacker websites, which she hadn't done for a long time.

She wanted to see if there were any new bounty missions from the drug lord overseas. Gina looked around and realized that not only were there no new missions, and even the previous bounty missions were gone.

How is that possible?

After all, such a bounty mission would not be revoked unless completed.

Then, there was only one other possibility.

11:07 Thu, 23 May!

Chapter 113

Someone had helped her erase the bounty mission.

The drug lord was after her as a mercenary,

Who could it be that knew her identity and was kind enough to erase the mission?

Gina did not expect this.

As she checked, she saw a mission with a huge reward for finding Genevieve.

It was a bounty of 200 million dollars.

The prize money could be said to be very tempting, but no one took the order.

After all, everyone knew that it was harder than anything to find out the whereabouts of Genevieve. It was impossible to earn such money.

If it were in the past, Gina would consider accepting this mission and easily earn money.

However, at the moment, she had other important matters to deal with and was not in the mood to care about anything else. She had ignored this mission and did not continue to care.

Then, Gina received a call from the police station.

“Miss Miller, the attacker insisted that she didn’t like you and felt disgusted when she saw your face. That’s why she splashed the sulfuric acid on you. She didn’t get instructed by anyone.

“We also checked her phone records and chat records. We really didn’t find anything suspicious.

“We think she might have an antisocial personality who attacked you indiscriminately. Or maybe she’s m e t a l l y ill.

“However, her intentional assault is quite serious. She will definitely go to jail.

“Okay, thanks. Got it.”

Gina hung up.

She did not believe the woman’s words. She called Michael and said, “Help me investigate someone.

“Okay!”

After the call ended, C i n a’ s phone rang non-stop.

When she saw the name “Phillip on the caller ID, Gina was stunned. Ever since she left the Miller family, Gina had followed through and stopped caring about it. Therefore, she did not know how Phillip, who had a stroke, was doing recently. She only remembered that Dylan had mentioned to her that the Miller family members had transferred Phillip from Prover Hospital to Vegate Central Hospital.

After hesitating for a moment, Gina answered the call.

She didn’t say anything and waited for Phillip to speak. He didn’t say anything either.

Gina frowned and felt that something was wrong. She was speechless and planned to hang up.

Then, she heard Phillip’s he and stuttering voice. “Gi-Gina.”

11:07 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 114

When he spoke, it was as if his mouth was full of saliva and he was slurring his words.

Are you listening?”

“Is something wrong?”

“I, I miss you. I want to see you.”

Gina was stunned. She did not waver at all. She did not think that Phillip’s words came from the bottom of his heart.

She even found it quite ridiculous

She still clearly remembered that Phillip did not hide his disdain when he looked at her.

He was unconditionally biased toward Olivia because he believed Olivia’s one-sided words and even wanted to hit Gina.

He said fiercely. “You’re my daughter. Even if I beat you to death, it won’t be a problem.”

Gina only picked up the call because Phillip was now a patient.

“Stop joking. Mr. Miller. Also, didn’t anyone tell you? I have nothing to do with the Miller family anymore. I even signed a severance agreement.”

Phillip seemed a little surprised. “W-why?”

Gina sneered contemptuously. “Shouldn’t you know that?”

There was a moment of silence on the other end of the line.

“Gina, please, can you come and see me one last time? I really want to see you,” Phillip said with difficulty.

“I know. Previously, at the hospital, you often... would come to visit me. You also care about me, right?”

Because the Miller family members agreed that Phillip was sick while he was angered by Gina, they didn’t allow Gina to visit him at all.

Gina was actually completely confident that she could cure Phillip, so there was once when there was no one taking care of Phillip to cure him.

However, as soon as Gina entered the ward, she was chased out by Lucas. Lucas said with a darkened expression that Ella had arranged for him to take care of Phillip.

Gina was not allowed to approach Phillip.

At that time, Phillip, who had a stroke and was lying on the hospital bed, was furious and inarticulate. He even had to struggle to get Gina to get lost.

Gina could only leave.

And now, half a month had passed since she left the Miller family. It was not long, and Phillip actually said that he missed her.

How was that possible?

“I don’t want to see you.

11:07 Thu, 23 Maykor

Chapter 114

Gina rejected him inercilessly.

Agitated, Phillip stuttered, “Gi-Gina, I’m begging you... Please

Gina hung up the phone.

Phillip called again.

It repeated a few times.

Gina suddenly felt that there was a hint of fear in Phillip’s agitated voice.

She wondered, What’s he afraid of? Oh right, last time, someone poured poisonous gas into Phillip’s oxygen. I wonder if the Miller family members investigated it Gina finally picked up.

