Chapter 8

Third POV

"I, Alpha Ethan, reject you, Omega Allison as my mate."

Allison immediately grabbed her heart. She felt a loud noise in both of her ears. It did not come from outside but inside of her.

She could see Ethan leaving her alone in the forest. She tried her best to stand straight until he left.

The moment he left, she fell to the ground and screamed in pain.

"Aaaaahh!"

She clutched her clothes, and almost pierced her nails in her palms.

Why was the pain unbearable? What was happening to her? Would she die?

Her head was burning like hell. Her wolf started to howl inside. She was whimpering in pain.

How could he do that to her? Did he not know that by rejecting his mate, she could die too?

"Please help me, Moon Goddess."

She begged the moon goddess. Though she knew there was no way to save from this intolerable pain.

It was nature's law. If anyone broke it, they had to bear the consequences. However, the law was one-sided. Only the wolf who got rejected could feel the pain.

But what about the wolf who rejected his mate? How could he live his life normally without feeling anything?

Allison's condition was miserable. She felt a sharp pain in her heart as if she was losing something.

She lay on the ground and her eyes became heavy. It was difficult for her to keep her eyes open anymore. She started to see dark.

At that time, she saw a dark silhouette coming close to her.

She tried to maintain her eyes to open but before she could ask for help, the dark around her engulfed her totally. She fully lost consciousness.

Allison's parents were busy with talking with Alpha Neil and Luna Ella. Teresa was sending a message to Allison about where she was.

At that time, Ryan came back to Allison's house. His arms were carrying her. She looked unconscious.

"ALLISON!"

Allison's mother Joey screamed when she saw her daughter.

"What happened to her?" Beta Glen, Allison's father asked Ryan.

Ryan looked at Glen and asked,

"Where is her room?"

He did not care to answer their questions. He did not know what had happened either. But what he knew was Ethan did something to her. He could only guess what happened.

"Upstairs. The first room." Allison's mother said.

Ryan went to Allison's room and lay her in her bed. Teresa and Joey followed him behind.

He came out and went downstairs. Teresa and Joey also went there. They wanted to know the answer.

"She is okay. I think she felt weak so she fainted." Ryan said to everyone.

Alpha Neil rushed towards him and grabbed his collar.

"What did you do to her? Tell me. You surely did something. She was okay when she was here. She went to call you now, what happened to her?"

Ryan rolled his eyes. He grabbed his father's hands and moved them from his collar.

"You have your favorite son. Why don't you ask your son about it rather than me huh?"

His voice was chilly. He was looking into his father's eyes directly.

Everyone was shocked. No one had ever talked to Alpha Neil like that.

Before Alpha Neil scolded him, he left the house without looking at anyone.

"This brat!"

"As far as I can tell, he never lies. He said he did not do anything." Luna Ella pleaded to Alpha Neil.

"It's your fault. You spoiled him too much."

"Relax Alpha. I called our pack doctor. He is coming." Beta Glen said. He was also worried for his daughter.

The pack doctor came to check on Allison, he said Allison was very weak but soon it would be okay.

"Why is this all happening to my child?" Joey cried.

Luna Ella patted her shoulder. "Don't worry, Joey. She will be fine."

The pack doctor left. Alpha Neil and Luna Ella also left the house. In their car, Alpha Neil called Ethan. He said he was at home. He said he was feeling bored so he went back early.

Meanwhile In the pack house,

Ethan was sitting on his bed. He did not like Allison in any other way. How could he make his Luna an Omega girl?

'I am not a simple wolf like others. My whole pack's responsibility is on my shoulder. How can I let my pack in danger because of my mate? She is just a vulnerable wolf. She can't be the queen of this realm. I did nothing wrong. I just thought about my people. That's it.'

He made himself understand that he did the right thing.

His wolf was not happy with him. His eyes turned dark. He punched the wall in anger.

'So what if she said she loves me? Every girl is head over heel for me. I can't love her back. I should not feel any sympathy for her.'

He heard the sound of shoes. He glanced at the door and the door burst open.

Ryan entered the room and rushed to Ethan at a high speed.

Ethan could not take the time to stand up. Ryan punched his cheek hard and grabbed his collar.

"How dare you do that?"

Ethan scoffed and pushed him. Ryan moved back. Ethan stood up and glared at him.

"Your hands are running too much nowadays. I am just controlling myself because of Mom you know. Otherwise, I have hands too."

"Why?" Ryan asked the last question again.

"What why? I don't want her. She is just a normal girl. She doesn't deserve to be this pack's Luna."

Ryan laughed when he heard Ethan.

"Today you made me believe that you are actually Alpha Neil's son. When I was abroad I only heard about him making you like a perfect Alpha. Now I understand what others meant. You actually became a great Alpha, Ethan. You thought about your people and sacrificed your own mate. What a kind person you are!"

"You have nothing to do with it. Just stay away from me and her." Ethan glared and warned him.

Ryan nodded his head.

"Since you already rejected her and she is no one to you..."

He paused and smirked at him,

"Then let me have her."