“What’s the matter? Do you have to see me?”

Phillip said strenuously. “Yes, Gina. Just come and see me. I promise I won’t disturb you again. Please.”

“Answer me one question first, Gina said.

“Do you know who put toxic gas in your oxygen tank?”

Who would want to kill Phillip?

Gina found it strange.

On the other end of the line, there was silence again as if Phillip was trying to think about what he should say. After a long time, he replied, “T. I don’t know.”

Chapter 115

“Gina... Please come...”

Phillip stuttered as he said this. He seemed to have choked on his own saliva and started coughing violently.

After leaving the Miller family, Gina blocked the Miller family's contact information. She did not block Phillip's. She had forgotten to do it. Otherwise, she would not have received Phillip's call today.

"Okay, I can come see you. When?"

"It'll just be for a while. Can you come over now?"

"Sure, Gina replied indifferently.

Indeed, she treated this meeting as the last time she would see her biological father. In Vegate Central Hospital, Gina came to the door of Phillip's ward. She pushed the door open and entered. The moment she entered, she realized that something was wrong.

The air was filled with the faint smell of blood.

Gina frowned and looked at the bed. Phillip was lying on the bed with a pale face and his eyes closed.

Something was wrong. Something was very wrong. Gina stepped forward swiftly. She subconsciously lifted Phillip's blanket. What greeted her eyes was Phillip's slit throat. The wound was very deep, and blood had already flowed all over the bed. Gina's eyes widened. She did not expect to see such a scene the moment she arrived. At this moment, Phillip slowly opened his eyes, but he could not make a sound. Gina didn't know how to describe how she was feeling- She was trembling. "Who did this?"

Phillip was barely breathing. He suddenly raised his hand and pointed at the drawer of the bedside table. Gina thought that there was a clue or something inside. She opened the drawer and there were only a paper letter inside.

Gina realized that Phillip could no longer speak.

She didn't have time to think. "I'll stop the bleeding first."

Even though she could tell that Phillip couldn't be saved, she still did not want to give up.

This was her instinct as a doctor.

Phillip used his last bit of strength to shake his head.

He mouthed the words with great effort before he stopped breathing.

Chapter 115

"Phillip?" Gina subconsciously shouted, verifying that Phillip was gone forever.

Gina froze. She tried her best to calm herself down and began to think about the words Phillip had just mouthed to her. What did it mean?

After carefully recalling and identifying it, she roughly guessed the content. Phillip seemed to have said, "Watch out for Lucas."

Gina recalled that the last time she found that Phillip's oxygen tank contained poisonous gas, it was also Lucas who stopped her from pulling out the oxygen tank.

Could it be that Lucas wasn't worried at all at that time while thinking that she was trying to harm Phillip?

Did he do it because she had ruined his plans?

Gina did not think of this at that time. She totally missed it. Then, Gina anxiously picked up the letter that Phillip had left for her to read. She hoped that there would be any clues in the letter. However, the content of the letter was only an apology letter. In the letter, Phillip said that when he was staying at the Valium Hospital, he heard the nurses chatting, who said that he could stay in such a good hospital and have such high-quality medical resources because of Gina's arrangements. Phillip did not believe it at the time, so he asked Dylan. Dylan did not tell Phillip the truth at first, but because he had witnessed the Miller family mistreating Gina, he could not stand it anymore and told Phillip the truth. He also told him that Gina was actually the director of Prover Hospital. Phillip was very touched and felt very guilty for treating her like that. [My daughter, you're so outstanding. I'm proud of you and feel guilty for not being a good father for the rest of my life. I was harsh and aloof to you. I don't expect you to forgive me, but I still want to apologize to you solemnly. I want you to meet me because I'm afraid that I won't have the chance to do so in the future. I want to apologize to you.] After reading the letter, Gina didn't have any particular feelings. She had always hoped that her so-called family could sincerely apologize to her. In that case, she could ignore all the insults and contempt in the past. Unfortunately, before she left the Miller family, she did not get the sincere apology she wanted. Phillip only apologized after knowing that she was the director of the hospital. What if she didn't have those hidden identities? If she was really just an ordinary village girl, she would probably never be able to get their apology in her lifetime. It was said that when a person was about to die, they said kind words. It seemed that the saying was true. Gina looked at Phillip, who was already dead, and felt that he was both pitiful and hateful. However, she found a key point in the letter. Phillip seemed to know that he was about to die, so he wrote this letter in a hurry.

11:08 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 115

Did that mean that he was threatened by someone before she came?

Was it Lucas?

He was definitely the No. 1 Suspect.

Gina did not have time to think too much. She had to call the police immediately. Just as she was about to call the police, the door of the ward was pushed open.

Ella walked into the ward with a tired expression.

She looked up and was a little surprised to see Gina there.

Then, she looked over at the hospital bed. When she saw that Phillip was already dead, her eyes widened and she screamed. Then she fell to the floor.

"Mom, what's wrong?" Olivia's voice was heard as she walked into the ward.

After taking a look at the bed, she screamed loudly, "What happened? Gina, what did you do to Dad?"

"Phillip! Phillip!"

Ella went forward and stumbled to the bedside. She wanted to touch Phillip but did not dare to reach out to touch the cold corpse.

Ella pulled her hair and screamed helplessly, "Gina, what did you do? No matter how much you hate us, you shouldn't have killed your father. He's your biological father. Are you still human? You actually killed him!"

Gina remained calm. "I didn't kill him. When I arrived, someone had already slit his throat. Where's Lucas? Where is he?"

Ella could not listen to what Gina said at all. She watched as her husband's throat was cut open and he died on the hospital bed from excessive blood loss. She was in a daze. "How could you do this? Gina, how could you! You're so ruthless!"

Ella was so angry that she spat out a large mouthful of blood.

Olivia cried and went forward to hug Ella. "Mom? Mom, are you alright? Mom!"

"Murderer, you're not human. You're a demon. Olivia, hurry and call the police. We can't let your father die so unjustly!"

Ella suddenly broke free from Olivia's embrace. She went forward and grabbed Gina's shirt with all her might. "Just wait here for the police to come! Don't even think about running. Today, unless I die! Otherwise, I won't let you escape.

Chapter 116

Gina stood firmly without any intention of leaving. As the first witness, how could she leave?

She looked at Ella indifferently and glared at her fiercely. "I won't leave, and I won't explain further because I know you won't believe me at all."

Ella gritted her teeth.

"I saw it with my eyes! I've already seen it. I saw my husband die on the bed, and you were the only one in the ward. Why did you come? Why did you come here suddenly? Weren't you here to kill him? How could you be so heartless? Do you hate us? Do you want to kill us? In the end, we're still related by blood. Are you really not afraid of karma?"

Olivia also looked helpless, panicked, and afraid. She said with a trembling voice, "Mom, I-I've already called the police. Mom, calm down. What you need now is to see a doctor. I've lost my father now. I can't lose my mother!"

Olivia's words completely made Ella lose control.

"Gina, I'll make you pay with your life! Pay with your life!" Ella cried bitterly, Olivia and Ella hugged each other and cried. She looked up at C i n a and said. "If you want to blame someone, blame me alone. I stole everything that should have belonged to you. If you want to hate someone, hate me alone. If you want to kill someone, kill me! Don't hurt Mom, Dad, and my brother!"

At this moment. Ella did not care that she was still angry with Olivia on the way to the hospital.

She felt that Olivia had embarrassed her at the contest's award ceremony.

For now, these were not important matters.

Olivia had lied a lot.

Gina was indeed not as useless as Ella thought.

Ella had just felt a little regret in her heart when she completely lost it.

She could not accept that her biological child could be so vicious.

“She’s not human at all. She’s a beast. She even dared to kill her biological father!”
Heartbroken, Ella accused Gina

From the beginning to the end, Gina did not say a word because she did not want to waste her breath on them.

Originally, she had already made up her mind not to ask about the family. However, now that she was involved in this mess, she would definitely shatter it.

She cooperated with the police and completed part of the investigation process. Ella and Olivia returned home after being questioned.

Chapter 116

Noah was quite surprised to see Olivia walk in with Ella, who looked pale.

“Mom, what’s wrong? Didn’t you two agree to go to the hospital to see Dad together?”

Mom, are you feeling unwell?

Ella looked up dejectedly. After glancing at Noah, she could not say anything.

She said to Olivia in a trembling voice, “Olivia, tell your brother what happened.”

She no longer had the strength to describe it.

Olivia’s tears flowed uncontrollably. She sobbed and said, “Brother, Dad is gone.”

Noah was stunned when he heard this.

‘Dad’s gone?’

How’s that possible?

Although he received worse conditions of medicine and treatment after he was transferred from Prover Hospital to Vegate Central Hospital, during the last checkup, the doctor said that he was doing fine and showed signs of improvement step by step.

‘How could this be? Noah was still puzzled when he heard Olivia continue.

“Gina came to the hospital to kill Dad.”

“What did you say?”

Noah could not believe his ears. He asked in disbelief, “You mean Gina killed Dad?!”

Olivia nodded. “Yes. When we arrived at the ward, Dad had already passed away. At that time, only Gina was in the ward. You know how long it has been since she contacted us after leaving the Miller family. But today, she suddenly showed up in Dad’s ward without informing us... Also, her previous actions and all kinds of signs indicate that she wants to take revenge on us, but I didn’t expect her to kill Dad in such an extreme way.”

Olivia began to cry as she spoke.

Chapter 117

Noah could not deal with such a huge blow for a while. “She’s actually so vicious!”

Ella slumped on the sofa and said to Noah with tears streaming down her face, “Call your brothers back for the funeral.”

“Okay.

Noah nodded sadly.

When Jason returned from the company, he noticed that everyone in the house looked sad. He asked curiously, "What's wrong? All of you look like you've lost your soul"

Only Olivia looked up at Jason.

She then told Jason the news of Phillip's death. Jason felt as if he had been struck by lightning and cursed, "That bitch! She's simply inhumane. She must be sentenced to death!"

Olivia rolled her eyes and said worriedly, "But Jason, I think Gina might have a way to escape the law,"

Jason obviously didn't believe her. "What are you talking about? She's done such a heartless thing. How can she escape the law?"

"Because Gina isn't as simple as she looks. She has many powerful hidden identities that we didn't know about before. She's the dean of Prover Hospital, and she's also the final judge of the third-tier jewelry league contest. Also, she's on good terms with the Jackson family now. She even seems to be dating Gabriel"

In other words, the Jackson family might cover up for Gina.

Jason was stunned at first, but he needed some time to deal with the information he had just learned that his countryside sister whom he despised actually had such powerful identities.

However, so what if she had so many powerful hidden identities? No matter how outstanding she was, she was a beast who killed her father and was a scum.

"Dating Gabriel?" Jason sneered. "She's a murderer. How can the Jackson family protect her? That's Impossible unless they give up on their prestige!"

peace. "I'm just worried that Gina will think of a way to clear her name. Then, I'm afraid Dad's soul in heaven won't rest in Moreover, it's the investigation stage now. Gina's personal freedom hasn't been restricted yet. She has time and opportunity to exonerate herself."

"Then what should we do?" Jason flipped out.

I think we might need to borrow the power of public opinion. Jason, it just so happens that you have a huge fan base. You can post a complaint about Gina first and attract the attention of society. Let everyone know that Gina has done such a terrifying thing. That way, probably no one will dare to help her.”

Moreover, the reputation of Prover Hospital would definitely be affected.

How much did such a top-notch hospital earn every year? Gina was actually the director.

Olivia was about to die of jealousy while wondering viciously, ‘What method did that bitch use to have the money to start this private hospital? She must have been whoring herself. Moreover, once the matter blows up, Gabriel will definitely abandon Gina. What right does that bitch have to make Gabriel Jackson woo her? He even bought an entire Hosxen store’s bags for Gina’

And she would never forget what Ginn had told her at the Hosxen store to humiliate her.

Now, she must ruin Gina’s reputation and leave her with nothing.

Jason nodded. “Alright, I’ll discuss it with my agent. Olivia, give me your opinion on what I should post on Twitter!”

Only then could Gina’s viciousness be vividly displayed.

Okay

Olivia nodded.

The next day, Gina was woken up by Ruby. “Gina, Gina?”

She sounded anxious.

Gina opened her eyes and saw Ruby’s red eyes. She was quite shocked. “What’s wrong, Ruby?”

Ruby’s hands were trembling as she turned her phone screen to Gina. The trending topic online is that you killed your biological father. What’s going on? What happened?”

I didn’t do it, Ruby. Someone else did it,” Gina said calmly.

After hesitating for a while, Gina asked, “Do you believe me?”

Ruby was stunned. “Gina, what are you talking about? Of course, I believe you. I know that you would never do such a thing. Even if they treat you badly, you won’t. You would never kill them. But I don’t know who’s been spreading this on the internet. It’s going to have a huge impact on your reputation. Moreover, I saw many people scolding you in the comments. This matter is clearly still under investigation. What right do they have to say that you’re a murderer?”

Ruby’s tone was a little choked up.

Gina realized that Ruby’s eyes were red because people on the Internet were scolding her.

Gina felt touched. She hugged Ruby and said, “It doesn’t matter, Ruby. I don’t care what those people who don’t know the truth say. As long as you believe me, it’s enough.”

Ruby sobbed and hugged Gina. “Cina, I’m sorry. I can’t do anything to help you...

She could only hope that the police would find out the truth as soon as possible and clear Gina’s name.

Now, Ruby could only voice her opinion online to defend Gina, which was almost insignificant. She had posted one comment, asking everyone believed Gina was the murderer while the truth had yet to be revealed. Unexpectedly, she got almost 1,000 comments, saying that she was sympathizing with the murderer and that she was also a potential murderer.

Gina said to Ruby, “Ruby, you don’t need to defend me. The truth will be revealed. It just needs some time.”

Mr. Jackson, bad news.”

At the same time, David hurriedly walked into the office inside the Jackson Group.

Chapter 117

“What is it?”

David sent Jason’s Twitter link to Gabriel. The general content of the Twitter post was to first announce Gina’s identity as the dean of Prover Hospital and the final judge of the National Higher Education Design League Contest. Jason hypocritically expressed that he did not expect such an outstanding sister of his to do such a heartless thing.

Just because of some family conflicts, after falling out with them, she was so vicious that she killed her biological father.

Moreover, Jason also said that he had long realized that Gina was a vicious person.

Previously, Gina had put pesticide in his breakfast, and he almost took it in one gulp.

At that time, he was very shocked by Gina's viciousness.

However, he felt that they were family, and he shouldn't hold her accountable, so he chose to forgive Gina.

He did not expect that his indulgence would actually make Gina go even crazier and kill their biological father.

He expressed that he made that Twitter post because he wanted to expose this devil to the public and make her despised by everyone. Hence, he could not care less about keeping his family's skeleton in the closet.

At the end of the post, Jason even sighed hypocritically, saying that Gina was supposed to have a happy life and a superior status. She was even in a relationship with Gabriel, the CEO of Jackson Group.

However, she had personally destroyed all of this. While he was heartbroken, he also hated Gina.

He was hinting that he would definitely make Gina pay.

David frowned and said, "Mr. Jackson, I think that Jason Miller deliberately mentioned you! I don't know what they're up to, but this Twitter post has been retweeted by tens of millions of people. Because when you're mentioned, the netizens all that you're actually dating a murderer, which they find unreasonable. The influence of public opinion is quite serious. The share price of Jackson Group is continuing to fall."

David was frustrated. "This matter is clearly under investigation, but before the results are shown, the Miller family is already so desperate to accuse Miss Miller of murdering her father. This is just unbelievable!"

It was also because the crime of killing one's father was so heinous that the Miller family couldn't wait to speak up,

They wanted to ruin Gina's reputation.

If Jackson Group was affected, then the effect on Prover Hospital would only be greater.

"Mr. Jackson, what should we do now?"

David felt troubled for the first time.

Gabriel was about to speak when his phone rang. It was a call from Gina.

"Make a statement now and cut ties with me."

Gabriel was shocked. "Gina, why?"

He added anxiously, "I believe you didn't do it!"

David also said, "Yeah, Miss Miller. We all believe in you!"

However, he had to admit that it was indeed the best way to deal with the public relations crisis. Otherwise, Jackson Group's stock price would continue to fall, which would have a huge impact on Jackson Group.

"Thank you for believing me, but Gabriel, I don't want to implicate you."

Gina did not want Jackson Group to suffer a huge loss because of her.

Gabriel sighed softly, "Gina, I can choose to deal with it while lying low until the day the truth is revealed."

"But that's not the best solution, is it? Gabriel, don't hesitate anymore. If you're unwilling to accept my suggestion, then it means that you don't see me as a friend. Besides, you'll just be telling the truth. We're indeed not dating each other. Hurry up and send it. If you don't, we won't meet again."

Gina's tone became firm.

Gabriel frowned and ordered David, "Make an announcement."

11:08 Thu, 23 May

Chapter 118

"Yes, sir."

Of course. Gabriel knew that immediately severing ties with Gina was a good plan to save the stock price, but Gabriel did not want to use it because he felt that Gina would be sad after the announcement was made.

However, it was impossible for him to ignore Jackson Group's interest. He was still hesitating.

Gina called. She had personally helped him solve this problem. Gabriel suddenly reacted. Gina specially called him and talked about it probably because she did not want him to make a difficult decision.

She was trapped, but she was considerate of him.

Gabriel clenched his fists. When the investigation results were shown, he would take revenge on the Miller family.

"Since the announcement has been made, and I have other things to deal with, I'll hang up now.”

“Okay” Gabriel surely knew that she was dealing with the situation at Prover Hospital. After hanging up. Gina answered Dylan’s call Dylan was quite guilty. “Gina, I’m sorry. I once told Phillip Miller that you’re the director. I... I’m sorry. I didn’t keep it a secret like we agreed. There are many people surrounding the hospital entrance now. They’re cursing at the entrance. There are some patients in the hospital who insist on a refund... There are many patients who have their appointments canceled. Many doctors and nurses want to resign.....

The crime of killing one’s father was too serious. No one would want to have anything to do with someone who dared to kill their biological father.

“It doesn’t matter. If there are fewer patients in the hospital, you can rest more. Take it as a few days off. You don’t usually rest much. As for those who want to leave, let them handle the procedures themselves.”

When Dylan heard Gina’s calm words, the annoyance in his heart suddenly dissipated a little.

Once again, he silently lamented Gina’s strength and composure.

Originally, he was worried that if this accident wasn’t handled well, Prover Hospital would be shut down. However, on second thought, he supposed it would be easy for Gina to establish another high-quality hospital like Prover Hospital.

“Okay. Got it,” Dylan said.

Just as he was about to make a call, Gina, for the first time, told him not to hang up.

Gina asked Dylan, “I have one more question. Do you believe that I didn’t kill Phillip?”

Dylan was very surprised. Why would Gina ask him that?

“Of course I believe you.”

The Miller family treated her like that.

However, Gina still let bygones be bygones and allowed Phillip to obtain top-grade medical resources.

She still wanted to cure Phillip of his stroke, but the Miller family people did not appreciate her kindness. They guarded.

against Gina like a thief and did not allow her to step into Phillip’s ward. She tried to save him, but Lucas bumped into her and chased her away.

Dylan had always admired Gina. He felt that the benevolence of a doctor was vividly displayed in her.

He did not believe that such a kindhearted person would do such a terrible thing “Okay, thank you.

Gina was in a better mood.

“But, Gina, why are you asking me this question?”

“I just want to ask. Perhaps I want to experience the feeling of being trusted unconditionally.”

Hearing this. Dylan still felt a little sad. Although he did not know what Gina had experienced to make her sigh, at this moment, he could empathize.

In the Jackson family’s old mansion, Ethan came to Isaac and asked, “Where’s Grandpa?”

“Mr. Neil is fishing in the fish pond in the backyard.”

Ethan went straight to the backyard and saw Neil.

“Grandpa! Grandpa!”

Neil turned to look at Ethan. “What’s wrong? Just tell me if you need anything.

Ethan was clearly quite agitated. He showed Neil the rising public opinion and said,

“Grandpa, look, Gina is a p r v e r t. She has a vicious heart. She even dared to kill her biological father. Our Jackson family will definitely not let such a malicious girl in, right?”

Neil was very shocked, but he was shocked that Phillip was dead. Jason, Gina’s fourth brother, publicized this matter on social media

He was going to ruin Gina’s reputation.

“Grandpa, why aren’t you saying anything?”

Ethan looked at Neil’s reaction, which was not within his expectations at all. He immediately felt quite upset.

“Isn’t this still under investigation? What nonsense are you spouting?” Neil said angrily.

Ethan was stunned. He did not expect that his grandfather would still side with that bh at a time like this. He wondered. She killed her father Even if that bh saved

Grandpa’s life, he treats her so well. Isn’t it enough for her?

Holy t! Gina had ruined Ethan’s engagement party and embarrassed him. For a long time, he did not even dare to leave the house. He was too embarrassed to go to the gathering of his friends, which he used to do, and he just hid at home. He hated Gina to death, but because of Gabriel, he did not dare to do anything to Gina. Ethan didn’t want to give up and sneered disdainfully, “Grandpa, you’re so biased toward her. I almost thought that she was your biological granddaughter, but I’m happy that Uncle Gabriel did the right thing. The first thing he did was declare that he had nothing to do with Gina, which saved Jackson Group’s share price.” Neil was shocked. “What did you say?” “Uncle Gabriel got his men to make a statement on the official website of Jackson Group.” Ethan believed that this was evidence that Gabriel chose to abandon Gina. In the future, without his uncle protecting Gina, he would make that bh die in her boots.

Neil unlocked his phone and frowned.

Ethan was still mocking Gina. ‘Grandpa, why do you dote on an outsider like Gina that much? She’s someone who even dares to kill her biological father. You’d better be careful. What if she puts poison in the potion she sends you?’

“Shut up and get out!” Neil said angrily.

Ethan pouted in dissatisfaction and turned to leave.

Neil called Gabriel. “What’s with the announcement? Can you explain it to me? Gina is in trouble. Instead of helping her, you do that? investigating the truth, and clearing her name, you even desperately severed ties with her. How could “You’re shameless, but I still want my prestige! Gina is my savior. As my son, you’re so ungrateful to my benefactor.

“What a b a s t a r d!”

At the side, Isaac saw that Neil was so angry and that the veins on his forehead were bulging. He was very worried. “Mr. Jackson. Please calm down. Calm down!”

"I can't calm down. What sin did I commit to bring me such an ungrateful son? You desperately made an announcement and cut ties with Gina. Gina must be so sad!"

After Neil finished cursing, he was panting.

It was Gina who asked me to make the announcement. Gabriel finally had a chance to interrupt.

"What did you say?" Neil was stunned,

The public opinion affected Jackson Group's share price. Gina said that she didn't want to implicate me and asked me to make a statement. If I don't post it and choose to deal with it while lying low, she won't see me again in this lifetime."

Neil calmed down a little.

"You'd better be telling the truth. Don't think I'm s e n i l e and gullible!" Neil said angrily and hung up. After that, he called

Gina

"Gina.

"Mr. Neil

Did you really ask Gabriel to make the announcement for Jackson Group?"

Gina was quite surprised that Neil would actually call her to investigate this matter.

"Yes. I don't want the Jackson Group and the Jackson family to be implicated because of me."

Neil's heart ached for Gina. "Gina, if there's anything I can help you with, just tell me! I know that you must have been framed."

It was impossible for Neil to doubt Gina just because of the rising public opinion on the Internet.

She was a girl who could save an old man who had a heart attack on the side of the road. Even if she was aloof, she was not a cruel person. It was even more impossible for her to kill her biological father.

Even if her so-called family did not treat her well, Neil believed that Gina was not such an extreme person.

Thank you, Mr. Neil. I can handle it myself."

"Gina

Neil sighed. He knew that Gina did not want the Jackson family to be involved in the mess.

"Mr. Neil, have a good rest and take care. You don't need to worry about me. I can handle it."

"Okay then"

Neil knew that at this critical moment, Gina still had a lot of things to do to prove her innocence, so he did not disturb Gina.

After Gina hung up, she got a call from Michael.

"Gina, as per your instructions, I checked L u c a s's movements for the entire day yesterday. He didn't show up at the hospital for the entire day yesterday. He stayed in the Miller family's place and didn't go out."

Gina's first suspect was Lucas. In the past, Gina did not pay much attention to this serv an t who liked to rely on others. But now, when Gina recalled all the past events, she suddenly felt that something was wrong.

L u c a s 's most common saying was, "Olivia is the Miller family's noble young lady. You're just a country bumpkin. Don't even think about s a c h i n g her position."

Because she had long been used to the ridicule, slander, and abuse of the Miller family, Gina had never taken L u c a s 's words to heart

Now that she thought about it, she realized that Lucas seemed to be especially concerned about Olivia.

11:08 Thu, 23 May ***

Chapter 119

Every time, he would fight for justice for Olivia.

He had never only cared about Gina's alleged evil deeds toward others.

James and the others would accuse Gina of doing bad things to her brothers or parents, calling her an ingrate,

Every time Lucas mocked her, he would only mention Olivia,

It was as if he didn't care how Gina treated others in the Miller family badly.

Also. Olivia was the best at fanning the flames every time Olivia framed Gina.

Gina felt that Lucas was not just Olivia's lackey.

Michael's voice on the other end of the line interrupted Gina's thoughts.

"Gina, although I didn't find anything abnormal about Lucas, I checked the surveillance footage in the hospital for the entire day. I found one thing. A woman's movements are very suspicious. Every time she makes a move, she seems to deliberately avoid the surveillance cameras."

Then, Michael took a screenshot of the woman on the surveillance video and sent it to Gina.

Gina looked at the woman in the photo and suddenly felt that this figure was especially familiar.

Last time, when Gabriel told her that he was investigating the arsonist in the school dormitory building, he also discovered a suspicious woman.

It perfectly overlapped with the figure of this woman in the screenshot Michael sent her. It was the same woman.

Who was this woman? She might have been the one who started the fire. Was she also the one who killed Phillip? Why did she do this?

"I'll find her as soon as possible!" Michael said.

Gina said lightly, "Okay. By the way, help me do a paternity test on Lucas and Olivia."

Michael was stunned. "Alright. I'll do it immediately."

Chapter 120

At the same time, in the Bush family's place, Jasmine looked at the heated discussions and laughed.

She wondered, 'Gina is just a bh. Before I could teach her a lesson, she got herself in such great trouble. This is great! 'She's already a murderer, and Gabriel has also made a statement. He must have given up on Gina! That's awesome.

Jasmine hurriedly dressed herself up. She wanted to seize the opportunity to win back Gabriel's heart. Jasmine tidied up and went out happily. Jabari saw her and asked, "Where are you going?" Jasmine raised her eyebrows. "Take a guess." Jabari felt a little helpless, but he said with certainty, "You're going to see Gabriel." Jasmine pursed her lips. "Why are you asking if you already know? Jabari, did you see the news online? That st Gina actually dared to kill her biological father.

"What a freak. She's worse than a beast."

Jabari wasn't very concerned about this matter, but he still browsed through it a little. However, he could tell that every time Jasmine looked happy and energetic, she was going to see Gabriel.

"Do you think that you have a shot on him while Gina's out of the picture?"

Jabari chuckled disdainfully.

Jasmine was displeased. Jabari, why do you keep saying things like that to belittle me? I'm your sister!"

"I'm just speaking the truth. Jasmine, don't you understand? Regardless of whether Gina is around, Gabriel doesn't like you. You've known each other for a long time. If he had any feelings for you, he wouldn't have ignored you for so many years.

Jasmine's good mood was completely ruined. "Jabari, what do you mean? Are you speaking up for Gina? Which part of me can't compare to Gina? She only used some tricks to seduce Gabriel. Now, she's revealed her vicious side. Gabriel must find her very disgusting now. He'll definitely be able to find how nice I am now,"

Jabari really didn't understand Jasmine's train of thought. Seeing how stubborn she was, Jabari couldn't be bothered. "You can do whatever you want. Also, be careful. Don't find fault with Gina or do anything that will be adding insult to injury."

Jasmine felt a little guilty because she had planned to crush Gina while the public opinion was rising.

However, she refused to admit it. "She's going to jail. She's going to pay with her life for killing someone. Why would I find fault with her? She's not even worthy of my attack.

Jabari, I'm really curious. Why are you speaking up for Gina openly and covertly? Why? Don't tell me you like that bh too. Are you blind? Do you like that kind of person?

She has a good appearance, but you shouldn't like trash, right?" Jabari felt helpless. "What nonsense are you talking about?" Patricide was indeed an extremely negative social event. 11:52 Fri, 24 May UG Chapter 120 90% 1

However, this case was still in the investigation stage. Jabari felt that this matter wasn't that simple. And the reason why he told Jasmine not to find fault with Gina was not because he had his eyes on Gina. After he found out that Gina was the final judge of the league contest, he understood why when he first saw Gina, he had a feeling that she was not simple. After watching the news, he knew that she was the director of Prover Hospital. She was young, successful, and extraordinarily talented. Would such a person be really willing to give up everything to kill her father and ruin her own life? Jabari felt that it was impossible. Jason's Twitter post said that Gina was an extremely vengeful person. He had only said a few unpleasant words to her unintentionally, but Gina had already hated him and put pesticide in his breakfast. "Unintentional", "a few sentences", "unpleasant words" Jason was obviously avoiding the main point. Jabari felt that there was still room for a reversal. If Jasmine provoked C i n a and Gina took revenge on the Bush family and the Bush Group, the consequences would be serious. Jabari just didn't want his sister to provoke a powerful enemy. Jasmine knew what Jabari was thinking and found it ridiculous. Jabari, I think you're thinking too much. She's a murderer and she killed her biological father. She'll only be punished by the law and executed with a just death sentence!" Jasmine sneered in disdain and turned to leave. Jabari looked at Jasmine's back and frowned. ཤ འཆ ཟ འ བ བ དེ འད ་ On the way to Jackson Group, Jasmine sat on her Ferrari and edited a Twitter post. Because she would post some selfies and photos of herself flaunting her wealth on Twitter, she had some followers. She didn't want to be an internet celebrity and earn money. She just wanted to make people envious and support her, so she didn't update much. Today, her Twitter post had finally worked. Jasmine posted on Twitter, suspecting that the first-place winner was Aria because Aria was Gina's friend. Gina was biased toward Aria Torres, which was why Aria got first place. She also requested for a re-selection. She even defended Gabriel. [Gabriel isn't dating Gina anymore. She's the one who shamelessly pestered him.] Jasmine's Twitter post also caused a stir in the rising public opinion. [What Miss Bush said makes sense. Gina had also been staying at home. Now, the public opinion was very influential. Many people expressed indignantly that they wanted to find Gina offline and teach her, who was worse than an animal, a lesson. In fact, Gina could understand the anger of these netizens. It was normal for them to think that she was the murderer of her father and hate her, who was called a s of society. Moreover, what Jason did made the crowd even angrier. Gina would occasionally check what was on Twitter. Suddenly, she saw that Jason had deleted his post, which trended on Twitter. He even posted a new trending topic. [Waiting for the results of the investigation. I'm sorry to take up public resources.] The comments below were all asking for justice. [What's going on? Jason, are you being threatened? Oh my g o d, the powerful one behind Gina has taken action, right? This is just terrifying!] [It doesn't matter. We will always root for you until the day Gina pays the price!] What did Jason mean by deleting his previous Twitter post? Was he trying to add fuel to the fire by posting another Twitter post with such an unclear attitude?
